In Dublin, by

MESSRS. JOHN DAVID LA TOUCHE & Co.

And in Edinburgh, by

REV. D. T. K. DRUMMOND, and REV. D. BAGOT.

 The Committee of the Church Missionary Society beg to suggest to the Committees and Officers of Associations, that the most convenient and economical mode of making their Remittances is through the medium of a Banker in the Country to the Society's Bankers, through the Banking-house in town with which the Country Banker corresponds, advising the Secretaries of the payment.

ANNUAL REPORT.

WITH a view to economize expenditure in Printing the Annual Report, the Committee request that Copies not required by the possessors may be returned to the Church Missionary House: and would suggest, whether, in those cases where more than one member of a family is entitled to the Report, one copy of it might not suffice for the information of the whole?

PROPER FORM OF A DONATION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

I GIVE and bequeath the sum of unto the Treasurer for the time being of a voluntary Society meeting in or near London, commonly called or known by the name of "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East:" the same to be paid within months next after my decease, out of such part only of my Personal Estate as shall not consist of Mortgages or Chattels Real, in Trust, to be applied to the uses and purposes of that Society; and for which the receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge.

 Devises of land, or of money charged on land, or secured on mortgage of lands or tenements, or to be laid out in lands or tenements, are void; but money or stock may be given by Will, if not directed to be laid out in land

At the Forty-first Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 4, 1841—

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE CLERICAL SECRETARY—

On the Motion of the Right Rev. Lord Bp. of Winchester, seconded by the Rev. E. Bickersteth,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee: that the Second Law of the Society be altered as follows—

"The Vice-Patrons shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such Temporal Peers as, being Members, shall be appointed thereto:"

That the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. Francis Close, for his Sermon before the Society last evening, to the Right Hon. the President, to the Vice-Patrons and Vice-Presidents, and to all those Friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf; and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the year ensuing, with power to fill up vacancies: (See LIST, p. iv.)

On the Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Salisbury, seconded by the Rev. Charles Isaac Yorke, Rector of Shenfield,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That at a time when the diffusion of secular knowledge is rapidly detaching the minds of the Natives of India from their Idolatrous Systems, and when so many facilities are, in the providence of God, afforded to this country for Propagating the pure Gospel of Christ among them, the immediate application of Christian Education, on a large scale and of the highest order, is most urgently called for, to train a duly-qualified Native Ministry for the Evangelization of India.

On the Motion of the Rev. John Tucker, from Madras, seconded by the Right Hon. Lord Glenelg,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the favourable progress of the awakening at Krishnaghur, and the evidences of the saving influence of the Gospel of Christ on the hearts both of Hindoos and Mahomedans in other parts of India, call for praise to the God of all grace for what He hath already wrought, and for earnest prayer for a large increase of the Messengers of the Churches and for a more plentiful effusion of the Holy Ghost to render the labours of His Servants effectual.

On a Motion of the Rev. Frederick Monod, Secretary of the Paris Missionary Society, seconded by the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That while the wide diffusion of Christian Knowledge among the Natives of New Zealand, and the sanctifying influence of Divine Grace on the hearts of many of them, demand grateful thanksgiving, the consequences to be apprehended from European Colonization, now in rapid progress, cannot be contemplated without deep anxiety; and call for especial prayer to Almighty God, that impending evils may be averted, and that all may be overruled in mercy to the preservation of the Native Race, and their full participation in the blessings of true Religion, and the varied temporal benefits which it dispenses.

At a Meeting of the Society, held in Exeter Hall, on Tuesday Evening, May 4, 1841—

The Most Hon. the MARQUESS CHOLMONDELEY, Vice-Patron, in the Chair.

On a Motion of the Rev. Francis Close, Incumbent of Cheltenham, seconded by the Rev. Dr. Barth, of Calw, Würtemberg,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting rejoices, with humble thankfulness, in the steady progress of the West-Africa Mission; and that, adverting to the extension of the Mission to the Timmanees, beyond the bounds of the Colony of Sierra Leone—to the facilities for imparting the knowledge of the Gospel to be anticipated from the Expedition to the Niger—and to the bearing of the East-Africa Mission upon the Galla Tribes—it would earnestly call upon the Members of the Society to be fervent in prayer that the Divine Blessing may largely rest upon the varied attempts to convey the blessings of Christianity and legitimate Commerce to injured and benighted Africa.

On a Motion of the Rev. J. A. Jetter, Missionary from Asia Minor, seconded by Rev. John Tucker,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting, contemplating the probable appointment of a Bishop of the Church of England for the Levant, desires to record its sense of the necessity of the measure, and of the benefits likely to result from such an extension of Episcopal superintendence over the Society's Missionaries in the Mediterranean.

On a Motion by the Rev. William Hoffman, Principal of the Bâsle Missionary Institution, seconded by the Ven. Archdeacon Shirley,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting acknowledges with heartfelt gratitude the marked success, with which, in the midst of many difficulties, it has pleased God to bless the labours of the Society's Missionaries in North-West America; and that it regards the prosperous state of the Missions generally—their gradual extension—and the urgent appeals to the Committee to occupy new spheres of labour, far beyond its means to answer—as a loud call upon its members and friends to abound more in prayer, in exertion, and in self-denial.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by Patrons, Vice-Patrons, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRONS of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection. VICE-PATRONS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such Temporal Peers as, being Members, shall be appointed thereto. The PRESIDENT shall be such Peer or Commoner, and the VICE-PRESIDENTS such Commoners, as may be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upward, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upward per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upward shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the general Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and Vice-Presidents of the Society,

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees, XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued: The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which, special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary*.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made, to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon his designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries—these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and discipline of the Church."

Suggested Order of Proceedings at a Meeting preparatory to the Formation of an Association in aid of the Church Missionary Society.

1.—Mr. will move, and Mr. will second, a Resolution, "That be requested to take the Chair."

2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.

3.—After prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the First Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

SECOND RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That an Association be now formed, and entitled, "The Church Missionary Association;" and that the following be its Officers and Rules

PRESIDENT. VICE-PRESIDENTS.

TREASURER. SECRETARY.

COMMITTEE:

with power to add to their number.

RULES.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward; or if Clergymen, Half a Guinea; and also such persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward; or if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas; and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at its General Meetings: and Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Record"; and of Sixpence a week and upward, of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Gleaner." Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society. Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors. Contributors of 1*d.* a week and upward will be entitled to receive the Parent Society's "Quarterly Paper."

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society; and to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society, in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mahomedan Nations.

1 CORINTHIANS I. 21.

AFTER THAT IN THE WISDOM OF GOD THE WORLD BY WISDOM KNEW NOT GOD, IT PLEASED GOD BY THE FOOLISHNESS OF PREACHING TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE.

THE mighty aggressive movement of the Church of God upon the dark masses of Heathenism, in these last days, is beginning to attract universal attention. Not only the devout Christian, or the student of prophecy, but the legislator, the philosopher, the philanthropist, even the mercantile speculator himself, is compelled in some measure to observe the progress of British Missions. It becomes therefore an important duty, calmly to consider the principles upon which these operations are conducted, and the results which have followed; that we may be enabled to determine whether this thing is of God, or whether it is a merely human effort.

And when we would obtain a satisfactory answer to this question, to what test shall we have recourse?—in what balances shall we weigh it? Various opinions are entertained upon this subject; and many of them very erroneous. Some persons contemplate this great undertaking through the medium of their fancy and their romantic feelings; while others regard it on the principle of cold rationality. Some look at it through the medium of their own interpretation of unfulfilled prophecy; and so are tempted, alternately, either to exaggerate or diminish their estimate of our successes, according to the particular school to which they belong. But whither should a CHRISTIAN turn, but to the NEW TESTAMENT? And how may we hope so accurately to solve the problem, as by referring to that first great promulgation of the Gospel, by means of which the ancient world was evangelized; and by which we ourselves are now assembled to worship God, to hear His word, and praise Him?

Turn we, then, to primitive Christianity. This is not only the most simple, the most sure and certain, but it is the only authoritative guide in this matter. If this modern effort do not resemble the ancient—if it vary in principle, in manner, or in result—then we may safely disregard it as unworthy of our support. But if, after a careful comparison between the ancient and the modern attempt to promulgate the truth as it is in Jesus—if, after reading diligently the Acts of the Apostles, and gleaning from the inspired Epistles of those holy men the manner in which they first propagated Christianity, and the results which followed—if, after a patient investigation of the present condition of the world and of the Church, we discover that the state of the Heathen is the same, that the remedy offered them is identical, and that the same blessing of God has followed—then the conclusion is unavoidable;—we are bound to promote this holy cause, and it is at our peril we disregard it!

This, then, shall be my present attempt—in simple dependence upon HIM, whose prerogative it is to bring strength out of weakness, and wisdom out of folly, and to impart salvation by the foolishness of preaching! In sole reliance on divine help and strength, and believing that there are many prayers ascending from the hearts of God's faithful people, I enter on this investigation. And may the Spirit of the Most High God descend, and move upon the face of this assembly!

In the words of the text, the Apostle presents a complete epitome of the first promulgation of Christianity. It shall be my endeavour carefully to compare this with our present extended effort to make the Redeemer's name known among the Gentiles.

I. Let us consider THE TESTIMONY HERE AFFORDED US RESPECTING THE FIRST PROMULGATION OF THE GOSPEL:—After that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. Here observe, First, THE CONDITION OF THE THEN HEATHEN WORLD;—they knew not God, and they were lost. Secondly, THE REMEDY WHICH GOD PROVIDED FOR THEIR RELIEF;—the foolishness of preaching. And, Thirdly, THE RESULT WHICH FOLLOWED;—it saved them that believe.

1. Hear, then, the witness of Revelation, respecting the state of the Heathen World as it was in the days of the Apostle;—they knew not God! Nor is it unimportant that we should recollect the period of history when this testimony was recorded. It was not in a barbarous age, nor in an uncivilised, uneducated country, that St. Paul uttered this declaration. It was in the evening of the Augustan age; when man's intellect had been developed to the utmost extent; when he had learned all that was great in science and in literature, in arts and in civilization;—it was when poetry, and painting, and oratory, and the metaphysical and mathematical sciences had been brought to a degree of perfection, to which, in these degenerate times, we scarcely aspire;—it was then that this testimony was borne. It was not on the wandering Arab's tent, nor on the wild Indian's hut, that these words were inscribed; but on the polished marbles of Athens, and on the walls of proud, imperial Rome. With all their knowledge and intellectual cultivation, they knew not God. Alas, for the pitiable result of human wisdom!

"Vain wisdom all, and false philosophy!"

Nor was this merely COINCIDENCE: it was CAUSALITY. The language of my text, the testimony of all Scripture, and the evidence of universal History, substantiate this remarkable fact; viz. that unsanctified wisdom and intellectual cultivation have been the fruitful parents of idolatry and infidelity. In the proudest cities of the world, the wealthiest, the most highly cultivated, the most scientific, there have ever been found the most abominable idolatries, with their attendant licentiousness and infidelity—evils which Philosophy has itself promoted. So the Apostle declares, The world by wisdom knew not God; or, as the original imports, "by means of wisdom:" that is, the world's ignorance of God emanated from wisdom itself!—a testimony borne, not only against that particular age, but against all preceding ages. The phraseology of the text implies long anterior retrospection: After that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God. After thousands of years had rolled by, St. Paul—looking back to Egypt, where Science was born and cradled—to Egypt, with its innumerable reptile gods—to Babylon, where Science was nourished and matured, and whither the Grecian Sages went to light their lamps; contemplating these ancient fountains of philosophy, no less than its wide flowing streams in times more recent—the inspired man traces all the spiritual blindness and ignorance of the world to the pride of its secular philosophy, and declares that the world by wisdom knew not God! With regard to Babylon more particularly—that gay, luxurious city, who thought to be a lady for ever—the prophet Isaiah —chap. xlvii.—after having described the gross licentiousness and degrading idolatry which prevailed, records this testimony of God against her:—Thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me. Here all the abominations of Babylon are traced to its wisdom, and to the inflated pride of its philosophy. Exactly parallel is the conclusion at which St. Paul arrives, in another Epistle—Romans i.—where he gives a complete and succinct account of the origin of Heathenism; affirming, that they became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:—and thence sprung their idolatry; for he adds, And they changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. In like manner, he teaches the Corinthians that this carnal knowledge, this secular philosophy, hinders, rather than promotes, the growth of true religion—1 Cor. iii. 18: If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. He must unlearn his knowledge; he must retrace his steps; he must humble the pride of his philosophy and wisdom. Except ye be converted, and become as little children, said our Blessed Lord, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.—This, then, is the testimony of God respecting the heathen world at that period, and antecedently.

But even more than this is implied in the text;—the Gentiles not only knew not God, but they were in a perishing condition—they were lost! This is evident, from an expression in the close of the verse before us: It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. Had they not been lost, they would not have stood in need of salvation by faith in Christ. And, melancholy as the truth may be, all Scripture, and more particularly the New Testament, declares, that the heathen world, without the knowledge of the True God, is under His curse and condemnation;—that diabolical influence is extended over it—the sway of Satan, the God of this world; and that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: lost, ruined, perishing, they go down into darkness, without hope, *without Christ, and without God in the world.—Dark picture of Heathenism, as drawn by an unerring hand!

2. But let us next consider THE METHOD OF RELIEF WHICH GOD PROVIDED FOR THESE LOST ONES:—After that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God! Here is something in which the Lord delighteth;—here is a thought rising in the deep bosom of the Almighty, which diffused joy even in that tranquil holy place: It pleased God! And what was it that pleased God? It was that which man despiseth—It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. Oh, let us beware how we say one word against preaching! Preaching is that which pleaseth God: it is the ordinance which He has seen fit specially to appoint for the salvation of sinners, and the gathering together of His elect. Very dangerous is it, to exalt one ordinance of God against another; and to extol the Sacraments while we depreciate the preaching of the Gospel.

But what is the nature of this preaching? The words rendered "preaching" vary in the original: here the idea is that of PROCLAIMING, as by a HERALD. In the seventeenth verse, to preach the Gospel, is, to evangelize. But, whatever may be the exact import of the word in the sacred text, the term "preaching" seems to be generally used in a peculiar sense in the Acts of the Apostles, and in the rest of the New Testament. Preaching may be distinguished in some measure, though not altogether, from the ordinary instruction of pastors in the Church of Christ: it is not so much the doctrine, the EDIFICATION, the instruction in righteousness, as it is the first promulgation of the Truth to those who never heard it. It pleased God by the proclamations of His heralds, or by the evangelical declarations of His Missionaries, to save them that believe. Preaching is a summons from the God of heaven and earth, to His rebel children, to lay down their arms. It is the proclamation of the lawful Sovereign: it is the offer of free pardon and mercy from the King of kings and Lord of lords.

This peculiarity of preaching is strongly marked in verse 17. When St. Paul says, Christ sent me, not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, he would not lead us to suppose for a moment that he depreciated the sacred ordinance of baptism; but, that the administration of that sacrament formed no part of the herald's office, to which he felt himself more particularly called. His first and highest duty was, to publish his message—to proclaim mercy and salvation to a guilty world—to call upon the rebels to lay down their arms;—and when they had submitted and obeyed, when they had repented and believed, then he would cause them to be baptized, and to be signed with the sign of the cross, the emblem and seal of the faith into which they had been baptized. The same appointed order is observed in the original commission of all Apostles and Ministers: Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature—baptizing them:—first preach, and then baptize. Preaching is the converting ordinance: baptism the seal and ratification of conversion. Preaching, in this sense, is for unbelievers; the Sacraments are for the edification and sanctification of believers.

Nor must the SUBSTANCE of this preaching be overlooked. This proclamation—this message of mercy—may all be comprised in one word; it is—CHRIST. Christ, the first; Christ, the last; Christ, the alpha and omega, the beginning and the ending. When the Apostles first stole from house to house among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, what did they preach? They taught and preached *Jesus Christ. When Philip went down to Samaria, what message did he deliver? he preached Christ unto them! When Paul was apprehended, and was suffered to address the people at the top of the stairs, he testified of Jesus, who met him in the way. On Mars' Hill, to the polished Athenians, he preached Jesus, and the Resurrection; and his uniform determination was, to know nothing among the Gentiles, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified†. Salvation, full, free, complete, offered, without money and without price, to guilty, lost, and ruined man—this is preaching—this is the proclamation of the grace of God. To exhibit Christ, in all the glories of His person, as God manifest in the flesh, as Immanuel, God with us; in all the sufficiency of His offices, as the Prophet, Priest, Advocate, and King of His people; in all the riches of His grace, pardoning the vilest sinners, receiving the far-away prodigal again to

* Acts v. 42. viii. 5. xxii. † 1 Corinthians ii. 2.

His bosom, sanctifying and building up His elect people—this is to preach the Gospel: he that preacheth Christ, preacheth the Gospel; and he that doth not set forth Christ, preacheth not the Gospel.

One great peculiarity, however, in that preaching which pleaseth God, and which He has appointed for the salvation of the world, yet remains to be noticed: It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. It is evident, from the context, that St. Paul uses this expression in two senses. Preaching was foolishness to some who heard it;—to the self-righteous Jews and the philosophic Greeks, the cross of Christ was foolishness; and to those alone who believed, was it the power of God unto salvation, according to the assertion of the eighteenth verse, The preaching of the cross is, to them that perish, foolishness.— But this is by no means the principal, nor the most obvious and striking interpretation of this phrase. By the foolishness of preaching, the Apostle chiefly intended the simplicity of preaching—unadorned, and undisguised by human wisdom and philosophy. He says, in verse 17: Christ sent me, not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel; not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. And again, in the twenty-fifth verse, The foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. It is evident here, that he is contrasting the simplicity and apparent feebleness of the office of preaching with the profound wisdom of man; proving, that the foolishness of God is wiser than men. In like manner, in the second chapter, he declares further: And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power; that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. We learn from these various passages, that it is possible not only not to preach the Gospel at all, but even so to preach Christ and His Gospel, that we strip them of their power. It is not preaching alone that will save souls, but the foolishness of preaching—the simplicity of it. Conceal it in the tangled web of human sophistry, garnish it with the flowers of human eloquence, obscure it with the dusky mantle of antiquity, present it in a lordly dish—and what do you? You destroy its hidden power! You make the cross of Christ of none effect! You may attract the eye of man from the precious and lovely pearl, to the gorgeous stones in which it is set: you divert the mind from the jewel, to the casket which contains it! The Gospel so preached, gives an uncertain sound, and none will prepare themselves to the battle. It is only simple, plain, affectionate, Scriptural declarations of God's Truth, unreserved, full, and free, flowing from the heart, and spoken in the power and demonstration of the Spirit—it is only such preaching as this, that can save them that believe. This is God's remedy. This is that, which the Apostle declares was the salvation of the heathen world. It was not pompous shows, nor complicated ceremonies, nor empty forms: it was not the elevation of the Host, nor the sounding of sweet music, nor those things which delight the carnal senses of man: it was not these which subdued the world to Christ; but it was before the simplicity of God's Truth that the proud Dagon of heathen superstition bowed, and sunk, and fell down! And in the course of years, the still small voice of this blessed Gospel won its way from heart to heart, like the trickling brook through the pebbles of the valley, until it fell into the wide ocean of God's mercy, and the civilized heathen world became Christian.

3. This leads me to consider THE RESULT WHICH FOLLOWED FROM THE APPLICATION OF THIS BLESSED REMEDY TO THE HEATHEN WORLD.

In no part of the original commission of our Lord to His Disciples, nor in any of the writings of His Apostles subsequently, can I find any intimation that all the world would believe, and be saved. From the very wording of the first divine commission, a different conclusion might be expected:—Go ye into all the world, said our Lord, and preach the Gospel to every creature. But will every creature receive it?—He adds: He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved: but he that believeth not, shall be damned. And this is the nature of the Gospel dispensation to the end of time: for he adds, Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Thus it hath been from the beginning until now; and, for any thing we can see to the contrary, so it will be. Exactly in accordance with this view is the language of the Apostle in my text: It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save — WHOM? ALL THE WORLD? EVERY CREATURE? NO—THEM only THAT BELIEVE. An attentive perusal of the beautiful Gospel history, as detailed in the Acts of the Apostles, will lead inevitably to the conclusion that the first promulgation of Christianity proceeded far more slowly than is generally supposed. The descriptions we meet with in the writings of some persons, would lead us to imagine that an Apostle had but to appear in a heathen city, and all the gods bowed down before him, and every man immediately acknowledged that Jesus was the Messiah. But, so far from this, the history records, that in some cities he was derided, and persecuted; in others, he was beaten with stripes: he scatters his seed in different places, here a little, and there a little: here certain men cleave unto him—there some of them believe; Lydia a seller of purple, or a Roman jailor; two or three, or a household:—and at best, what is it? It came to pass, that some believed, and some believed not; or, it is related, that As many as were ordained to eternal life, believed. Such is the description of the first promulgation of Christianity afforded us in the Acts of the Apostles. The Truth was not embraced immediately by every one who heard it; but many years were occupied in its publication; and nearly three centuries elapsed before the civilized world became Christian. And we have reason to be cautious, lest we come to hasty conclusions respecting the results of the modern attempt to diffuse Christianity, through a mistaken estimate of the original and Apostolic Mission.

But there is one characteristic of these results which demands our attention. In all cases, the Gospel saved them that believed:—upon this important truth the mind should dwell. Look at the converts; whether they were of Jewry, or of Corinth, or of Athens, or the barbarous people at Melita; wherever it might be, the effect which followed the preaching of the Gospel was the same:—*As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. In the second chapter of the Epistle to the Ephesians, and indeed throughout the whole of the New Testament, we meet with beautiful descriptions of the moral change which took place in the converts: they passed from death unto life—from darkness to light—from the power of Satan unto God. Such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. † Men as fierce as lions, became as gentle as lambs; ferocious men became kind; licentious men pure; impious men devout. These—these were the effects, which uniformly followed in them that believed! This was the result, which the Apostle described: After that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe—to save them with an everlasting and complete salvation—to deliver them from the curse and burden, from the practice and dominion of sin—to set their hearts at liberty; so that, like the lame man in the Temple, they walked, and leaped, and praised God.

But this subject would be incomplete, if we did not notice the important declaration of the Apostle, that all these things were by the wisdom of God. This expression must be referred to the whole passage—to the wisdom and to the foolishness, to the ignorance and the illumination. It was in the deep wisdom of God, that He permitted the heathen world to grope at noon-day as in thick darkness: it was in His profound wisdom that the light of Truth was confined for 2000 years to the little land of Canaan, and to the narrow tribes of Israel: and thus man was left to struggle with the impotency of his own knowledge, wisdom, and philosophy; that it might be made clear, in earth and heaven, and in hell, that man never yet of himself found out God—that man, when he once has lost the knowledge of the True God, never in any instance finds it, except by a new revelation from heaven. All this was by the permission of God—The times of this ignorance, God winked at: but the foolishness of preaching was the direct ordinance of God: and both alike proclaim His wisdom: for this foolishness of preaching, this doctrine of grace, this salvation of thousands, was drawn out of the profound wisdom, as well as out of the tender love and good pleasure of our God.

* John i. 12, 13. † 1 Corinth. vi. 11.

Thus have we contemplated the words of the text as an epitome of the early promulgation of Christianity; exhibiting alike the state of the then world, the remedy provided for them, and the results which followed.

II. Now, let us turn to modern times; and let us endeavour to INSTITUTE A COMPARISON BETWEEN THE WORK IN WHICH WE ARE NOW OCCUPIED, AND THAT OF THE APOSTLES OF OLD. And we shall conduct our inquiry with reference to the same three particulars.

1. Upon the First point, I need say little, especially to a congregation like the present. I doubt not, I am addressing those who are well acquainted with the work in which they are engaged—I am speaking to many who have been before me in this blessed toil. There is here to-night many a humble Collector of the poor man's pence, who is in the habit of perusing every month the authorised publications of this Institution, whence he has learned the sad tale of the misery, and guilt, and woe, of the heathen world. You have discovered, Christian Brethren, that idolatry is everywhere and always the same. Whether you read it as pourtrayed in the Book of God, 3000 years ago; or as again depicted at the period of the opening of the New Covenant; or as described by travellers of all descriptions, in the present day; you find the same dark impress of Satan upon it; you discern the same fearful image and superscription. Idolatry is everywhere mendacious, cruel, and licentious; the dark places of the earth are still full of the habitations of cruelty. I need not, therefore, strive to harrow up your minds by dwelling upon the horrors of Heathenism. Regard it only, for one moment, in that affecting negative point of view which is presented in the text. The testimony borne respecting them is this—that they know not God—and, that they are lost. Oh, remember, this is the testimony of the God whom they know not! They are immortal, without the knowledge of immortality! they are sinners, without a Saviour! They are, like ourselves, born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward—children of sadness and sorrow, and weakness and woe, born to weep and to die;—but THEY have no Comforter; they have none to point them to the consolations that are in Christ Jesus. They are our brethren in adversity, our brethren in affliction, our brethren in weakness and all human infirmities; but they are NOT brethren in Christ. Oh! think ye of this, and pity the poor Heathen! You find it sometimes difficult to bear the trials of life, amidst all the consolations of Christ with which you are favoured;—but what would you do without them? Your temptations, your trials, afflictions, and sorrows, are ofttimes like a cup filled to the brim: but you have kind Christian friends, and faithful Pastors, and the House of God, and the sacraments of His love;—and what would you be without them? We plead, then, with you, who abound in these mercies, in behalf of them that have none. The Heathen are perishing, without God, without Christ, and without hope in the world*. Oh! tell them of your Saviour, that they may live!

This is one striking and affecting characteristic in all ancient and modern Heathenism—that there is no conception of a Benevolent Deity; or, if there be a vague, traditionary legend of Him, it is such as they have in China; taught, doubtless, by Confucius, and originally derived in remote ages from Revelation. They have in China some idea of a Benevolent Deity; and they paint him in the old Chinese costume, as the father of a numerous and happy family, on whom he looks down beneficently:—and they have too, in that land of idols, some idea of a Cruel God, and they paint him in the costume of the Tartar dynasty, with all the emblems of terror and ferocity. But, strange to say! they never worship the Benevolent God: they offer Him no sacrifice, they do Him no homage: all their prayers and services are presented to the God of Cruelty and Oppression. And so it is in every part of the world: they pray to gods of whom they are afraid, and deprecate their wrath; but they have no idea of a God who loves them. They have gods many, and lords many—gods of lust, gods of crime, gods of ambition, gods of theft—deifying every vice of humanity;—but no God of Love! How strange it is, that the poor Singhalese will dedicate a part of his corn-field to the devil, that the rest may not be blighted! and yet he cannot see reflected, in the wide-spread harvest, the God of love and benevolence. Idolatry is everywhere and always the same.

2. But let us next inquire, WHETHER WE ARE USING THE SAME MEANS FOR THE EVANGELIZATION OF THE WORLD AS THE APOSTLES USED.—And here I naturally confine my investigation to that particular Institution for which I plead, whose members I am more especially addressing. Deeply, indeed, is it to be regretted, that any defence of such an Institution should be necessary—an Institution, whose sound principles and admirable conduct ought to commend themselves to every pious Churchman's heart—a Society which ought to be hailed by every Episcopalian, as the harbinger of mercy to mankind! But we are fallen upon evil times, my Brethren; and happy will it be for us, if we are driven back to first principles, as laid down in Holy Scripture; and if we are led to look more deeply into those foundation-stones, on which—blessed be God! —the real CHURCH OF ENGLAND is built and reared up!

I AFFIRM, THEN, THAT THE GREAT MISSIONARY INSTITUTION, FOR WHICH I PLEAD, IS ALIKE APOSTOLIC IN ITS PREACHING AND APOSTOLIC IN ITS DISCIPLINE.

With regard to the former point—that Apostolic Preaching which I have feebly endeavoured to describe—it is the glory and the boast of this Society, that from the first day when the little handful of godly men assembled in this city to unite their prayers and efforts in behalf of the poor Heathen, one-and-forty years ago, down to this very hour, every Missionary, every Ordained Pastor, every Catechist and Teacher of this Institution, has been instructed—and has, we believe, determined, with the Apostle —to know nothing among the Gentiles, but Jesus Christ, and Him crucified. It is the profession and the glory of this Institution, that it is an EVANGELICAL INSTITUTION—A GOSPEL-PREACHING INSTITUTION; that the proclamation of a faithful Gospel, even the foolishness of preaching the unadorned and simple Truth, has ever been one of its distinguishing characteristics. For this I have loved our Society, from my earliest youth. But, could I believe that she had left her first love, and forsaken her old principles, then I could cease to love her,—and I could leave her too! Could I believe, that, following baneful advice, this Institution adapted its preaching to degenerate times—could I believe, that its Committees, its Officers, its Catechists, and its Ministers, in any part of the world, had descended from the high vantage ground which they occupy, had deserted the Gospel principles about which they had rallied—could I believe, that THEY for a moment had corrupted the Gospel, had mingled water with the wine and milk, had diluted it, had preached it with reserve, had hidden it under a mask, and disguised it either with the world's wisdom or with the folly of the schoolmen—then I would not only desert her, but would inscribe upon her, Ichabod! thy glory is departed! But it is not so, Beloved; it is not so. Blessed be God! we all perceive, and know, and read the spirit of deep-toned piety, the purity of Apostolic doctrine, the faithfulness of Scriptural instruction, which glow in all the reports of our Missionaries, and in all the records of the work which God has enabled them to accomplish. We therefore thank God, and take courage; and we do affirm, without fear of contradiction, that this Institution is still APOSTOLIC IN ITS PREACHING.

BUT WITH EQUAL CONFIDENCE, WE WILL PROCEED TO AFFIRM, THAT IT IS APOSTOLIC IN ITS DISCIPLINE.—As far as I can read and understand the history of the first promulgation of Christianity, I find that the Apostles were sent by the Holy Ghost, and that others were sent by them: there appears no trace in Scripture of any Self-appointed Teacher;—no man preached, except he was sent;—no person took upon himself the office of the sacred Ministry, except he received a commission from the hands of the Apostles, or from those who received it from them. These are the facts recorded in Scripture;—and here we leave them. On an occasion like this, and to an assembly constituted as the present, it would be superfluous, and almost impertinent, to attempt to prove "that the pure and reformed part of Christ's universal Church established in these realms" is a true Apostolic Church—Apostolic in her Ordinances, in her Discipline, and in her Episcopacy. I may assume this:—we all believe it. But it remains for me to prove, that this Institution is a faithful scion of the original stock; and to show, that the work which is carried on by this Institution is not only spiritual and Scriptural,—not only that there is a faithful declaration of Christ's Gospel,—but that it is delivered according to the doctrine and discipline of the Church of England.

[And here let me observe, THAT THIS SOCIETY DOES NOT ASSUME TO REPRESENT THE CHURCH;—NOR CAN ANY SOCIETY assume this, without presumption. We are, alas! in such a situation in the Church of England, that we cannot move as a Church: we have no Synod; we have no Convocation; we have no General Assembly. And it was this very destitution that gave birth to the Venerable Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, and that for Propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts: these are voluntary, independent Institutions; conducted by members of the Church of England—by the Bishops, Priests, Deacons, and Laymen,—but only in their individual capacity. For if every member of the Church of England, Clerical and Lay should join these Societies, they would still be but voluntary Charitable Associations, and would fail to represent the Church of England:—in fact, a CHURCH SOCIETY is a contradiction in terms;—a voluntary Association of Church members cannot be "the Church." The utmost, therefore, that we can hope to do, under these circumstances, is, to be careful that our voluntary Institutions for any spiritual object should be conducted by Christian men, members of our Church, and, as far as possible, in strict accordance with her doctrines and her discipline. This character we claim for the Church Missionary Society, in common with the elder existing Institutions.

How shall I establish this claim? Brethren, the time would fail me to adduce the abundant evidence. Whether I look abroad or at home, I see the marks of APOSTOLICITY in every act of this Institution. I see it in close affinity with our beloved Church;—I see it strict in its discipline, pure in its Liturgical Services, humbly bowing and cheerfully submitting to Episcopal authority, wherever it is to be found. I find this Institution, moreover, translating our beautiful Liturgy, into languages unknown before, nor ever previously reduced to writing;—teaching at once the Negro and the wild Indian, the poor Hindoo and the savage New Zealander, to draw near to the Throne of Grace, in the very words, in the same pure and simple and Scriptural forms, in which we here at home are permitted to approach our Heavenly Father. Our Missionaries, too, are everywhere proved to be the docile, humble children of their spiritual fathers, wherever the Episcopate is established. But it may be replied, that all this, and much more of a similar kind, may be true, and yet the important link may be wanting to connect your Missionaries with the Apostolic Church. Well aware of this, we scruple not to confess our faith, that THE CHURCH ALONE CAN SEND OUT MISSIONARIES;—and we repel the accusation, that this Institution sends them forth! Our Ordained Missionaries are not commissioned by a Committee, or by Managers, whether Lay or Clerical;—THEY ARE SENT FORTH BY THE BISHOPS OF THE ANGLICAN CHURCH. Our Missionaries are ordained by the justly-respected Lord Bishop of this Diocese, upon A MISSIONARY TITLE FOR ORDERS; or they receive Holy Orders at the hands of Colonial Bishops:—and thus the exact position in which we are placed is fully recognised. The Society is but as the Patron of perpetual Advowsons in distant lands, nominating the Incumbents; as the Parent of a Youth, presenting him to the Bishop; as the College, in which he is educated, claiming Holy Orders: and while the Society, standing in the position of the Patron, the Parent, or the University, determines, AS THEY ALL DO, the special location of the Minister, it is the mission of the Bishop by which he is sent forth; and under the licence of the Bishop he is placed, wherever he is found in his work. How idle it is, to tell us that our Missionaries are not Episcopally sent forth; or that our Society is wanting in a true Church character!

To such captious cavillers we are ready to reply:—Are they Episcopalians? so are we. Are they Apostolicals? so are we. Are they lovers of order, and Church authority? so are we;—and so were we—it may be added—before ANCIENT NOVELTIES were revived! Whatever they are, as Churchmen, so are we. Nay, like the Apostle, we may say—We are more. Who ORIGINATED EPISCOPACY in India?—Buchanan, and others, who were the Founders of the Church Missionary Society. Who conveyed the first Bishop to New Zealand?—the Church Missionary Society! And if, in that interesting colony, there soon be placed a Bishop, it will be through the request, and at the expense of the same Institution! By these, and many other substantial evidences, we have proved our attachment to that pure original form of Church government which we hold most dear; which we cherish in our warmest affections; and for which we will contend, as strongly and as ardently as any of our accusers. That such has been the uniform practice of the Society, will become apparent to all who will lay aside prejudice and ecclesiastical sectarianism, and calmly and honestly examine the facts. It is often forgotten, that when this Society was first instituted, there was hardly a Bishop in any one part of the world where it commenced its labours: it was therefore impossible, in those foreign and barbarous lands, to observe Church Order. But as soon as the Episcopacy was introduced, the Society was always ready and forward to accommodate its arrangements to that holy discipline. And therefore it is futile, and childish, and vain, to attempt to impute schismatical principles to such a Society as this:—it is more; it is UNCHRISTIAN, HYPOCRITICAL, and FALSE! And if I be not mistaken in the shadows of coming events, we shall ere long see who are Churchmen, and who are not;—who are narrow sectaries, and who are not. We have every reason to believe, that, ere long, the Fathers, the revered Fathers of our Church AT HOME, will take us to their protection, and cherish us with their favour; as all the COLONIAL BISHOPS, without exception, have already done, WHEREVER WE HAVE A MISSIONARY! It is delightful to look forward to this opening prospect;—and I am sure that there is no pious Churchman among you who will not rejoice in such an event; not one, who will not rejoice to lay aside differences, strifes, and dissensions, and to proceed in the calm, dignified, and faithful course of the Church of England, in carrying out those blessed results, which are opening before us in the heathen world.

I might enlarge upon this point, so interesting at this crisis; but time forbids. I will only further remind you, that among the earliest Bishops of the Indian Church are numbered some of the oldest and best friends of this Society to name only two,—the sainted Corrie, now in glory; and our faithful Father and Brother, Bishop Wilson, now at the head of the vast Diocese of Calcutta. Under these credentials at home and abroad, we may now pursue the calm and even tenour of our way, undisturbed by the cavils and unmoved by the scoffs of the careless world; and nothing daunted by the accusations of those who call themselves "the Church": believing and knowing what I now lastly proceed to show—THAT THE BLESSING OF GOD RESTS UPON OUR LABOURS,

3. This is the last point of COMPARISON to be instituted.—We have seen that the world is in the same lost condition as it was heretofore; and that we are using precisely the same Apostolic weapons, in attempting its conquest for Christ. And now I have, lastly to inquire, Whether the results are also identical? Whether, in the words of my text—it has pleased God to save them that believe?

Here I would not shrink from instituting the test of COMPARATIVE NUMBERS. I have long contended—and the more deeply I investigate the subject, the more extensive my acquaintance with the operations of modern Missionaries, and the more narrowly I examine the ancient Scriptural History, the more deliberately I come to the conclusion—that the success in these last days is even more wonderful than that which followed the Apostles themselves! Considering our peculiar disadvantages—that we have no miracles, nor gifts of tongues—no united Church—few godly Christians to represent us in distant climes—laden with the curse of Babel, the diversity of language—encountering difficulties unknown by the Apostles, and destitute of their extraordinary gifts—considering all these things, the present progress of Christianity appears even more wonderful, and more clearly marks the footsteps of the Most High, than did the first promulgation of it in the world! The more fully and patiently this subject is investigated, the more probable is it that any person must come to that conclusion.

But this is not the particular point to which our attention is now drawn; because the character of the success described in my text has no respect to numbers. The declaration of the Apostle with regard to the first promulgation of the Gospel, is simply this: It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. We have seen how they believed, and the nature and extent of the salvation which followed;—they destroyed their idols, and abandoned their evil practices; they became virtuous, pure, spiritual, holy; they were initiated into all the conflicts of the Christian life, and were adorned with all the graces of the Holy Spirit. Now, if we turn to our modern Missions, and inspect the various Stations in different parts of the world, is there any thing of this kind discernible? Is there any similar work in progress? Do the Heathen destroy their idols? Are their impure books burned? Are individuals, tribes, or nations, turned from dumb idols, to serve the living and true God? Is there the same development of Christian graces in the hearts of these diverse people? In North-West America, in the plains of India, in New Zealand, among the poor Negroes, are there any of those traces of spiritual uniformity which bear the impress of divine energy?—in a word, are the results identical? We confidently answer — THEY ARE! And perhaps it is difficult to conceive of evidence more satisfactory, or of reasoning more conclusive, on any subject, than this. The argument may be illustrated by natural philosophy. The man of practical science puts nature into his crucible; he measures the atmospheric gases; he explores the strata of the earth; he tests the chemical properties of different substances; and he finds nature's response everywhere and always the same. And what is the inference which he draws from his experiments? He concludes, that the laws by which the physical world is governed are uniform and identical. By the same process of reasoning, in spiritual subjects, we shall arrive at a similar conclusion. Uniformity of experience will establish uniformity of operation;—identity in the effects will establish identity of cause. If, in the Sacred Histories of the Old and New Testaments, in the records of our Missionary labours, and in the perceptible operations of our own minds, we find a strict uniformity and identity, we argue, that the same power must, in all these cases, have been exercised.—And these are precisely the facts. The silent tear trickles down the black cheek of the Negro, and that emblem and evidence of penitent sorrow also steals down the fair cheek of the European: sweet hope beats high in the once-dark and cheerless bosom of the African and Asiatic: the same trials, temptations, and corruptions, are encountered by all: the conflict is identical—the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh: the same victories are achieved—the savage cannibal, the reclaimed profligate, and penitent sinners of every grade, are meek, and, clothed and in their right mind, together sit at the feet of Jesus! More accurate resemblance cannot be conceived, whether we regard the nature and moral qualities of man, as developed in his natural, unconverted state, or the uniform effects produced by the preaching of the Gospel; and the conclusion is inevitable, that it is the same power of God which is in all these cases exercised—the same mighty energy, the same secret influence of the Holy Spirit. When our poor fainting and feeble Missionaries, in distant lands, preach Jesus and the Resurrection, and tell of God's melting pity in sending His Son to save the guilty and the lost; when we hear of hearts relenting, and turning away from sin, and believing in Jesus; then are we sure that the Gospel has been preached, with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven: we could not be more confident respecting the Apostles themselves. Because, we are certain that nothing but divine grace can accomplish this: we are sure, that to turn men from darkness to light, to raise them from the death of sin to a life of righteousness, is the work of God alone. When, therefore, we see these children of the desert so changed and sanctified, how can we for a moment doubt? How can we avoid the conclusion? how can we hesitate respecting it?—THIS THING IS OF GOD! Brethren, the world is—AS IT EVER WAS—a lost and perishing world: the remedy which God hath provided is still the same—a faithful Gospel, simply preached: the result is everywhere identical—sinners are redeemed, and saved, and justified; and some of us shall at length be permitted to share their crown of glory, and to meet them around the Redeemer's triumphant throne!

And now, beloved Brethren, what shall I say more, in conclusion? Oh that I knew whence to gather arguments convincing, and motives persuasive, to arouse you to do that which you ought to do, even without persuasion! Oh that I knew how to move you to pity; and how to cause the full and glorious tide of Christian benevolence to flow down on this occasion; so that you might cast into the Treasury of the Lord the willing homage of your hearts—hearts, convinced of the preciousness of Christ, and of His unsearchable riches!

Shall I lead you beside some fair and verdant spot in the moral wilderness, now the garden of the Lord, fenced in and enclosed—the humble Missionary Station, with its Scriptural Schools, and its happy children gathered together; its modest Church and Sabbath-bell, assembling the Converted Heathen for Divine Worship, who were but as yesterday the children of wildness and of sin, and now are consistent members of the holy family of Christ?—We ask your love and sympathy for our infant Christian Churches. The converts are young, and feeble; and they desire and deserve your prayers, as much, or perhaps more than when they were uncultivated Heathens. They are as little children. God is calling them out of Egypt: He is drawing them *with cords of a man, with bands of love. Their Pastors, our pious Missionaries, are training these children for God; and they seek your intercessions on their behalf. Oh, pray that the Lord may view each of these favoured spots as a vineyard of red wine, and keep it, and *water it every moment.—Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon our garden, that the spices thereof may flow out!†

It is not necessary for me to adduce information corroborative of these general statements; the "Report" which follows is more than sufficient to establish their truth. But, as the botanist culls his rare specimens of beautiful fruits and flowers from distant lands, arranges them in their different classes, and displays their various and distinctive beauties; so, if it were needful, could we gather from all countries of the world examples of the fairest graces of the Holy Spirit—the loveliest, rich, ripe fruits of Christianity, the most blessed effects of civilization—a high state of cultivation of the mind and of the heart—specimens of every grace and virtue which can be named;—and all these exhibited in men who, but a few years since, were in the darkness and bondage of abominable idolatries. These are some of the evidences which God has given of His co-operation in this great work: here we record, not what WE have done, nor what our Missionaries have done, nor what our Society has done, but what God has been pleased to do among the Heathen, by their means. To Him we will ever give all the glory, and ascribe all the praise, by Christ Jesus!

But, if the success which has crowned our efforts and toils will not animate you—if the smiles of the garden of the Lord will not attract you, nor prove sufficient to enlist you in our cause, both hand and heart—oh, then think, I pray you, of the groans of the miserable, of the sighs of those that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death! Think of our fainting Missionaries! Let the last sigh of Martyn, and the last prayer of Wybrow, wafted across the deep dark waters, sink into your hearts! Let the tears of the weary survivors plead with you for increased exertion and prayer, that more Labourers may be sent forth into this harvest! Oh that the spirit and the mantle of those faithful soldiers in the Missionary army, who have fallen in its battle-field, may descend and rest upon others, who may be willing to be baptized for the dead—filled with holy zeal, and ready to encounter deaths oft—the love of Christ constraining them!

Well assured are we, that this is the only principle which can be relied on—THE LOVE OF CHRIST ITSELF. Let me then inquire, Is Christ precious to you?—Do you know Him?—Do you love Him?—Do you cleave to Him?—Is He your meat and drink—Do you daily feed on Him?—Is He your hope, your comfort in trouble, your friend, when all are contrary to you? If this be your blessed portion, and Christ be indeed precious to you, then show how much you love Him, by cheerfully parting with your money for His sake. It cost Him much to redeem your souls;—oh, do not "serve your God with that which costs you nothing!" To you we must anxiously turn, as the only real friends of our Institution. To you we are constrained to express a fear, that some are forsaking us—that some have turned away from us, or look coldly upon us—some have departed on one side, some on the other—some to the cloister, and some to the tabernacle!—Will ye also go away? Our old friends, and the old friends of Gospel Truth, must rally around us; fresh animation must be infused into their efforts; indolence and sloth and indifference must be shaken off. Sacrifices must be made. What, Brethren! does the annual sum of one guinea adequately express your love to Christ, and your sense of the perishing condition of the Heathen? Does the casual sovereign, heedlessly cast into an occasional collection, sufficiently express your sense of God's love to you in His Dear Son? Oh! "by His agony and bloody sweat, by His cross and passion, by His precious death and burial," I beseech you, pity the benighted Heathen!—think of them; pray for them! Interweave their cause with your social prayers and your family devotions;—forget them not in the lonely chamber, when God is near to you;—then, think on the perishing, and remember the lost! Consider what Christ has done for you; and then ask, What have I done for Him? Unless you, our choicest and dearest friends in the different parts of the kingdom, redouble your efforts —unless you begin to make greater sacrifices—unless you are ready to deny yourselves for Christ's sake, and to pour in, not of your SUPERFLUITY, but of your NECESSITY, to this glorious cause—it must, humanly speaking, languish and fail. What! shall it be said, that such an Institution as this resembles a spendthrift who annually exceeds his income? When that increasing expenditure clearly arises from extended operations and usefulness among the Heathen, can it be that the wealthy members of the Church of England will not meet the emergency? God deliver us from that condemnation! — An extensive acquaintance with the middle, and even the lower orders of society, convinces me that they are exerting themselves much more, in proportion, than their richer neighbours. Many a beautiful instance of unobtrusive self-denial in humble life has come to my knowledge, which I have felt it my duty to conceal, lest its publication should injure him who has performed it: but it is recorded in heaven — it is registered by Him, who said of a poor woman in the Gospel, She hath done what she could. Happy would it be for us all, could the same testimony be borne of us!

Finally, remember, Christian Brethren, WHO hath said, Ye are the light of the world.—This great Institution is like the city set upon a hill. Long may it diffuse its light upon the tributary mountains, and amidst the dark glens of Heathenism! But each individual contributor — and more especially the humble laborious Collector of the poor man's pence—is also the light of the world;—he is as the candle in the cottage, placed in the candlestick, and giving light to all that are in the house—equally kindled by Him who said, Let there be light, and there was light. The same Hand which set the sun in the firmament, placed the glow-worm in the summer's bank;—each shines by divine command, and each proclaims the wisdom and the glory of the Creator.

If this, then, be the high character, and this the glorious designation of each individual believer, with what weight of responsibility should his Master's injunction sink into his heart—Let your light so shine before men—in all the private, domestic, social duties of life—in all the tenderness, meekness, and grace of Christianity—and in all the glowing zeal and fervent love which desire and wait for the salvation of the lost and of the guilty—thus, Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

REPORT,

INTRODUCTION.

YOUR Committee, in presenting the Report of their Proceedings of the past year, would earnestly pray that the Great Head of the Church may now be in the midst of His people, and that He would bless with the grace of the Holy Ghost this the solemn assembly of the members and friends of the Church Missionary Society. In primitive days, it was held to be an office not unworthy of an Apostle, to gather the Church together at Antioch, and to rehearse all that God had done, and how He had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles: and the Apostles and Elders, and the whole multitude of the Church at Jerusalem, gave audience while Paul and Barnabas declared all things that God had done with them. And your Committee trust, that the Report which they now—humbly imitating this example—are enabled, through the undeserved blessing of Almighty God, to lay before this assembly, will cause great joy among the brethren, when they hear what things the Lord is doing in our day, in the conversion of the Heathen. Your Committee, nevertheless, do not wish to conceal from you, that this holy work is carried on in the midst of difficulties, and obstructions, and dangers. Yet, year after year, the difficulties are surmounted, the obstructions removed, and the dangers dispelled, in such a manner as to excite the wonder and the praise of those who are best acquainted with the details of the operations of the Society. And thus, even difficulties, and obstructions, and dangers, become the means of furnishing fresh assurance, that He, unto whom all power is given in heaven and in earth, is with the Society of a truth.

PATRONAGE.

One of the Vice-Patrons of the Society, the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chichester, has during the past year been removed by death. From this venerable Prelate the Society had uniformly experienced cordial countenance and support. His Lordship's successor in the See of Chichester has kindly accepted the office of Vice-Patron. The same office has been accepted by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Worcester.

The Committee having taken into consideration Law II. of the Society, and it appearing that all the Spiritual Peers who are now members of the Society have been invited to accept the office of Vice-Patron, and that several Colonial Bishops have been appointed Vice-Patrons not being Peers, and who are not eligible to that office according to the strict letter of the existing law, an alteration of that law, so far as regards the office of Vice-Patron, was recommended to the Society at its late General Meeting, and adopted, as follows:—

The Vice-Patrons shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland who, being members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such Temporal Peers as, being members, shall be appointed thereto.

RETIREMENT OF THE REV. W. JOWETT.

The state of the Rev. W. Jowett's health having compelled him to retire from the Secretaryship of the Society, the Committee recorded the sense which they entertained of the value of his services to the Institution in the following Resolution:—

That the Committee, deeply sympathizing with the Rev. W. Jowett on the failure of his strength, which they believe to be mainly attributable to his exhausting labours in the Mediterranean Mission, receive with heartfelt and unfeigned regret his resignation of the office of Secretary of the Church Missionary Society;—that, while the Committee would ascribe all the praise to the grace of God our Saviour, they desire to record their grateful sense of Mr. Jowett's long-tried, self-denying, and holy services; which abroad, under the Divine Blessing resting upon his "Researches in the Mediterranean," laid the foundation of the Egyptian, Greek, and Abyssinian Missions; and, at home, have left a succession of Instructions, and a series of many hundred Letters, addressed to the various Missionaries of the Society, as lasting memorials of his Missionary experience, his spiritual wisdom, and his Christian love;—and that the Committee further assure him, that they entertain toward him the liveliest sentiments of respect and affection, and will follow him, in his retirement to less onerous duties, with their earnest prayers that God, in His infinite mercy, may still continue to bless and make him a blessing to others.

Final arrangements have not yet been made for the appointment of a successor to Mr Jowett.

DECEASE OF MISSIONARIES.

The Committee have to deplore the death, in the course of the past year, of not a few of those who were employed, in connexion with the Society, in bearing the name of Christ before the Gentiles. Mr. William Isaac Murphy, on the 11th of May 1840; Mrs. Schön, wife of the Rev. James F. Schön, on the 20th of May; and Mrs. Schlenker, wife of the Rev. C. F. Schlenker, on the 23d of the same month; who all died of fever, at Freetown, after a few days' illness;—Mrs. Innes, wife of the Rev. James Innes, who died at Agurparah, on the 15th of July, after some months' illness;—Mrs. Bultmann, wife of the Rev. F. Bultmann, who died of fever, at Fourah Bay, on the 23d of July, after suffering some days;—the Rev. Thomas Norton, who died at Allepie, of dysentery, on the 12th of August;—the Rev. Joseph Knight, who died at Colpetty, on the 11th of October, after a protracted and painful illness;—the Rev. Samuel Ridsdale, who died at Newington, Middlesex, on the 18th of October, after a short illness, having returned to England on account of health;—the Rev. Frederick Wybrow, who died at Gorruckpore, on the 19th of December, after an illness of a few days;—Mrs. Newman, wife of Mr. Edward Newman, who died at South End, Wisbeach, on the 6th of February last, a week after her confinement.

Since the printing of the last Report, intelligence has been received of the decease of Mrs. Youd, wife of the Rev. T. Youd; who died at the Urwa Rapids, on the 31st of December 1839, of fever.

RETURN HOME OF MISSIONARIES.

The Rev. John U. Graf left Sierra Leone on the 22d of March 1840, on account of ill health; and arrived in London on the 30th of May. The Rev. George A. Kissling, and Mrs. Kissling, left the same place on the 9th of July, in consequence of health; landed at Dover on the 25th of September, and arrived in London on the following day.

The Rev. John A. Jetter and the Rev. Peter Fjellstedt left Smyrna on the 20th of July, agreeably to the instructions of the Committee; Mr. Fjellstedt's health having failed, and there being no further openings in that quarter for Missionary operations for the present. Mr. Fjellstedt arrived at Stuttgardt in August, and Mr. Jetter at Southampton on the 2d of September.

Mr. E. B. Squire, and Mrs. Squire, left Macao on the 31st of January 1840, in consequence of Mrs. Squire's ill health; landed at Dartmouth on the 3d of June, and arrived in London on the 17th.

The Rev. John Tucker left Madras on the 26th of February 1840, on account of failure of health; and landed at Portsmouth on the 4th of June. The Rev. William T. Humphrey left Cochin on the 4th of April 1840, on a visit home; and landed at Falmouth on the 25th of July.

The Rev. William Adley left Galle on the 19th of February 1840, on account of health; and arrived in London on the 28th of June.

The Rev. William K. Betts, and Mrs. Betts, left Jamaica on the 18th of April 1840, on a visit home; and landed at Liverpool on the 16th of June. Mr. James Gillies, with Mrs. Gillies, left Jamaica on the 21st of July, in consequence of ill health; and arrived in London on the 7th of September. Mr. Edward Newman, and Mrs. Newman, left the same place on the 1st of October, on account of health; and arrived in London on the 12th of November. The Rev. W. J. Woodcock, and Mrs. Woodcock, on a visit home, and Mr. James Pollitt, and Mrs. Pollitt, on account of health, left Jamaica on the 16th of November; and landed at Dover on the 26th of January last.

The Rev. M. Wilkinson, and Mrs. Wilkinson, left Calcutta on the 23d of November, on account of failure of health; and landed at Margate on the 3d of April last.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS OF MISSIONARIES.

West-Africa Mission.—The Rev. John Warburton and Mrs. Warburton, Mr. Henry Townsend and Mrs. Townsend, and Mr. John Ilott and Mrs. Ilott, sailed from the Downs on the 3d of November; but, in consequence of tempestuous weather, were compelled to return thither; from whence they finally sailed on the 18th for Sierra Leone, and arrived there on the 15th of December. The Rev. Niels Christian Haastrup, and the Rev. David Henry Schmid and Mrs. Schmid, sailed from the Downs on the 16th of December, for the same place; and arrived there on the 12th of January last.

Mediterranean Mission.—The Rev. C. F. Schlienz, and Mrs. Schlienz, arrived at Malta on the 10th of May 1840. Mr. John Mühleisen, and Mr. John Christian Müller, embarked in the River for the Continent, on their way to Abyssinia, on the 21st of January last.

North-India Mission.—The Rev. J. P. Mengé arrived at Calcutta on the 28th of June 1840. The Rev. John Francis Osborne and Mrs. Osborne, the Rev. James Long, the Rev. James Baumann and Mrs. Baumann, the Rev. John Christian Wendnagel and Mrs. Wendnagel, and Miss Elizabeth Emma Swinborne, sailed from Spithead on the 14th of July, for Calcutta; and arrived there on the 15th of November.

South-India Mission.—The Rev. J. Chapman, the Rev. J. Hawksworth and Mrs. Hawksworth, and Miss Garrett, arrived at Madras on the 15th of June 1840. The Rev. William T. Humphrey, with Mrs. Humphrey, sailed from Spithead on the 27th of December, for Madras, on his return to that Mission. The Rev. Robert Turlington Noble, the Rev. Henry W. Fox, and Mrs. Fox, sailed from Spithead on the 15th of March, for Madras.

Western-India Mission.—The Rev. Charles C. Mengé, with Mrs. Mengé, embarked at Gravesend on the 31st of August, for Bombay, on his return to his station; and arrived there on the 22d of January last.

Ceylon Mission.—The Rev. Joseph Knight, and Mrs. Knight, arrived at Colombo on the 23d of July. The Rev. John Talbot Johnston, and Mrs. Johnston, sailed from Gravesend on the 17th of July, for Ceylon; and arrived there on the 17th of November. The Rev. Charles Greenwood, and Mrs. Greenwood, sailed from Gravesend on the 22d of March last, for the same Mission.

Australasia Mission.—The Rev. R. Burrows, and Mrs. Burrows, arrived in New Zealand on the 18th of March 1840.

North-West-America Mission.—Mr. Abraham Cowley, and Mrs. Cowley, embarked at Liverpool on the 5th of January last, for Boston, to proceed, viâ Canada, to the Red-River Settlement; and arrived at Montreal on the 26th of that month.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

In the course of the past year, thirteen Ordained Missionaries and six Catechists have been sent forth; including three Ordained Missionaries, and one Catechist, who have returned to their stations. Thirteen of these being married, the total number of individuals sent out is thirty-two.

The total number of Labourers engaged in the service of the Society, as Ordained Missionaries, Catechists, or Artisans, is one hundred and eighty-eight; exclusive of about nine hundred and seventy Native Teachers, and the Wives of the Married Labourers.

ASSOCIATIONS.

The Committee have the satisfaction to report a steady increase in the number of Associations. In the last year, seventy-seven new Associations were formed.

An Auxiliary Church Missionary Society for the City of London was also formed on the 29th of June last, under the Presidency of the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Sir Chapman Marshall.

This extension of the Home Proceedings of the Society has rendered the appointment of an additional Agency necessary; and the Rev. Thomas Bartlett, of Kingstone, near Canterbury, has accepted the office of Association Secretary. Still, the Society is greatly dependent on local Clerical aid for the due working of the Associations. The Committee are indeed deeply indebted to many of their friends for the valuable services which they have rendered to the Society, by acting as Deputations to Associations; and gratefully reiterate the expression of their sense of them. Unless, however, this aid be still largely rendered by the Clerical friends of the Society in their several localities, and that on a well-organised plan, it will be impracticable adequately to draw forth the resources of our Church in support of the existing Missions of the Society, and to provide for that extension of their operations which is the fruit of the Divine Blessing on the labours of the Missionaries.

PUBLICATIONS.

It appearing to the Committee that an additional Monthly Publication was necessary, of a more popular kind than the "Church Missionary Record," with a view more extensively to interest the members of our Church in the objects of the Society, the First Number of a new one has just been issued. It is entitled the "Church Missionary Gleaner," and is issuable to Collectors of sixpence or upward per week.

ORDINATION OF STUDENTS.

Sixteen of the Society's Candidates have been admitted to Holy Orders during the past year;—three both to Deacon's and Priest's Orders, six to Priest's Orders, and four to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of London; one to Priest's Orders, by the Bishop of Madras; one to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of Bombay; and one to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of Montreal.

INSTITUTION.

This important part of the Society's arrangements continues to afford the Committee much satisfaction, and to contribute valuable aid to the Missions.

The Principal, in the Annual Report to the Committee of Visitors, thus speaks of the state of the Institution:—

He believes, and is bound to state it with all fidelity and gratitude, that God has continued to bless and prosper the Institution during the past twelve months.

The discipline of the College has been preserved in its wonted integrity; yet no unusual vigilance, nor any positive exercise of authority, has been requisite to maintain it. Whenever the Principal has observed any thing which he judged to require correction, his admonitions have invariably been received, and obeyed, in a becoming and Christian spirit.

He adds—

A valuable criterion is supplied by the employment of the Students as District Visitors and Sunday-School Teachers; in many cases, under the personal superintendence of the Principal; in some cases, under that of others of the Parochial Clergy. By this arrangement, an acquaintance with many of the practical details of the Ministerial office is secured; and, which is still more important, some little experience in human nature, some facility of insight into character, is at the same time acquired.

In conclusion, the Principal thus appeals to the members of the Society for the aid of their frequent prayers in behalf of the Institution :—

The Principal would most earnestly and importunately appeal to all the members and friends of the Church Missionary Society for more frequent and special intercessions in behalf of this highly important branch of its machinery. While he doubts not that thousands of petitions are daily addressed to the Throne of Grace in reference to the grand end contemplated by the Society, he cannot but feel that the prosperity of the Institution comes all but first in the order of means; and would, therefore, yet again entreat of Christians to labour together with him in their prayers to God for him and for his deeply-interesting charge.

Fourteen Students have been received into the Institution during the year, and twenty-seven still remain under preparation in it.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1804.

Mission Establishment:

10 European Missionaries.
1 Coloured Missionary.
7 European Catechists.
1 European Translator.
33 Native Teachers of all Classes.

General View of the Mission.

THE proofs of the growing importance of the Sierra-Leone Mission invest it at this crisis with a character of peculiar interest. In the colony itself, God hath set His seal to the labours of His Servants; and the steady progress of the Mission, amidst many hindrances, and with numbers frequently diminished by sickness and death, proves that the work is the Lord's. Without the limits of the colony, the commencement of a Mission among the Timmanees, and the hopeful connexion established between the Missionary body and the Niger Expedition, present already some glimpses of that grandeur which, it may be hoped, will hereafter attach to Missionary efforts for the evangelization of Africa; and encourage the prayer, that Sierra Leone may yet prove the fountain-head of a river of life, which may hereafter fertilize this vast continent with the spiritual blessings of the Gospel.

Christian Institution.

Mr. Isaac Smith, who has had the charge of the Institution since the departure of the Rev. G. A. Kissling, gave a favourable report of its state in December last. There were at that time seventeen Students. Their progress in their studies was satisfactory. Mr. Smith employs them occasionally in instructing the children in an Infant School. He remarks, that they take some interest in this duty; and as they have now, after some little practice, advanced in the knowledge of those simple things which are suited to the minds of infants, many of them can employ the hour allotted to this purpose in a very interesting manner—questioning the children, and hearing them repeat their tables and hymns. Mr. Smith reports very favourably of the religious state of many among the Students.

This Institution may justly be regarded as the most important of all the Missionary operations which are being carried on at Sierra Leone. Many causes have hitherto prevented its attaining that position, as an educational establishment, which the Committee desire. But measures are now in progress, with a view to make it an efficient Training School for intelligent African Youths. It is designed that it should henceforth be conducted on such a system as may be best calculated to impart a sound education—intellectual, moral, and religious—to the Youths received into it; and thus become, under the Divine Blessing, the means of preparing Africans to be themselves the Teachers of their own countrymen.

Progress of Ministerial Labours.

The Reports and Journals of the Missionaries all bear testimony to the steady progress which true Religion is making. The churches are well attended; the number of Candidates for Baptism and the Lord's Supper is great; the Communicants are increasing, and for the most part live agreeably to their profession.

As an illustration of the progress which has been made at some of the Stations, two facts are selected from the Journal of the Rev. C. F. Schlenker:—

Oct. 18, 1840—After the Second Lesson, I baptized, in Kissey, 17 men and 25 women; and, after the Sermon, administered the Lord's Supper. Nearly 300 were present.

Nov. 1—I went to Wellington, and baptized, after the Second Lesson, 12 men and 30 women.

All these persons had been in the habit of coming to Mr. Schlenker for instruction, for a considerable time previous to their baptism. The party from Wellington used to walk over to Kissey, frequently in a heavy rain. They were also examined singly by Mr. Schlenker, and were admitted by him to baptism just prior to his leaving for the Timmanee Country.

The admission of these eighty-four individuals into the Church of Christ was well suited to be among the last ministerial acts performed by a Missionary, before leaving an old Station to form a new Mission. It was calculated to maintain a grateful remembrance of the past, and to encourage lively hope for the future.

The Committee, out of the numerous affecting instances of the power of Divine Grace recorded by the Missionaries, select the following account of an African woman, named Sarah Coney; given by Mr. Beal:—

May 5, 1840—It was only last week that I committed to the earth one of our poor people; and never could the words in our Liturgy, "In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life," be used with more certainty than in her case. She had been sick for a long while; and, at her desire, was baptized in her own house, by the Rev. J. W. Weeks.

Mr. Beal thus writes of her, in his Journal:—

April 17, 1840—In the afternoon, Mrs. Beal and myself walked to the end of the town, to see a sick woman, who had not long been baptized. Upon arriving at the place, we were shown into a hut not more than eight feet square. Here I found the poor object of my search, most miserably clad, and sick apparently unto death. I said to her, "I am sorry to see you so very sick." She answered, in a feeble tone of voice, but with as much energy as her sinking frame would allow, "Massa, God very good to me!"—"Do you love Jesus? Is He dear to your heart?" Raising her deathly-looking hand, she said, in a way that I never shall forget, "Jesus, Jesus, is all I want!"

April 21—I saw Sarah Coney yesterday and to-day, and found her in a most happy frame of mind;—ignorant as regards the letter of the Word of God, but deeply taught of Him. It is truly astonishing how she bears, with the greatest patience, the severest sufferings; and how thankful she is for every little favour or kindness shown. Though suffering much, her whole mind is wrapped up in her Saviour.

April 23—This morning I was informed that poor Sarah Coney had departed to her eternal rest..... I must confess that I never saw either African or Englishman die as this poor woman died. While alive, she could speak of nothing but the goodness and mercy of God, and the love of Jesus to her soul.

District Visiting.

It was stated in the last Report, that the Missionaries had adopted the plan of employing Native Communicants as District Visitors.

The Rev. C. F. Schlenker furnishes us with extracts from the Journals of one of his Visitors, which show much knowledge both of the Bible and the human heart. Mr. Weeks, in a Letter dated Oct. 1, 1840, thus writes:—

It affords us much satisfaction to be able to increase the number of our Christian Visitors; as many instances have come under our notice of much good resulting from their labours. Their salary is proportioned to their families, and the wages they would earn if engaged in their respective employments. We shall rejoice to see every village supplied with a devoted and pious Christian Visitor.

Desire for Religious Books.

The growing desire for Religious Books may be judged of from the simple fact, that for the last three-quarters of the year, respectively, the Missionaries have applied for 2000 copies of the Cottage Hymn Book. Thus, 6000 copies have been forwarded to Sierra Leone, not for gratuitous distribution, but for sale among the Liberated Negroes.

Mr. W. Young and Mr. J. Beal both furnish proofs of the Sorrow of the People at parting with their Teachers.

Jan. 29, 1840—I left Bathurst with my family this morning. The sight of the people and children, who were waiting to bid us farewell, affected me much. As we passed over the mountains on our way to Waterloo, we were accompanied by about sixty children for three miles: the girls went before, and the boys followed after. As they went, they sang all their favourite Missionary Hymns, which they had learnt in the school: the mountains echoed their voices: the scene was truly affecting. The last hymn which they sung was, "Here we suffer grief and pain." This moved both Mrs. Young and myself to tears. The children stood and looked after us, till the bushes hid us from their sight. [Mr. W. Young.

May 13, 1840—I returned home by moonlight, with a mind deeply affected with the misery and sorrow which I had witnessed; experiencing the truth of these words, He that watereth others shall be watered himself. Scarcely had I reached my home, when Mr. Weeks came in, and informed me that I was again to remove, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the loss of Mr. Murphy at Bathurst. This was, indeed, a heavy stroke for both Mrs. Beal and myself; who had entered this Station so recently, with a determination fully to spend and be spent for this people, whose affections were just being placed upon us, and several of whom appeared to be already awakened to better things. As soon as it was known to the people, many came, weeping, and said, again and again, that we could not go; they would not let our goods go; we belonged to them. "What we go do now?" they asked. "Plenty of them people want to begin for go Class, and now Massa go lef we." At length our feelings became overpowered with their reiterated cries to stop among them, and have pity upon them and their children; so that we could no longer remain in the room, but sought, like Joseph, where to weep. [Mr. J. Beal.

It is pleasing to record, in contrast with the above, the following proofs of the Joy of the People at receiving Teachers.

Jan. 29, 1840—We reached Waterloo this evening. As we drew near to the town, we were met by groups of the children, who welcomed us with shouting; and soon afterward our house was filled with persons of both sexes.

Jan. 31—We have received many presents to-day from the people of the town—such as, rice, yams, eggs, fruit, and fowls—as a token of the respect entertained for us: they presented them with both their hands, in a kneeling posture. [Mr. W. Young.

Instance of Intellectual Improvement.

It has frequently been remarked, that the reception of the Gospel elevates the character. Sierra Leone has presented many instances confirmatory of this truth. The most intelligent and most valuable Natives in the colony are those who have been educated in the Mission Schools: and Mr. Collins records, in his Journal, a proof of refinement in taste which we could hardly have expected to meet with so soon among the Native Africans:—

April 16—An intelligent man called upon me to-day, for the purpose of purchasing from me "Milton's Paradise Lost." This man is a carpenter by trade; and in the course of his employment in the house of some white person, he has met with this book, and now feels desirous of possessing a copy for himself.

Sermon and Meeting for the Church Missionary Society, in Freetown.

By recent intelligence received from the colony, we learn that a Sermon has been preached at the new Mission Church at Freetown, by the Rev. D. F. Morgan, Colonial Chaplain. The Collection amounted to 5*l.* A Meeting has also been held, at which the newly-appointed Governor, Sir J. Jeremie, presided: the amount collected was 10*l.*

Translational Labours.

Mr. Thomson is still occupied in preparing elementary works in the Timmanee Language. On June 23d of last year, he gave the following account of the results of his labours:—

There are, then, now in manuscript, a Timmanee and English Dictionary, consisting of three small volumes: the outlines of Timmanee Grammar: and I trust shortly to add the English and Timmanee Dictionary.

In September, Mr. Thomson describes his further progress:

During the quarter just ended, my mornings have been occupied with instructing Messrs. Schlenker and Denton, and two Schoolmasters, in Timmanee; and I am now engaged with the English and Timmanee Dictionary. I have also prepared some elementary lessons for our Timmanee Schools. They consist of tables of the elementary sounds of the language, and a few simple sentences in words containing not more than four letters.

In the course of a visit which was made to Yongoroo at the request of Neu Sûkoh, the effect of the Timmanee translation of the Scriptures on a Mahomedan is thus described by Mr. N. Denton, in his Journal for the Quarter ending September 25, 1840 :—

On Wednesday the 16th of September, we set off for Yongoroo. Neu Sûkoh received us very kindly; and as soon as we had taken refreshment, we went to see some of the surrounding towns. We saw four; and found that, upon an average, they did not contain 100 persons each. In the evening, a number of people and children gathered round us, when I took an opportunity of reading some of the Timmanee translation of the Book of Genesis, with which they appeared much pleased. Among them were some Mandingoes, and one Mahomedan Teacher, who, on hearing the Scriptures in a language so familiar to him, seemed scarcely able to express his joy. At the end of each verse he shook my hand, laughed heartily, and exclaimed, "Allah! Allah!"

Mr. Schön has been diligently employed in endeavouring to acquire and reduce to writing the Ibo and Haussa Languages, which he judged likely to be most useful among the tribes who live on the banks of the Niger. He writes, Dec. 16—

My Ibo Vocabulary has received a considerable addition. It contains now above 2000 words, and the Haussa above 1700; besides a considerable number of sentences and Parables, and Deep Sayings of the Wise, in both languages.

Mission into the Timmanee Country.

The expedition which was made last autumn into this country ascertained that very favourable openings for preaching the Gospel presented themselves. The Rev. C. F. Schlenker, Messrs. N. Denton, and W. C. Thomson, and two Schoolmasters, have consequently been set apart for this work; and have already entered upon their labours.

The desire which is felt by many for Christian instruction is illustrated by the following statement made by Mr. Smith, under date of Sept. 25, 1840 :—

On Friday last, Neu Sûkoh, the Timmanee Chief at Yongoroo, came here, and was present at the opening of the School; when we sang a hymn and read the Scriptures, at which he appeared quite affected, and said, "True, white man have sense too much." He is exceedingly anxious to have a Missionary at Yongoroo: he points out the spot where the Rev. G. Nyländer once resided; and says he keeps it for us, if we will only come and teach them: he also says that the people will erect a School House, and a house for a Schoolmaster.

The allusion to Mr. Nyländer, one of the very first Missionaries of the Society to Sierra Leone, is one among the many instances which show how the memory of the just gives a holy character to the very spot where they have laboured, and predisposes the minds of the people thankfully to receive the Missionary: and thus the bread cast upon the waters is often found after many days.

Niger Expedition.

The steam-vessels composing this expedition are about to quit the shores of England. It is delightful to see the wondrous powers of steam, combined with the most scientific inventions which medical skill could devise for the preservation of the health of the crews, directed to the benevolent end of civilizing Africa. But it is even far more delightful to behold Sierra Leone furnishing that which neither benevolence, though unbounded, nor skill, though unrivalled, could supply. The Sierra-Leone Mission gives to the expedition not only the long-tried and approved Missionary, well acquainted with the African character, but it also furnishes the Native-African Christian himself.

The Rev. J. F. Schön, one of the Society's most valuable Missionaries, and Samuel Crowther, a Native Catechist, will, if it please God, accompany the expedition up the Niger.

Mr. Schön writes, Dec. 16—

> I have hitherto fondly hoped that one of my Brethren would be associated with me, and share with me the joys and trials of the undertaking; but the last information from England has informed me that I must go alone. But I am not alone: the Lord is with me, and my Brethren will accompany me with their prayers and supplications; the assurance of which affords me no small degree of consolation.

May this assurance not fail to be realized!

It is impossible, not to anticipate, that this expedition will be the commencement of a new era to Africa. How ample a cause for thanksgiving is it, that Sierra-Leone stands foremost in furnishing the means, by which it may become not merely an era of civilization, but also, through the grace of God, of Gospel liberty and light!

Deaths of Labourers.

The Mission has, during the past year, been grievously weakened by the sickness and death of Labourers. Yet has the blessed result seemed to be, that the survivors are only the more encouraged, by the increasing cloud of witnesses, to run with patience the race that is set before them. Mrs. Schön, who had only left this country six months before as a youthful bride, was among those who died. Mr. Denton relates of her, in her last moments—

Then, with great fervency and affection exhorting all around her to mind the one thing needful, and to make sure work for eternity, she summoned her remaining strength, and, with a tongue faltering in the weakness of death, and her spirit just hovering over its tenement of clay, once for all exclaimed, "Go on preaching—go on!"

Her husband adds—

I will go on, Christ strengthening me, to the end of my days; be it in the Interior of Africa, up the Niger, or in whatever part it shall please God to employ me!

Future Prospects for Africa.

Mr. Schön, in his last Report, remarks—

A feature in the character and disposition of the Liberated Africans deserves our attention, as it intimates the course likely to be pursued by them. I have had repeated opportunities of observing the love which they feel to their own countries, and their earnest desire to return to them; and have no doubt that hundreds would be ready in a few days to embark for their native land—that spot so dear to every heart—could they be protected against slavery, and have the advantages of education continued to themselves and their offspring. And may we not trust, that the same Lord who delivered Israel, with a mighty hand and a stretched-out arm, from bondage in Egypt, will finally hear the cry of poor long-oppressed and afflicted Africans, and deliver them from their bondage? And if that be once effected, we shall see that Sierra Leone has been the nursery of Teachers for a considerable part of this benighted continent. I feel persuaded in my own mind, that although Sierra Leone has often been considered as a complete failure, both in a political and religious point of view, futurity will yet show that its earliest founders have not trusted in vain in the Lord, and that their benevolent designs and intentions have been dictated by the unerring Spirit of God. This consideration, that we are labouring for Africa, often revives my drooping spirits: my mind is comforted under privations and bereavements, and disposed to endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.*

SOUTH-AFRICA MISSION.

Mission Establishment:

1 Missionary. 1 Catechist.

Despatches have lately been received from the Rev. F. Owen. He expresses his deep sorrow on account of the relinquishment of the Mission; while, at the same time, he, in a truly meek and submissive Christian spirit, acquiesces in the decision of the Committee. He and his companions are on their way home: and we cannot doubt, that at the Day of Judgment it will be plainly seen that no part of their labour in the Lord was in vain.*

MEDITERRANEAN MISSIONS.

MALTA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1815.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries.
1 European Lay Agent.
1 European Printer.
1 European Translator.
2 Asiatic Translators.

Recent political events have given a great interest to this Mission. It is a central spot, from whence spiritual life may be expected to flow to the widely-spread countries bordering on the Mediterranean.

The Missionaries at Malta, the Rev. C. F. Schlienz and the Rev. S. Gobat, have both suffered severely in their health during the last year; but they are, through the mercy of God, convalescent.

Proposed Appointment of a Bishop for the Mediterranean.

There is reason to hope that Malta will shortly become the See of a Bishop of the Church of England; who will thence be able to exercise spiritual superintendence over all the Ministers and people belonging to our Church in the Mediterranean Countries. The Committee have earnestly promoted this important measure.

Proposed Seminary.

The state of Mr. Gobat's health during the past year, and the war in Syria and Egypt, have prevented the opening of this Institution. If the East should enjoy political quiet, Youths may be obtained for it from Egypt and Syria, and possibly from Abyssinia.

* Some particulars of this Mission are given in the Church Missionary Record for June 1840, pp. 121—123.

Revision of the Arabic Scriptures.

The Rev. C. F. Schlienz has been diligently pursuing his important duties, in revising the Arabic Versions of the Scriptures. The greatest care is taken to obtain the corrections of skilful Arabic Scholars, and the work goes through many revisions. Among others, the Coptic Patriarch at Cairo has undertaken to revise the Translation. The Books of Genesis and Exodus, and the Book of Psalms, have been completed.

Mr. Schlienz, in a Letter dated Malta, March 2, 1841, thus writes:—

The first proof-sheets of the Revised Translation are now in England, and Syria, and Egypt. They were first read by one of the Secretaries of the Emir Beshir, who is still living here; and were highly approved by him. We are sending, both to the East and West, every fortnight, sixteen pages.

The Press at Malta.

The great advantages arising from the Printing Establishment in this island are extensively felt. In the course of the year, the Arabic Version of the Book of Common Prayer has been issued from it. This book, which is a revised translation by the Rev. C. F. Schlienz, is as creditable to the press for the beauty of its typography, as it is to Mr. Schlienz for the accuracy and fidelity of the version, which has received the approbation of several distinguished Arabic Scholars.

The activity of the Malta Press is thus spoken of, by Mr. Gobat, July 28, 1840:—

During the last months, the Arabic Press has been very active. We have now finished the printing of the "Companion to the Bible," "Keith on Prophecy," and "Luther's Life," with some small Tracts. Now we are printing "Barth's Ecclesiastical History," and an Hebrew and Greek Dictionary.

But it is not at Malta merely, or chiefly, that its beneficial results are to be sought for. Year by year the works printed there are obtaining a greater circulation in the Mediterranean Countries. In Greece, during the past year, the Missionaries have distributed or sold nearly 8000 copies of Books and Tracts, by far the greater part of which were printed at Malta.

The Rev. J. F. Wolters, in his Journal for December 1840, thus writes:—

With regard to the distribution of Books, I find many reasons to be thankful to the Lord, who has been pleased to open a wide field before me in this important branch of our Missionary labours. I have issued from our depository 7924 copies of Books and Tracts; among which are 428 copies of the New Testament, and parts of the Old. A considerable number of these Books have been distributed in our Schools; others have been given as prizes after the Examinations; others sold; and others distributed gratuitously. Not a small number have found their way to different parts of Greece, and even into Turkey. It is also to be mentioned, that these Books, with the exception of a small number of copies, are of a direct religious tendency. Thus the good seed of Christian Knowledge has been richly sown; and it is our prayer to the Great Head of the Church, that He will send down His blessing from above, to make it fruitful to the salvation of many souls, and to the glory and honour of His holy name.

In Egypt, the Missionaries have during the past year disposed of 865 copies of the Scriptures, and nearly 4000 other Books and Tracts. The Rev. J. R. T. Lieder writes, Jan. 30, 1841—

Of the Sacred Volume we have sold 197 copies; and have gratuitously given 443, especially in providing Schools. In our own Schools, 225 have been distributed; making in all, 865 copies. Books and Tracts sold, 340; given away, 2059; with 1478 used and distributed in our own Schools; making a total of 3877 copies. Although we are not able to say what kind of reception each of these silent messengers has met with, especially the Holy Scriptures, since they have been in the different hands and houses to which they were sent—none but the Sower is able to give any account of the seed he has sown—yet we have full reason to hope that many of these volumes are frequently used, and here and there esteemed as treasures; and we trust that they will bear immortal fruits for a blessed eternity.

The Works published by the Malta Press have also been useful to the Schools of the Egyptian Government: for instance, we presented to the Minister of Public Instruction two copies of each of our scholastic works in the Turkish Language, as also of Mr. Fares' most ingenious Arabic Spelling and Reading Book. The latter was received with great approbation; and ordered to be reprinted, at the Government Press, for the Pasha's Schools.

Turkey, too, begins to feel the influence of the Malta Press. It has been employed by the Rev. Messrs. Jetter and Fjellstedt in printing Elementary Works in the Turkish Language, which have already awakened much wonder and inquiry among the Turks. They have also nearly finished a Translation of the Prayer Book; which only requires a careful revision, to be ready for the press.

Mr. Fjellstedt thus writes of it, Jan. 25, 1841:—

The Turkish Translation of the Prayer Book is not quite finished; but so far advanced, that it could be finished in a very short time. It was left at Malta with the other Manuscripts, in Mr. Brenner's care: and though it could not be printed without a careful revision, yet the nature of the translation itself is such, that we believe it would be good, and fit for printing, after a full revision. In the quarantine at Malta, we got through with the revision of the Morning Service. We think the Prayer Book would do much good in the East: to the Turks, it would show what pure Christianity is, which they have not hitherto seen: to the Oriental Churches, it would give a clearer and higher idea of the Church of England than any other instruction on this important subject could possibly convey. They would thereby be led to see, what most members of these Churches do not know or believe, that the Church of England is a Church of a fixed form, and that too of a superior order: they would see the spirit of Christianity in a visible and tangible garb, of which they are able to judge; and which they cannot avoid esteeming, as it is not only capable of being compared with the better parts of their own forms, but shines in a purer light, and is free from those corruptions and errors which have crept into theirs.

And here the Committee may surely call upon the friends of the Society to rejoice. In the Italian, the Maltese, the Modern Greek, the Arabic, and the Turkish Works which the Malta Missionaries and the Malta Press have produced, a lasting monument has been erected to the glory of God; means have been provided for facilitating and advancing the exertions of future labours; and it is a holy and not unreasonable expectation, that many, in generations yet unborn, from among the multitudes who speak the Arabic and the Turkish Languages, may learn to read God's word, and to pray to Him in the translations of the Scriptures, and the Book of Common Prayer, which have been made by the Missionaries of this Society at Malta.

Baptism of a Jewish Family.

A Mission in the Mediterranean must necessarily exert some influence over all the nations on its shores. Palestine, among the rest, falls within its moral power: and no indirect aid toward the conversion of the Jews can possibly be more important than the formation of true Christian Churches in the vicinity of the Holy Land. But, besides this general bearing, the Mediterranean Missionaries are from time to time using the opportunities presented to them of gathering the lost sheep of the House of Israel into the fold of Christ.

Mr. Gobat thus writes, from Malta, July 23, 1840—

During the last few months, I have occasionally been giving Christian instruction to a Jewish Family, who were baptized on Lord's Day, July 19th. It consists of the husband and his wife, with their two infants. I have reason to believe that the man is a true Israelite and a living Christian. He had previously been under the Rev. F. C. Ewald's instruction at Tunis. I am convinced of his wife's sincerity also, as far as her knowledge goes. When I first saw her, I had been called to persuade her to remain with her husband, whom she had resolved to leave because he wanted to become a Christian; though she said she had nothing to complain of him, except his renouncing his and her religion. Since that time, her relations have done all they could to excite her against her husband, and against Christianity; and succeeded for some time in rousing her worst feelings against Christianity, and against her position. While she was in such a state of mind, her husband with difficulty succeeded in persuading her to come and see Mrs. Gobat, who could not leave her room on account of illness. When Mrs. Gobat had spoken to her for about an hour, she went home altogether changed in her behaviour: and on the following day she said to her husband, "I do not know what Christianity is, but I am convinced that the truth is on the side of the Missionaries; for I have felt that they love my soul: they cannot have the least advantage with me; and this I have never seen among the Jews." She then sent him to beg me to instruct her in the Christian Religion, and baptize her when I should think it fit. Some days before her baptism, her relations sent her a copy of the last will of her father, who had died some months before, in which there is a paragraph to this effect: —"If my daughter M. shall leave her husband and return home a Jewess, or if they both come here (to Genoa) and promise to live and die Jews, she shall have her share of the inheritance with my other children (this would have amounted to above 15,000 francs); but contrariwise, she shall have nothing, nor shall she be considered any longer as my daughter." The temptation was strong, for they are rather in difficult circumstances at present. She, however, did not hesitate: she sent the paper back, and has since refused to open the letters sent to her by her relations. She is daily expecting her confinement; wherefore she was baptized sooner than I should otherwise have desired. Two or three days before her baptism she suddenly became very ill, and thought she was about to die; when she begged her husband to bury her decently: upon which, he told her, that, as she was not yet baptized, he should probably not be allowed to bury her with the Christians, and asked her whether she wished to be buried with the Jews: when she replied, "No; I have separated myself from the Jews and their errors. I believe in Christ, and commit to Him my soul and my body. It now depends upon His righteousness, as well as His mercy, to care for my body and to save my soul."

GREECE MISSION.

COMMENCED 1828.

Mission Estabtishment:

2 European Missionaries. 1 Asiatic Teacher. 11 Native Schoolmasters.

The Rev. F. A. Hildner and the Rev. J. T. Wolters have superintended, during the past year, the Society's educational establishment at Syra, with undiminished success. Several members of our own Church, who have visited it, have borne unequivocal testimony to its excellence and utility. Its importance at the present time is very great. From its Scriptural character, it is well qualified to counteract that general leaning to infidelity which is unhappily prevalent in Greece. [See Report XL. page 42.]

Scriptural Instruction given in the Schools.

Mr. Hildner, in his Annual Report of the Syra Institution, gives a very satisfactory account of the manner in which Religious Knowledge is made the foundation of the education given in the Schools:—

All these Schools commence and close every morning and afternoon with prayer, read by the general Monitors, and sometimes by the Teachers; and frequently with the additional singing of a hymn. All the reading books in the Schools are either the Bible itself, or contain Scripture, or are founded on Christian principles; and are all, without any exception, from the Mission Presses.

All the children, from the youngest to the eldest, are taught the Bible several times during the week, by their respective Teachers, and by ourselves. They also assemble regularly every Lord's-Day morning, with their Teachers, for this very purpose. We have indeed much cause to thank God for being still so circumstanced with our Schools, that even personally we can give as much Christian instruction as we think advisable or necessary. These are indeed cheering and encouraging facts.

Before we close our remarks on the Schools, we should not omit to mention, that all the children throughout the establishment commit Scripture to memory.

From Mr. Hildner's Journal, October 3, 1840, we extract the following account of a Visit of the King and Queen to the Schools.

Notice was given us from the Demarchy, that we might expect a Royal visit at our School Establishment. About an hour after, their Majesties were guided by the Governor of Syra to our Establishment. Mr. Wolters, Mr. Sanderski, and myself, received them at the principal entrance of the Boys' Schools. We attended them through this department; while the Boys, with their "Long live the King and the Queen," and the waving of branches in their hands, joyfully received them. We afterward attended them upstairs; where the Girls were prepared to receive them, with singing a hymn to the tune of "God save the King." They stood attentively till the Girls had finished. After this, the Queen looked with interest and pleasure at the needle-work of the Girls, which had been placed on a table in the next room; while the King put questions, with manifest interest and kindness, on the branches of study in the different Schools, and about the Missionary Society which had founded and so long supported the Institution. He expressed himself highly gratified; and mentioned his two former visits to the School with minuteness and pleasure. And when Mrs. Hildner, after having answered the Queen many questions respecting the needle-work, presented to her a work-case which the Girls had made, and at which the Queen seemed to have looked with particular pleasure, it was graciously and thankfully received. The Queen expressed her special satisfaction with the plain work; mentioning, that this was the most necessary thing for the Greek girls to learn.

Preaching.

Of this part of their duties, the Missionaries state, in the Annual Report previously quoted :—

The English Church Service, which we perform alternately, has been uninterruptedly continued during the year, every Lord's-Day Morning. Our harbour is scarcely ever empty of English vessels; and sometimes we have seen five and six English flags together in the port. There have been also comparatively few Captains who have not attended Divine Service, and also a good number of the sailors; nay, several times whole crews have come to attend. The frequent steamers, moreover, which have here their central station, bring many English travellers; of whom some, when here on the Lord's Day, come to join our Services. On one occasion we had an attendance of nearly forty persons, and eight communicants.

The Afternoon Service, which is held in German, has been carried on, like the English, without any interruption: it has not been discontinued, even for one Lord's Day. Here the attendance is somewhat smaller, but less fluctuating than on the English. It is indeed gratifying to state, that though there are but few Protestant residents here, yet all, excepting one, attend Divine Service more or less regularly.

The Evening Greek Service of Mr. Hildner has been also regularly kept up; and though, besides his own family and the Greek servants, only a few other Greeks attend, together with a few children, yet it is truly encouraging that these regularly come, and, besides this, evidently show that the preaching of the Gospel is beneficial to their souls.

A few other Greeks occasionally also attend the English and German Services. These Services have, till now, been held at the house of Mr. Hildner; but their increasing importance, and the probability that many more of the English sailors and travellers would attend Divine Service if it were not held at a private house, has induced us to think of a Chapel. For this undertaking the British Consul has gladly joined us; and we have already opened a subscription for the special purpose of erecting a small Protestant Chapel at Syra. We hope to get sufficient encouragement to take further steps for the building, or, as we have thought more advisable and proper, to fit up for a Chapel the newly-built Infant School; and, in that case, to apply the subscriptions to the building of one or two other rooms for the accommodation of the little Boys within the main building of the School Establishment. In pursuing this plan, it is our ardent desire and sincere prayer to the Lord that we may be guided by His Spirit, and that He may prosper our undertaking, to the glory of His name and the good of many souls.

Mr. Wolters, in his Journal, November 16, 1840, mentions a pleasing instance of attentive interest in the Word of God; and adds an important remark on the absence of Scriptural Exposition in the Greek churches :—

A woman who attends our Greek Family Worship in the evening, said to Mrs. Wolters, "Ah! how did I like to hear the Gospel yesterday morning! tears were flowing from my eyes, and I could have listened a whole hour longer." This woman is poor: may she become rich in faith! Like her, I think there many among the people who would be delighted to hear the Gospel explained to them. In their churches, it is only read and sung in the ancient language; and only on certain occasions do the Bishops or Priests preach to the people.

From the Annual Report we also give the following

General Review.

In reviewing our Missionary labours during the past year, we feel constrained to offer our humble tribute of praise to the Lord, whose we are, and whom we serve; for it is He who hath continued to keep us in safety, who has crowned us with loving-kindness and tender mercies, and who has blessed and strengthened us in our persons and families as well as in our labours. We rejoice, and gratefully acknowledge, that the work entrusted to our hands has proceeded uninterruptedly and prosperously; and, in stating this, we think it right to mention, that the Local Authorities and Government have continued to sanction and to encourage our labour, by word and by letter, at different times, and especially on occasion of the Public Examination of the Schools.

EGYPT MISSION.

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment.

2 European Missionaries. 1 European Female Teacher. 8 Native Teachers.

General View.

During the continuance of the war with the Pasha of Egypt, the Rev. J. R. T. Lieder and Mrs. Lieder were exposed to some peril, and to great anxiety. Supported, however, by the sure promises of a gracious God, they continued at Caïro. Mr. Lieder, in a Letter dated October 12, 1840, describes the feelings of Mrs. Lieder and himself, in the alarming circumstances in which they were placed:—

I prefer to remain at present in Egypt; as it is an awful thought to me, to leave at such a dangerous and critical time the work entrusted to me; for which I have spent my best strength, and the best years of my life; which has only latterly begun to show a promising aspect; and which, perhaps, during my absence, might fall into ruin. Not that I consider a Christian bound to brave unnecessary dangers; but as so many respectable families remain here only for worldly prospects, I and Mrs. Lieder feel it to be our duty, encouraged by the gracious Promises of the Bible, to remain here, to watch our higher and sublimer duties, for the spread and promotion of the Kingdom of our Redeemer.

The protection of God was not withheld: the whole of the Missionary body were preserved from harm. God also had provided a human protector for the Missionaries, in case they had been exposed to any actual danger from the continuance of the war. Mr. Lieder informs the Committee, in a Letter dated January 20, 1841—

I received the following Letter from the Hon. Captain Wm. Waldegrave, R.N.; and think it ought to be communicated to the Committee, as it does so much honour to the kind care and sympathy of this distinguished Officer;

"H. M. S. Revenge, off Alexandria, November 27, 1840.

"My Dear Sir,—I write to you to inquire whether I can be of any service to you, as an individual Minister of our Lord Jesus Christ, or whether I can assist the cause in which you are employed? I was during more than six years one of the Committee of the Church Missionary Society in London, and remember your presence before the Committee. I now command the Revenge, one of the ships of the line off the Port of Alexandria; and I can offer you, not only my own assistance, but that of my brother officers and sailors in the squadron. You may show this Letter to Mr. Larkin, or Mr. Schutz, or any person whose help you require; who will confer a favour upon me, if they will assist you.

"Wishing that the Blessing of our Lord Jesus Christ may be upon you, and that His grace may be present with you in your duties,

"I am, &c. W. WALDEGRAVE."

It is encouraging to the Committee to know, that there were many British Officers in the Syrian Expedition who, while they discharged their duty as brave and skilful Commanders in their country's cause, did not forget that they were also enlisted under the more glorious banner of the Lord of Hosts.

But it pleased God that the Missionaries should not stand in need of this protection. They were enabled, during the whole of the period of alarm, to carry on their ordinary duties. The Schools now contain as many Boys as last year, and the number of Girls has considerably increased.

Mr. Lieder gives an encouraging report of the progress of Civilization, and of the prospects of Religion, in Egypt. He writes, January 20, 1841:—

Notwithstanding all the various vexations arising from political, civil, and religious causes, we are able to say, that not only have the education of the young, and the general civilization of the people, advanced beyond all expectation, but that a pleasing religious movement has also been observed among the Christians of several Denominations within this city.

The Ministry.

Mr. Lieder also states, that he and the Rev. W. Krusé have carried on their Ministerial duties, and that the state of many of the Copts is hopeful. A plan has been devised for their benefit, which the disturbed state of the country interfered with; but which may be acted upon hereafter.

Progress of Education.

Mr. Lieder reports of the Schools, in the Letter just quoted—

In reviewing the state of our Schools at the end of 1840, a year fraught with so many disheartening trials and obstacles to our proceedings, we feel that we have to be deeply grateful that we have been able, not only to keep our position, and to labour in our work, but that we have been permitted to do so much in our Master's vineyard. Yea, the Lord hath been with us, and hath crowned us with mercy and loving-kindness. Blessed be the name of the Lord!

The progress of the Schools for Girls during the last year has also been highly satisfactory. Mrs. Lieder has succeeded in introducing a practice, which a few years ago would have been considered absolutely impracticable in Egypt: she has persuaded the parents of many of the girls to allow their daughters to receive instruction in writing and arithmetic from a male teacher. This change is the first breaking down of a very injurious prejudice in Egypt, which has hitherto presented a formidable barrier to the moral, intellectual, and religious improvement of the women.

The present state of Egypt is so interesting and encouraging, that copious extracts from the last Report of the Missionaries are printed in the Appendix*.

ABYSSINIA OR EAST-AFRICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1829.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries. 2 European Catechists.

THE Rev. J. L. Krapf has continued in Shoa, a province of Abyssinia; where he has been labouring among the Abyssinian Christians. He has used, with great prudence and judgment, all the opportunities which have been presented to him of forwarding the Missionary Cause in that country. The Committee have been so struck with the providential openings offered to them, not merely as regards Abyssinia itself, but also among the Heathen Galla Tribes, that they have resolved to form the Abyssinian into a New Mission, to be called the East-Africa Mission; and have sent Messrs. Mühlheisen and Müller to assist Mr. Krapf. These two Brethren proceeded, by way of the Continent and Egypt, to Aden; and thence would go on to Shoa by the first opportunity. Major Harris, who has uniformly shown much kindness to Messrs. Isenberg and Krapf, has kindly promised his friendly offices to Messrs. Müller and Mühlheisen, in the prosecution of their journey from Aden to Shoa.

Mr. Krapf has gained the confidence of the King of Shoa in a very remarkable manner. The following Extract from a Letter, dated Ankobar, July 4, 1840, shows the regard which the King entertained toward him:—

* See Appendix I. — The Church Missionary Record for May 1840, pp. 101—106 also contains further particulars of this Mission.

As the King was lately severely sick, he made me come before him, and said: "As long as I live, I am thy Father and Mother, and I will protect thee; but if I should die to-day, the bad people of Efat will kill thee, and take thy property. You cannot fly, because all ways will be obstructed: therefore pray that God may preserve my life, as thy life is preserved by mine. When my father died, 800 were killed at Debra Libanos."

Mr. Krapf has made an expedition, in company with the King of Shoa, among the Galla Tribes. The slave-trade is carried on in these countries, to a considerable extent; but, at the same time, the present period is favourable to an attempt to effect its abolition. It is as important as it is interesting, that a simultaneous effort should be made in the East and in the West of Africa, for the removal of this curse from so large a portion of the family of man. It is to the Gospel, and to Missionary exertions, to which we must look for its ultimate and complete extinction.

The Rev. C. W. Isenberg has been engaged, since his return to this country, in diligently preparing elementary works in the Amharic and Galla languages.*

CHINA MISSION.

It was stated in the last Report, that this Mission was for the present altogether suspended.

Mr. and Mrs. Squire returned to this country in the summer of last year. The many millions of China are not indeed forgotten by your Committee, nor are they inattentive to the great political events which are taking place in that country: but should God, in His providence, again open the door for Missionary operations in China, your Committee feel that greatly enlarged resources must be provided, to justify them in recommencing a Mission, which, for its successful prosecution, would demand a scale of operations in some measure commensurate with the magnitude of the undertaking.†

* Some particulars relative to this Mission are given in the Church Missionary Record for January last, pp. 1—4.

† The Church Missionary Record for June 1840, pp. 123, 124, contains a further account of the China Mission.

INDIA AND CEYLON MISSIONS.

The Committee now proceed to report the state of the Society's Missions in India and Ceylon. If the last year have not been marked by such striking events as the awakening at Krishnaghur, yet the progress of the Gospel has been steady and encouraging. The gradual consolidation of the Missions at Tinnevelly and Krishnaghur, the quiet advance made in many other Stations, both in North and South India, as well as in Ceylon and at Nassuck, prove that the Blessing of Almighty God is extensively vouchsafed to the Indian Missions.

Death of the Rev. F. Wybrow, and of Mrs. Innes.

Your Committee report, with feelings of deep sorrow, that it has pleased Almighty God to take to himself the Rev. F. Wybrow and Mrs. Innes. It was stated in the last Report, that Mr. Wybrow had resigned the office of Secretary of the Corresponding Committee, and had entered on the discharge of the duties of a Missionary at Calcutta. In consequence of the failure of the Rev. M. Wilkinson's health, Mr. Wybrow's services were transferred to Gorruckpore. Here he was attacked by jungle fever, while residing at the Farm, a distance of three miles from the station of Gorruckpore, on the 9th of December last: after ten days of severe suffering, he breathed his last on Saturday the 19th of that month.

God's ways are not as our ways. Such dispensations are inscrutable to us. We can only wonder and adore. Few Missionaries appeared better qualified than Mr. Wybrow for a long career of ministerial usefulness. Simple, active, faithful, full of zeal and full of love, he was eminently suited to labour among the Heathen. But God saw fit to take him to his heavenly inheritance.

The Committee are happy to add, from private information, that his last expressions on the subject of Religion were those of assurance in the Rock of his salvation. The Saviour to whom he had devoted all his energies, and whose full and free salvation he had so affectionately, so earnestly, and so effectually commended to his fellow-creatures, was his support and comfort in the trying hour of nature's struggle with the last enemy, death.

The Corresponding Committee at Calcutta passed the following Resolution, on the receipt of the melancholy intelligence of his death :

That the Committee receive the intelligence of the decease of the Rev. F. Wybrow of Gorruckpore with feelings of deep sorrow and humiliation before God, and desire to record their sense of the loss sustained by the Mission generally by the death of this devoted Minister. They feel humbled at the mysterious wisdom of God, in removing so early from the sphere of his labours one so eminently calculated for usefulness; and they sorrow at the loss of so zealous and talented a brother in the Missionary Cause. They desire further to record their fullest sympathy with his afflicted widow, in her melancholy bereavement.

Mrs. Innes, the wife of the Rev. J. Innes, terminated her earthly career on the 15th of July last. She died in the faith, in the enjoyment of a hope full of immortality.*

CALCUTTA.

There are at present four Missionaries stationed at Calcutta. The Rev. J. Innes is Acting Secretary of the Corresponding Committee, and Principal of the Head Seminary: he is assisted by the Rev. James Long The Rev. T. Sandys continues at Mirzapore. The Rev. J. C. Thompson has charge of the Hindoostanee department.

MIRZAPORE.

The Rev. T. Sandys reports:—

During the past year the same operations have been carried on, so far as circumstances have admitted, as were detailed in the Report of the preceding year. The number of individuals admitted into the Church during the year is 21 ; of whom, 14 are adults and 7 children. Of the adults, 5 individuals were converts from Hindooism, and 9 from Mahomedanism. The number of Native Christians who have departed this life in connexion with the Mission in Calcutta is 8.

Death of two Native Christians.

Mr. Sandys furnishes, in his Report, the following brief narratives:—

Roop Chund had been engaged as a Native Catechist for many years. He had been the means of bringing several of his countrymen to renounce idolatry, and to embrace the Gospel of Christ; and he died in the faith, looking for eternal life only through the merits of the Lord Jesus Christ.

* See page 43 of the Church Missionary Record for November last.

Purnima, wife of Jacob Madub, one of the Society's Catechists, was baptized about seven years ago. She adorned her Christian profession by a holy and consistent life; and, on being suddenly called to her heavenly inheritance, she expressed her confidence in the Lord Jesus Christ, and her anticipation of being accepted of God, and admitted to the glories of heaven, for His sake.

Hindoostanee Department.

The Rev. J. C. Thompson is charged with this branch of the Missionary labours. While he laments that the progress hitherto made has not been equal to his expectations, he represents its present condition as hopeful. He writes:—

Since the last report, 23 have been admitted into the fold of Christ; 9 adults, and 14 children of different ages. 13 of these, Bishop Wilson himself baptized, in Hindoostanee, before his departure on his last Visitation. I have now 10 adult Catechumens preparing for baptism.

Proposed New Church.

It was stated in the Report for last year, that Mr. Thompson had opened a New Chapel, capable of accommodating about forty persons. The number of persons assembling there for Worship has averaged about seventy. This disproportion, between the number of the attendants and the accommodation for them, has not only inconvenienced the people when present, but has also made them irregular in their attendance. Mr. Thompson has consequently made efforts to obtain a larger building, which is now in course of erection.

Baptism of an African Slave Boy.

Mr. Thompson carried on a Christian School in his own house for a short period; which, notwithstanding its brief duration, has not been without good effects. Mr. Thompson writes:—

One poor African Boy was sent to us by his master, a Spanish gentleman, who was very much attached to him for his fidelity and affection, especially for having on one occasion saved his life. This poor lad had been three times sold as a slave. He was totally ignorant of Christianity, and could not speak a word of Hindoostanee: after he had, through kind treatment, become fully convinced that he had not again been sold as a slave, it was astonishing how rapidly he learnt the language, and how very docile and affectionate he was, always appearing grateful for the kindness he had received. At first, our only means of communication was through my Molwee, in Arabic; but in less than twelve months he could read and speak Hindoostanee; and as soon as he understood sufficiently of the sinfulness of man, and salvation by Christ the only Son of God, he was baptized, at the earnest request of his master, who was about leaving Calcutta, and who wished to make him some return for his faithfulness and attachment, by bringing him to the best of Masters and dearest of Friends, Christ Jesus. He was left at Benares, at the Missionary School, that he might receive further Christian instruction.

Catechumens.

Mr. Thompson gives the following facts relating to two of his Catechumens. The first is interesting, as showing how the persecutor may become the inquirer: the second presents another instance of the bearing of Christian Missions on the outcast wanderers of the House of Israel. Indeed, scattered as they are among every people under heaven, the wider Christian Missions to the Heathen are extended, the more of Palestine's exiles will hear the glad tidings of the true Messiah.

Among my Catechumens, I have a Molwee who has gone through much persecution for the sake of the profession he has made, and of the Master whom he firmly believes to be the only Saviour of sinners; so much, that he has been compelled to change his residence to another part of the town. When it was known among his acquaintances that he worshipped with the Christians, one of the chief men from the Mussulmans came to the Chapel to be certified of it, and saw that the other fearlessly joined in our devotions, with his head uncovered, and bowed at the name of Jesus. The man came again; but plainly not with a desire to be a spy or to persecute the other, but to hear something for himself. On Christmas-day he was there; and even brought his little son with him, and remained during the administration of the Lord's Supper. He afterward spoke to me, and expressed a wish to call and see me the first day he had leisure. I trust the Lord may have touched his heart; and though he came, like a Saul, to persecute, may the Lord make him a Paul, a chosen vessel to bear His name among the Gentiles!

There are also a Jew and his wife among my Catechumens, who firmly believe the Messiah has come; and, as he reads the New Testament, he says he is fully satisfied that Christ is the Messiah that should come. He is willing and anxious to be baptized, and live and die among us. His wife is very young, and speaks only Arabic; but as the man speaks Hindoostanee, I converse with and explain to him; and he translates to his wife, who is anxious to be baptized into the living faith. Let us not despise the day of small things; for there is joy in heaven even over one sinner that repenteth.

BURDWAN.

General View.

At this Station the Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht and the Rev. J. T. Linke continue to labour. They thus write, January 16, 1841:—

The state of this Mission is much the same as was represented in last year's report. The Missionaries, with their Wives and Assistants, continue at their posts, fulfilling their usual routine of engagements, as health and strength enable them. The conduct of the native congregation is, upon the whole, satisfactory; and the Readers and Catechists are diligent in preaching and superintending Schools, and appear to be faithful and sincere characters.

Two actual conversions have occurred. One adult convert from Heathenism, a respectable man of the Kaystho Caste, whose examination previous to his baptism was very satisfactory, has been lately received. His age, abilities, and diligence, constitute him a useful addition; and give promise of his becoming a valuable Labourer in future, if, by the grace of God, he be preserved stedfast in his profession. Several families in a neighbouring village, with a Brahmin at their head, and a young landholder, brought up in the English School, have determined to embrace Christianity.

Beside the above, four orphan girls, three infants, and one adult, the latter giving encouraging evidence of a change of heart, with fourteen orphan boys in Mr. Linke's School, have been baptized.

Preaching among the Heathen.

On this most important branch of Missionary labour, Mr. Weitbrecht remarks:—

Preaching among the Heathen has been regularly continued; and the attendance, especially in the Bazaar Chapel, has been satisfactory.

Progress of Education.

Instruction is given to the Young in the Burdwan District, in four different descriptions of Schools. The account given of them is satisfactory; although the English School has to encounter the opposition of the Rajah; and the greater danger of a private school, where the Scriptures are not taught. Messrs. Weitbrecht and Linke report:—

The English School numbered above 100 scholars in the earlier part of the year; but, of late, a spirit of rivalry has been created. Two schools under the patronage of the Rajah of Burdwan, where books are supplied gratis, and in some cases a monthly allowance granted; and one private Institution, which has for its motto "No Religion"; have drawn off a considerable number of the pupils, though it is hoped but for a time: indeed, some have already returned.

The Bengalee Schools have been continued, under the direction of Christian Teachers.

The Institutions for Orphan Boys and Girls contain about sixty children. Some of the boys, who receive an English education, give promise of becoming useful as Catechists; and others learn different trades and occupations, as tailors, carpenters, &c. Several of the elder girls have married during the year, whose places have been filled up by little-ones. These Institutions are very encouraging, giving progressive promise of permanent good effect.

The Infant School for the Native Christian Children and the younger Orphans, in connexion with the above establishments, continues as usual; and has an effective Teacher, who does credit to her work.

KRISHNAGHUR.

The work of Evangelization is being carried forward by the Missionaries with as much efficiency as present circumstances admit. The Blessing of the Lord has been abundantly poured out on this district; and the Committee desire to record their tribute of praise and thanksgiving to God, for the wonders that He has wrought, and is still working there.

Division of the Mission into Five Districts.

About July last, the whole district was divided into five smaller ones, each of which was placed under the care of a European Missionary. By this means, a definite sphere of labour and usefulness was allotted to each Missionary; and the Christian congregations were brought under more regular instruction and into closer connexion with the Missionaries, than could otherwise be the case.

Archdeacon Dealtry thus describes the state of the Krishnaghur Mission in the summer of last year, when he visited the place:—

1. There are more than 100 villages in the whole district, in which there are baptized converts: in some a greater, in some a less number of families.

2. There are about 500 families which have already been brought into the Christian fold: these families contain upward of 2000 souls.

3. There are nearly 3000, who are at present Inquirers, under Christian instruction, and desirous of baptism.

4. There are now, in all the divisions, six Missionaries, five Catechists, and twenty-three Readers.

5. There are in all, in the different villages, sixteen mud-built Chapels, and one puckah-built, in which there is Service every Lord's Day. Besides these, there is Service in eight or ten other places, conducted by the Readers.

6. There are at Solo, 148 boys and girls under the care of the Rev. A. Alexander. The system, however, of taking them away from their own villlages to Solo will not answer, as the Society cannot bear the charge of their support. There must be regular Schools in all the principal villages; and little good will be done with the young, until this be carried into effect. The Missionaries are all of this opinion.

7. The Missionaries think that the baptized are desirous of instruction, and wish to know the way of Truth. Some of them speak more decidedly upon the subject than others; but all agree that there is abundant encouragement to proceed in the work. Mr. Deerr and Mr. Alexander spoke more strongly on the subject than the other Missionaries; but all are persuaded, that whatever ignorance, worldliness, and dulness may prevail, there is great cause to thank God and take courage.

8. They are all anxious that their houses should be completed in the villages, and think they cannot do much good until this is effected; but there is every reason to hope and believe, that when they shall be placed among the people the work will go on satisfactorily.

The Rev. A. Alexander gives some affecting particulars of the persecutions to which some of the converts have been exposed:—

Persecution is by no means uncommon: many of our poor people have been most unjustly treated. One poor man has been incarcerated for two years, by the instrumentality of false evidence. Another case happened the other day. The Christians having refused to give evidence in favour of a Talookdar, as their heathen neighbours had done, to support him in continuing to defraud the Government of the rent of 1100 biggahs of land annually, were seized, and taken by force to the Talookdar's residence; where one poor creature's ears were nearly wrung from his head by a blacksmith's tongs, and his back covered with stripes, from which ill treatment he fainted. He was afterward set at liberty, being an old man, for fear he might die.

But, as Mr. Alexander tells us that he rejoices in the obedience and patient endurance of these poor people, it seems plain that these persecutions are but the furnace which is needful to purify the gold of their faith. The value of persecution, in giving occasion to the exercise of the Christian grace of forgiveness, is also shown by Mr. Alexander:—

Some very pleasing facts have come to my knowledge: for instance, some of our people were beaten some time ago, purely, I believe, because they were Christians: and when the subject of seeking redress was hinted, they replied, "What sort of Christians shall we be, if we complain, and do not offer the other cheek? We will pray for them."

Mr. Alexander also favourably describes the general character of the converts at Solo:—

With respect to our Native Converts, I fully believe many of them to be growing in grace, and experiencing deliverance from the power of Satan; and although many are careless and disobedient, yet there are others who are asking for wise and understanding hearts, and who are growing in Gospel obedience. This has hitherto been evidenced by the simple expressions of Gospel truth, which I have often heard when I little expected it; such as, "If we ask not, we shall not receive." "If we forgive not, we shall not be forgiven." "If we love not God and man, we are nothing." This, with a decided Christian temper, and a regular attendance at Divine Worship, on the Lord's Day, and morning and evening during the week—which is conducted regularly by myself or the Readers and Catechists, as the case may be, at seven of the most important villages—cause me thus to decide in my own mind.

New candidates are coming forward occasionally: forty children have been baptized during the year; and nearly sixty couples have been married.

Your Committee are enabled to report, that, on the whole, Krishnaghur, with its 2000 baptized, and its 3000 inquirers, is in as satisfactory a state as could reasonably have been expected.

BENARES.

The various branches of Missionary duty are carried on, in this strong-hold of Hindoo superstition, with untiring perseverance. The Rev. C. B. Leupolt gives a detailed account of the labours of the Missionaries, under date of August 6, 1840 :—

The Preaching of the Gospel at Benares.

With regard to our first and most important duty—preaching the unsearchable riches of Christ—in order to let you fully see what we are doing, I shall commence with the first day of the week, the Lord's Day.

There being no Chaplain at the Station, we have on the Lord's Day regular Morning Service at the English Church, beginning at seven o'clock; the Rev. W. Smith generally taking the duties. At the same time with the English Service, we have a Hindoostanee Service in our Chapel in the Lines, attended by drummers and their wives. This Service I have to perform; and I believe I have not been altogether without a blessing. Satan, however, has exercised his power too. The Roman Catholics have used all their influence to deter the people from coming, and have succeeded with many: what they could not accomplish by persuasion, they did by violence. May the Lord have mercy upon them! A third Service we have, from half-past ten till twelve, in the Chapel which is annexed to my bungalow. Here all our Orphans, Christians, and Servants, meet. I have another Service in the evening, from seven till eight, with our Orphans and Christians. Besides this, I have a Prayer Meeting with some of our dear Boys who are pious or piously inclined. In the evening, we —that is, Mr. Smith, the Rev. F. E. Schneider, and myself, with our wives and some other friends—meet and take tea together; and afterward join in prayer. Our private devotions fall between the hours of Service. Mr. Smith generally goes on Lord's-Day Evening to the English Hospital.

Thus we spend the Lord's Day: and I have found, that if I spend this day in a right manner, I have a blessing attending me during the whole week.

Monday is our grand preaching-day. On this day we have for some time gone together to our largest Chapel at Kashipoora, taking about twenty of our orphans with us. We commence by singing a hymn; and afterward, one reads some of the Evening Prayers; and then either I or Mr. Smith preach. Our preaching on this day does not consist so much in refuting errors—though that, too, is sometimes necessary—as in unfolding Christian Doctrines and enforcing Christian Morals. When we have finished, we sing again; and then another address is given, either by one of us or by one of the Readers. Afterward, we generally conclude with Prayers. The attendance on these days is very good; and a number of people regularly attend. Our chief object in having these Services, is, to show the people how and for what we pray, and to set before them the whole scheme of Redemption. I may add, that we have often experienced that the Lord is at hand. His peace has filled our souls, and His grace has enabled us to proclaim freely and fully the glad tidings of the glorious Gospel to poor lost sinners: and, concluding from the attention paid to us, we may hope that we are not left without making some impression. Several times I have seen people first standing outside for a short time; and afterward listening, inside the Chapel, to our preaching for nearly two hours. This Service has also another advantage—that of keeping up a unity of spirit among us, which is of such great importance to Missionaries labouring together. In unity there is strength; and whatever promotes this object, cannot but be a blessing to all.

On Tuesday, we each go to our respective Chapels. Hitherto, Brother Schneider has accompanied me; but I suppose he will by and bye go alone. I go to the Darmnya Bir Chapel, which is on the way to a large temple of Doorga. There is a Mela every Tuesday. The Chapel is not well attended: we have generally a good number of hearers outside, but scarcely any inside. In consequence, we have, at present, seldom Service inside; but the population thereabout increases, and I am almost sure that within a short time this Chapel will be as well attended as any of the others. The people attending here being chiefly Brahmins, who go to worship Doorga, we have arguing; and it is very noisy occasionally; although, upon the whole, we have little difficulty in silencing our opponents: the objections, arguments, and cavils, have so often recurred, that we immediately know what they are going to say, and by what arguments to meet them.

On Wednesday, Mr. Schneider and myself go to Mado Dano garden; where we have the smallest Chapel, but the largest congregations. This Chapel is very well situated: in front of it there is a large open place, in the shape of a triangle. We sit here, first outside. The Reader reads a Tract, and gives a short address. I then address the people at large on the great concerns of their souls.

On Friday, Mr. Smith goes to Mado Dano garden, and Mr. Schneider and myself to the Aurangabad Chapel. This Chapel, too, is in an excellent situation. We have preaching outside and inside. Here the greater number of hearers are Mussulmans. I have often been forcibly struck with the attention which the people have paid.

Educational Labours—the Free and Orphan Schools.

The Free School forms another branch of our operations. In this, Messrs. Smith and Schneider assist me. The School goes on pretty well; but we ought to have a Schoolmaster, or a Missionary, who could devote his whole time to it.

The last branch, and perhaps, next to preaching, that of most importance, is our Orphan Establishment. We have at present 121 boys, divided into several classes. They all, with the exception of a few blind, dumb, idiot, and sickly boys, read the Gospel. Here is a great sphere for usefulness. We have Prayers every morning, at six o'clock, when all the boys and girls, 45 in number, attend. At eight o'clock P.M., Evening Prayer. The second class go to the school in the city: the rest read at home till twelve o'clock. From twelve, they go to their several trades—30 carpet-makers, 30 tailors, 4 carpenters, and blacksmiths, masons, gardeners, bearers, and cooks. My dear wife has the charge of the tailors, carpet-makers, and gardeners; and has wonderfully succeeded. The carpet-making requires the most skill and care, in inventing new patterns and improving the colours. She has succeeded beyond expectation.

Translations.

Mr. Leupolt, in addition to his other toils, has also devoted a portion of his time to translating the Scriptures. Thursday is the day which is devoted to this duty; and he gives the following delightful account of the manner in which it is spent:—

Thursday has been hitherto devoted to translation; and as we sit together from seven in the morning till four in the afternoon, we do not go to the city in the evening. On this day we dine, in turn, at one another's houses: in the evening we have a Prayer Meeting; and as we do not preach to the Heathens, we especially pray for them. From this you see, that if there should arise any difference among us, it cannot last longer than from Monday to Thursday, or from Friday to Saturday; but I am thankful to say that no such difference ever occurs. The Lord has blessed us with unity of spirit and brotherly love. Having but one good object in view—the glory of God, in the salvation of our own souls, and the good of our fellow-creatures—we can and do rejoice at the gifts, graces, and talents which each has received from his Lord.

The result of these labours is thus described by Mr. Leupolt:—

The Gospel is decidedly making progress. A short time ago, a number of people told one of our Readers, that if we would allow them to retain caste, and to be called Worshippers of the Lord, instead of Christians, half the city would throw their idols into the river, and become Christians.

A visible change has taken place since last year, not only at Benares, but, I believe, throughout Hindoostan: our great Melas here (Religious Fairs) are much less frequented than they were in former years. This we could not but remark, especially in the last Mela. The Brahmins lose in esteem and caste, and appear to have less hold on the people than before.

Measures for Training a Native Ministry.

It is proposed to convert the School which was founded by Jay Narrain into an Institution for training Natives to become Teachers of their own countrymen. Out of the Boys under the care of the Missionaries, six have been set apart to be educated for the Ministry. One of these is a Youth of much promise. Mr. Leupolt writes:—

You know that we have set six Boys apart for the work of the Lord. They go on well, and give us much joy: upon the whole, all our Boys go on well, and we have every reason to be thankful. Of late, the Lord has been very gracious to us.

Mr. Leupolt has frequently spoken of the prayers of these Boys. He thus illustrates the effect produced by them upon his own mind:—

10 o'clock.—I have just been listening to their prayers: and I might almost say with Luther, "Be of good cheer! the Mighty-ones fight for us." You remember the anecdote to which I allude. It is said, that one day, himself and Melancthon were much dejected on account of the aspect of the Reformation: every circumstance and occurrence seemed to unite in bringing destruction on that great work of God. With grief of heart, he went out; and hearing some children's voices, he went toward the place from whence the sound proceeded; and there he found his and Melancthon's little children in prayer. He listened, and found them interceding for their fathers with such childlike simplicity and confidence, that he burst into tears: joy and assurance filled his soul; and, returning direct to Melancthon, he called out, "Philip, be of good cheer! The Lord's work will prosper; for Giants and Mighty-ones fight for us!"

The following description, by Mr. Leupolt, of a Missionary scene at Patna will form an appropriate sequel to the foregoing report:—

Crowds of Hearers listen to the Preaching of the Gospel at Patna.

In the course of this year, we had a visit paid us by dear Weitbrecht, of Burdwan. On their return, we accompanied them to Patna. During our short stay there, I accompanied the German Brethren to a Mela; which is one of the most delightful scenes, as regards Missions, which I have ever witnessed. The first day, after having spoken for several hours in turn with another Brother, I could go on no longer, and went into our boat. We had scarcely been there half-an-hour, when the people sent us word to come out and speak to them, as they were anxious to hear the Gospel. What could we do? We went out; and I went on speaking until night. The day after, I went among the people with Tracts. I returned about 7 A.M. to the boat: a small crowd assembled, to whom I preached. I stood on the front of the boat, and could be heard by a great number. The crowd soon increased; and in less than half-an-hour, I had an immense crowd before me, some of them standing up to their loins in water. After having spoken for about an hour, I was relieved: and we then went on speaking in turn.

May God bless the seed thus sown, and cause it to bring forth much fruit unto everlasting life!

CHUNAR.

At this Station, the Rev. W. Bowley continues to prosecute his useful labours. Much of his time is spent in journeying throughout the surrounding district; and on such occasions, interesting occurrences are constantly taking place, calculated to encourage the Christian mind in looking for better, happier, and holier days for degraded India.

On one occasion, when Mr. Bowley in his journey had reached a native village, the Zemindar of the place called on him, and staid some time; exhibiting, in all that he said, a vain and pharisaïcal spirit; recounting his good deeds, and attempting to defend the worship of the Peepul-tree, as being the residence of the gods. One man, standing by, said he had heard the Missionary say the year before, that the Peepul-tree was the food of elephants; and he then drew the very natural inference, that if the tree could not defend itself it surely could not defend its votaries. The same man related another anecdote, which he had heard from the preacher, concerning the folly of resorting in sickness to holy places, in hopes of being cured; thus showing that statements made in his presence long before, still exerted an influence on his mind. At another time, the Missionary received the pleasing testimony from one of the crowd, concerning the books distributed:—"Your books, contrary to ours, carry conviction into the mind of any person who judges impartially."

GORRUCKPORE.

This Station has experienced great vicissitudes since the last Report. At the close of the year 1839, an epidemic fever broke out among the little flock: scarcely a single individual in connexion with the Mission escaped, and in a large proportion of cases the disease terminated fatally. The Rev. M. Wilkinson was obliged to leave the field of his labours early in the year 1840, to try the effect of sea air upon his weakened constitution. A trip to Arracan seemed to restore him to health; and when he left Calcutta, hopes were entertained that many more years of usefulness might still be before him. But before his arrival at Gorruckpore, disease began to reappear in his frame; and it was soon evident that a more permanent change was absolutely necessary. He went to Calcutta, and has subsequently reached England. His place was supplied by the Rev. F. Wybrow, whose lamented decease in December has already been recorded. His career in this interesting sphere of labour was soon brought to a termination: not however before the highest hopes of his usefulness had been afforded; for he wrote to a Christian friend in Calcutta, shortly before his death—"I read with ease, converse with the people, and preach extemporaneously to the Christian flock, which is a mercy I had not ventured to anticipate so soon." His removal has left the Mission, for the present, in an orphan state; but the vacancy will shortly be supplied by one of the newly-arrived Missionaries.

AGRA.

This important Mission, which was founded by the beloved Bishop Corrie, and in which Abdool Messeeh long and faithfully laboured, is under the charge of the Rev. Messrs. C. T. Hœrnle, F. A. Kreiss, and Anund Messeeh. It has enjoyed the benefit of a visitation from the Bishop of Calcutta. The Rev. J. H. Pratt, his Lordship's Chaplain, after having lamented its previous decay from the want of Labourers, thus speaks of its present prospects, January 9, 1841:—

> You will be glad to hear that things have vastly improved within the last two or three years. I am able to tell you a brighter story: and it does appear, that if, under God's blessing, we can keep up our present establishment, and, if possible, enlarge it, we may look forward to Agra being one of the most important and interesting Missions in India.

The Mission consists of two parts, the Kuttra and Secundra. The Kuttra is in the city, where Abdool Messeeh lived and laboured; and the situation is very favourable for carrying on Missionary operations. In the city there are thirteen Schools, in which 501 children receive Christian instruction. There is also regular preaching in the Bazaar; which department has hitherto been under the superintendence of Mr. Moore. Secundra is five miles from the city, near the Tomb of Akbar. It contains Orphan Asylums for Boys and Girls; of which Mr. Pratt thus writes:—

> Those who went round with us took an evident pleasure in conducting us through the Institution, and hearing the remarks of admiration which fell from our lips. Indeed, who could fail to admire the providential goodness of God, in bringing so much good out of so much temporal calamity as the late famine! Who could abstain from the liveliest expression of gratitude, at the sight of 164 happy boys—born Heathens and Mahomedans, but now Christians—without caste, or any of its cruelties—with no friends, but Christian Teachers and Benefactors—with no home, but their Christian Asylum—separated from the pernicious influence of Heathen example—preserved from the corrupting effect of gross morals—their tender minds guarded from the easy entrance of the elements of superstition and the false notions of moral truth—in fact, every channel of Heathen association cut off, and every inlet to light and sound Christian principles laid open! We proceeded from the Boys' to the Girls' department, which owes its origin to the Ladies of the Station. Several girls of the 120 were pointed out to me as bright examples of what the others might become.

Mr. Moore told me a very pleasing story of one Boy, a little older than the generality of his companions. Before the famine swept the country with its awful desolations, this Boy, as the native custom is, had been betrothed to a young Girl by his parents. The Boy and the Girl were both saved from death by the Relief Society: but the Boy, becoming an orphan, fell into the hands of the benevolent friends who established the Orphan Institution, while the Girl returned to her village with her friends. The Boy, learning that his espoused wife was still alive, entreated that SHE also might have the advantages of Christian Instruction, and that they might afterward be allowed to marry. The Girl was placed in the Girls' Asylum, with the consent of her friends—was baptized, and trained up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord—and is now living, the happy wife with her happy husband.

Native-Christian Village.

There was one object which engaged our attention, more interesting than all the sculptured tombs, however well calculated they were for suggesting solemn thoughts and reflections upon the past: and this was, the Native Christian Village, which is springing up around the Boys' Asylum. It is at present only in its infancy: yet there is enough to give the most encouraging hope of its gradual growth, as the efficiency of the Mission increases, and the Orphans come to years of maturity. The village is to be laid out in four wide streets, leading respectively to the four sides of the Boys' Asylum; which will thus stand in the centre, as a School of Instruction for the children of the Christian Community. Already one street is begun; and six married couples occupy the houses: two of these are from the Institution; the other four from the Kuttra.—I believe one of the two is the couple whose history I have given above.

Confirmation held at Secundra.

On the 2d of December, the Bishop held a Confirmation at Secundra; when about sixty of the Orphans, male and female, took upon themselves the vows made for them by their god-parents in their baptism.

Foundation of a Church.

I think I have now told you all which I have to say; with the exception of one thing, which will serve to crown the whole. On the morning of the Confirmation, the Bishop laid the foundation-stone of a small church, which is now being erected, for the use of the Orphans and the Native Christians, between the Male and Female Asylums.

We shall now have a complete establishment at Secundra. Let us with bended knees offer up our fervent prayers, that God may be glorified in this Mission—that the Holy Spirit may be given to those who teach and those who learn, according to their various circumstances —and that the Name of the Saviour may be sounded out far and wide from this favoured spot.

KURNAUL.

The Station of Kurnaul, where a Native Clergyman, the Rev. Anund Messeeh, has been hitherto labouring, has been relinquished during the past year; and Anund Messeeh has been stationed at Agra, with the understanding that during the cold season he will itinerate among the neighbouring towns and villages, for the purpose of declaring the Gospel to his brethren,—a work for which he seems peculiarly fitted.

MEERUT.

The Rev. R. Richards still continues to labour at Meerut, where we trust the Lord's work is advancing. The number of baptisms which have taken place during the last year is seventeen: of these, seven were adults. Six marriages have been solemnized, and four individuals removed by death. Three thousand Tracts, and sixty copies of the word of God, have been distributed among the benighted Heathen in the neighbourhood.

There seems to be an increasing respect and attention paid to the Gospel of Christ in this Station. On this point the Missionary writes:—

. I have obtained so much favour in the sight of the Natives of Meerut, that they now invite me to their most private apartments, and willingly listen, with their wives, to the preaching of the word of God. I am happy to say that their prejudices are decreasing daily: indeed, there is a wonderful change in their manners. May the Lord hasten the time when this people shall be turned unto Him!*

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

Mission Establishment:

COMMENCED 1814.

1 Lay Assistant Secretary.	3 European Catechists and Teachers.
19 European Missionaries.	465 Native Catechists and Teachers
2 Native Missionaries.	of all classes.
1 Indo-British Missionary.

Return of the Rev. J. Tucker.

The Rev. J. Tucker left Madras, on account of ill health, on the 26th of February 1840; and reached England on the 4th of June.

During his stay in this country he has been diligently occupied in endeavouring to procure additional Labourers for the South-India Mission.

Death of the Rev. S. Ridsdale, and of the Rev. Thomas Norton.

It has pleased Almighty God, in the course of the past year, to take unto Himself the souls of these two faithful Brethren. Mr. Norton was the first Presbyter of the Church of England who went out to India; where he laboured for 25 years, and then fell asleep in the Lord. Mr. Ridsdale had for 13 years been abounding in the work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope, in the Lord. Indefatigable and zealous, speaking fluently the Portuguese and the Malayalim languages, Mr. Ridsdale was distinguished in most of the qualities which constitute a useful Missionary. He, through the mercy of God, raised up large congregations at Cochin; and, at the Day of Judgment, many doubtless will rise to call him blessed.

MADRAS.

This Station has been in a very weakened state. The Rev. J. J. H. Elouis has received the sanction of the Committee for a visit home; and there is now no European Minister to superintend this branch of the Mission.

Institution.

The Committee have lately received the Report of the Rev. J. H. Gray for the year 1840. Though the number of pupils is small, yet the progress of the Institution is very satisfactory. Mr. Gray writes, December 29, 1840:—

Another year of our noiseless course has passed away, in the pursuit of those studies by which our Students' minds are being enlarged; and they themselves prepared for the performance of the high and sacred functions of the Ministry. It has therefore again become my duty to report upon the state of the Institution. This I do with feelings somewhat chastened; yet with expectations even more sanguine than heretofore. I have noticed with peculiar pleasure, that as our Students grow in years, the prejudices of an early education and limited society are diminished; their spirit of affection toward one another, and toward us their instructors, increased; their minds expanded; and their interest in their future work deepened. Their aptness also to communicate instruction in the way most suitable to the Hindoo mind is such as to afford a good hope that, through the continued blessing of the Lord Jesus, and the teaching of His Holy Spirit, they shall be workmen that need not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth, and giving to each his portion of meat in due season. There are at present seven Students in the Institution.

During the earlier part of this year our trials were neither few nor light: during the latter part, our peace has flowed, I might almost say, as a river: we have enjoyed almost uninterrupted harmony. There has been the occasional, but only the occasional, exhibition of an ungoverned, a wayward, or proud temper. We have latterly been experiencing the benefits which, through God, have flowed from those severe and painful disappointments to which we were exposed in the commencement of the year. The voluntary withdrawal of one who, we had hoped, had in good earnest and Christian simplicity put his hand to the plough, called forth, on the part of his Brother Students, the exercise of much sympathy, brotherly love, and earnest intercession with God; and I am happy to be able to say that the effects have not yet disappeared. The development of unsubdued sin, which led to the painful excision of two from our body, has also tended, through God's mercy, to the general good, by increasing a spirit of watchfulness, and promoting self-examination. We have now, though a small, I trust a happy and united family; and if God spare us to commence the labours of another year, I fondly hope it will be with a solid foundation laid for future happiness, in a knowledge of each one's infirmities, a spirit of mutual forbearance, and the love of Christ shed abroad in every heart.

Native Education.

The need of enlarged measures for the education of the Natives of India is yearly becoming more apparent. Without a Native Ministry the work of Evangelization cannot be carried on, on a scale at all commensurate with the wants of inquirers. European Ministers cannot be supplied in sufficient numbers; and, as in the case of Tinnevelly, the numerous converts require the constant pastoral superintendence of faithful Native Ministers, who know the character of the people, and speak their language. But in the existing state of the people of India, such a body of Ministers cannot be reasonably looked for, except through the medium of the Education of the Natives. And as God now works, not by miraculous gifts but by human instrumentality, the Committee have resolved to adopt all practicable measures from which a Native Ministry may reasonably be expected. Hitherto, at Madras, there has been no school for Natives of the higher class, in connexion with the Church Missionary Society. The Committee have therefore determined to add an Institution of this nature to those previously existing. This addition renders their educational establishments at Madras complete. They will henceforth have two Educational Establishments in Madras of their own, and another in close connexion with them. The Christian Institution is designed to train Youths of promise and piety for Ordination. Bishop Corrie's Grammar School, which is in close connexion with the Society, is chiefly designed to train up Country-born Boys; and the New School is for Native Youths of the higher classes. The last two are especially looked to, as the sources of supply for the Institution. The Committee are happy to add, that they have engaged the services of Mr. John Gunning Seymer, a Graduate of the University of Oxford, as Second Master of the proposed new School.

The Committee earnestly solicit the fervent prayer of the members of the Society, that the blessing of God, without whom nothing is strong or holy or wise, may abundantly rest on these, and their other educational establishments; that they may be schools of the Prophets; and that out of them may come forth a goodly company of Preachers of the glad tidings of the Gospel of peace to their countrymen.

MAYAVERAM.

This promising Missionary Station has suffered greatly in consequence of the repeated removal, by death, of the Missionaries who have laboured there: and the Rev. F. Rogers, who was temporarily stationed at Mayaveram in October 1839, has been obliged to return to this country in consequence of the failure of his health. Mr. Rogers thus described the decayed state of the Mission, Feb. 14, 1840—

> When we arrived, the state of the people, that is to say, of the Professing Christians—owing doubtless to their having been left so long without any European Missionary—seemed almost to justify one in inscribing Ichabod upon the doors of our Sanctuary. The deeply-seated and darling prejudices of the Natives present an awful barrier to their receiving the Gospel.

Yet, notwithstanding all that is discouraging, the two following facts, related by Mrs. Rogers, give reason to hope that the seed sown is not wholly lost:—

> Feb. 14, 1840 — A Missionary, who sometimes passes through Mayaveram, told me, a short time since, that while there was no other Missionary at this Station, he, when he visited the place, was in the habit of sending for the scholars of our two schools, and of examining them from Scripture. On one occasion, the passage of Scripture was, Pray always. The Missionary repeated the words "Pray always"; and asked, "Who is there here that prays always? Have I now one little boy before me who does so?" A little Brahmin Boy looked up, and said, "Yes, Sir, I do."—"Well, what do you say, when you pray?" "I always say, Sir, 'Lord Jesus, have mercy on me, and save my soul!' and this I do all day long; for I have bad fits, and think I shall soon die in one."—Two months after, the little Boy had an apoplectic fit, and died.

July 8, 1840—Being anxious to know whether the Christians maintained family prayer and secret prayer night and morning, I have lately begun an examination of them on this point. I have now nearly finished; and have been much gratified at the manner in which they have acquitted themselves. When it came to the turn of an aged blind woman to repeat her prayer—not being able in consequence of blindness to learn off a set form of prayer, she bent forward in a devotional attitude, and in very simple language, the substance of which is as follows, said, "O Lord, I am a poor beggar! teach me to pray; give me thy Holy Spirit to enlighten me. I am unworthy of thy mercy, but I ask, for Christ's sake, the pardon of my sins! preserve me and my family to-night," &c. I record this to show that some of our poor people possess and practise what is not very common among Native Christians; viz. serious reflection, and the making known of their wants in the simplest form of speech; which encourages me to hope that those who use it are sincere.

Mr. Taylor has been appointed to this Station, by the Madras Corresponding Committee, as a Catechist. He has entered on his labours in a cheerful spirit. And it is encouraging to know, that in a spot which has so long been wholly entrusted to Native Catechists, there are some Baptized Converts, and even fifteen Communicants; while the Schools number nearly 300 Children.

It is proposed that the Rev. W. T. Humphrey should, on his arrival, take charge of Mayaveram.

TINNEVELLY.

With deep thankfulness to Almighty God, your Committee report that Tinnevelly is presenting a very promising appearance. In no single district, where the Missionaries of this Society are labouring, has so much been done toward the formation of a Christian Church. Your Committee would indeed remind you, that this is the time for laying the foundation, and that it is needful to wait with patience for the completion of the spiritual temple. Yet, if Committees, and Missionaries, and their supporters, remember that it is not by might nor by wisdom, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord, they ought not to doubt about the successful termination of their labours in Tinnevelly. Prayer will prevail; and the headstone will be brought forth with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it. The Bishop of Madras has lately visited Tinnevelly; and though, owing to his Lordship's lamented weakness of health, no detailed account of his proceedings has been received, yet the Committee have learned that the Bishop has expressed his great satisfaction at all which he witnessed there. And indeed, after making all due allowance for the weakness of infant Converts, and Communicants, and Catechists, which is in some cases extreme, yet the facts of the case plainly prove that the Lord's work is being steadily carried on there. In February 1840, there were Christians residing in 274 villages; there were 167 Catechists and Assistant Catechists; there were 124 Churches, and 48 Prayer-houses; there were baptized, Adults 2236, Children 1241; there were 8513 Inquirers; the Communicants were, men, 369, women 259, total 628; and in 153 Schools there were 4290 boys, and 425 girls. The whole of the returns for the year 1840 have not been received; but in those which have reached this country there is a considerable increase. And now, after making every allowance that justice to the character of your Missionaries will possibly allow, the Committee cannot but see in these facts grounds for humbly rejoicing, and they believe that they would be falling short of their duty, if they did not call upon the Members of the Society to praise the Name of the Lord for His work among the Heathen at Tinnevelly. The Committee select one single illustration of the progress that is being made in the Tinnevelly District. On March 8, 1839, John, the Catechist of Sevel, died: the following is the account of the last moments of his life. In answer to a question that was put to him by another Catechist, he replied—

"The Lord is preparing me for His Kingdom. My precious Saviour has undertaken for my sins, and He will grant me salvation. I do firmly believe that He will do all this for me. Has He forsaken any who have trusted in His refuge? No, no."—So saying, he became insensible for some time; and then awoke as from sleep, and addressed the Catechist, saying, "Prayer must be offered: the Lord's Day is approaching, and Divine Service must be performed in the Church: I am not able to do it, and there is nobody here to undertake it for me." The Catechist replied, "Our Minister has appointed Mootooswamy Pilly, and sent him to assist you. He is to remain here, and to attend to your congregation till you are better."—"Where is he?" inquired he, with a degree of earnestness. "He is here," was the reply: "this is the Catechist."—John looked at Mootooswamy, and said, "Very good: all is right then." This was the last sentence he uttered: he was heard to speak no more. The frequent inquiries which he had made about a Catechist having been sent or not, evinced that the care of his congregation was uppermost in his heart; and it would appear that his spirit was unwilling to quit its abode, till he had seen one placed in his stead.*

Some months after his death, the following remarkable events occurred at Sevel. The Rev. E. Dent writes:—

At Sevel, the Gospel has triumphed in a public manner over Heathenism. Sevel is a large populous village, resembling a town, in which there are some thousands of Heathen and Mahomedans of all classes. We have had a few families here, of the Shanar Tribe, under instruction for several years; among whom, John, the late Catechist, laboured with diligence and faithfulness: but he was not permitted to see the fruit of his labours, and the overthrow of Idol Worship in the village, among that class of people. During the year, all the Shanar Tribe—with three exceptions only—joined the Congregation; and they then agreed among themselves to demolish their Peicoil (Devil temple), and to convert it into a Place of Worship. Soon after, I visited the village, and the people informed me of their intention. I rejoiced exceedingly that they had come to this determination; and encouraged them, by citing a few passages of Scripture relating to the destruction of Idolatry. They asked me to come to the spot; which I did, in order to witness the spectacle. The most forward among our people entered the temple first; and one of them, with an axe in his hand, and with this sentence, "O Christ help!" in his mouth, gave the chief idol a blow, and severed the head from the body: then came others, and threw down the idols and altars that were therein, demolished the inner courts and walls, and levelled them all to the ground. The idols, broken to pieces, they threw out for public exhibition; saying, "Such are the gods we have ignorantly worshipped and believed all this time! They cannot help themselves—how can they help us?" There was a great crowd of spectators collected at the place. The Heathen of the village were quite angry at this outrage and injustice, as they termed it; and would have attempted to recover the gods; but my presence tended considerably to still them. They cried out, "O ye fools, ye madmen, what have ye been doing? Have ye cut down and destroyed the tutelar gods and goddesses of your village? Be sure, that you and your families will ere long be visited! Ammon will revenge herself upon you all shortly." Our people replied, "These are sand and clay, made by our own hands: they can never do us any injury! The Lord Jesus alone is God: Him we all worship, and He will protect us."

Seminary.

This Institution is intended to train the children of the Tinnevelly Converts, who appear to be promising. It was for a long time without the superintendence of a European; yet in June 1839, the Missionaries thus reported of it:—

Notwithstanding the destitute state of the Seminary, it was gratifying to have the testimony of those who attended the recent half-yearly Examination, to the fact, that the Boys had not lost ground, but had made better progress in their learning than could reasonably have been expected. In English Reading, Geography, and Scripture Knowledge, they acquitted themselves creditably. In the last Report, we had to mention the transfer of three Boys of promising character to Bishop Corrie's Grammar School in Madras: and we are happy to add now, that two other Boys, whose abilities and character were satisfactory, were sent to Madras in February last, and have likewise been admitted into that School. Another of the elder Boys, who has been several years in the Seminary, has become an Assistant Teacher in the School, and gives much satisfaction, by his good conduct and diligence.

The Rev. S. Hobbs has subsequently been appointed to the Seminary, and in July last gave an encouraging account of it. He thus writes, July 20, 1840:—

I am glad to be able to give a better report of the Seminary than my former Letter contained. We unexpectedly received an application from a young man, named Sarkunen, who had formerly been in connexion with it, either as a pupil or a teacher, and who is in every way qualified to take a leading part in its duties. He was educated in Ceylon, is a thorough proficient in English, and possesses very superior abilities. Our Examination, which took place at the beginning of the month, evinces the improvement which the Boys have already made under his superintendence. Still, it is much to be wished that an European were permanently appointed, to preside over so important an Institution.

This brief account of Sarkunen is the more interesting, because it shows how one Mission acts upon another; and how a Youth trained in the Tamul Schools at Jaffna passes over to the Continent of India, to make use of the knowledge which he had gained among the large masses of the Tamul population of Tinnevelly.

TRAVANCORE.

COTTAYAM.

The Rev. J. Chapman, assisted by Mr. J. Johnson, has now undertaken the charge of the College. The Rev. B. Bailey resides in the Cottayam-Village District; and the Rev. H. Baker superintends the Cottayam District.

The long-pending question concerning the College Property has at last been happily settled, by the decision of three Commissioners who were appointed for that purpose: and there is now a prospect that the labours of the Students, under the care of the Rev. J. Chapman, may henceforth be carried on undisturbed by the vexations which formerly arose out of the circumstances connected with the unsettled state of this question.

Distribution of the Scriptures and Religious Books.

On this subject, Mr. Baker remarks—

Portions of the Scriptures have been distributed, where it was found that those who applied for them could read; and Religious Tracts more freely. The Books of Moses are in greatest request, as having but lately issued from the press. A number of applications from the Romish Clergy for the Syriac Scriptures have been attended to. But the greatest demand has been for a Poem, written by a Native formerly belonging to this Mission, and who was afterward baptized at Calicut by the name of Joseph Fenn, by Archdeacon Robinson. It is an exposure of the absurdities of the Hindoo Religion, and of the insufficiency of the Jewish and Mahomedan Religions for salvation; and shows the suitableness of that of Christ to the wants of man. Being written after the manner of the native books, it is very acceptable, and I hope will be found very useful. Copies of the Liturgy are often requested. An instance lately occurred of a copy having been blessed to an individual to whom I gave it several years ago. An aged but respectable-looking man called at my house one morning, with the identical copy in his hand; and said that he had long wished for an opportunity to see me, as it was from me that he had the book, on occasion of one of my visits to his neighbourhood. The book in his hand had evidently been much read, throughout; and during my conversation with him afterward, I found that he had well studied it, and that it had, through grace, become a treasure to him.

Syrian College.

Mr. Johnson, in a Letter dated July 18, 1840, gives the following satisfactory account of the Syrian College:—

The total number of Boarders is sixty-five; twenty of whom, including four Deacons, and a Brahmin, who is a Day-scholar, are in the upper branch of the College. Besides these, in the lower branch of the College, there are eight Day-boys; two of whom are Brahmins, the others Syrians. I am happy to be able to add, that both the conduct and advancement of the lads has given me much satisfaction.

The Bishop of Madras paid a visit to Cottayam in the autumn of last year: while there, he was the guest of the Missionaries. He was much pleased with the state of the College, under the care of the Rev. J. Chapman; and thus writes to the Rev. J. Tucker:—

I would earnestly entreat you to commend the Cottayam College to the Society's most favourable consideration: for my own part, I look upon it as a future nursery of civilisation, upon the purest principles of Gospel Truth: and so long as it is conducted on the present system, it shall always command such support and assistance as I am able to offer.

MAVELICARE.

It was stated in the last Report, that a Church had been built in this place, by the exertions of the Rev. J. Peet. Mr.

Peet represents, that he is placed in the midst of great difficulties; but he was nevertheless able to give a very satisfactory account of the result of his labours. He writes—

Blessed be the holy name of God, that, in the midst of this unhopeful state of things, there have not been wanting signs of good! Besides my own congregation, there are usually from two to fifty or more persons, inhabitants of Mavelicare, standing about the doors and windows of my church on the Lord's Day, listening attentively to the preaching of the word of our salvation. No one of the people who have joined me has fallen away, or, as far I know, disgraced his new and holy profession.

Mr. Peet, on Jan. 28, 1841, states:—

I have neither time nor health at present to report progress of this Mission, further than to say, that though, by God's good help, the open opposition of my neighbours has somewhat ceased, secret enmity is very virulent; and attempts are made to seduce my people. There is nothing surprising in this: it will, in the end, redound more to the glory of God, if all my little flock here remain stedfast, as they are at present. My Changanoor congregation is increasing. My Mullappalli people still stand fast; and the church is building, with the 300 rupees granted by the Committee. Seventy-six of my people, from all parts of the Mission, were confirmed by the Bishop; and had his Lordship gone to Mullappalli, there would have been thirty or forty more. The whole of these, with the rest of my people, are under constant Christian instruction; and of many of them, I can conscientiously say, I trust and believe that they are walking in the narrow way that leadeth unto life.

Encouraging Appearances.

Mr. Peet records many interesting particulars, showing the hopeful state of Mavelicare and the surrounding District:—

The Syrian Church is encumbered with more feasts and other great days than even the Church of Rome; on some of which occasions, a temporary portico—if it deserve the name—is erected at the front of every house; and the priests, accompanied by the chief men of the church, with music and banners, and carrying with them an image, usually of the Virgin Mother, go in procession through the village; and entering the portico of each house, one of the inmates comes out, and, meeting the image with every mark of devotion, kisses it, and deposits money in a vessel carried by a priest for that purpose. A procession of this kind took place the other day at Mavelicare: on which occasion, one of my people, living in the village, erected a portico, as usual, and at the entrance of it stuck up a copy of the Ten Commandments in a large Malayalim Character, so that no one could pass by without seeing it. When the procession arrived, the priests glanced at the Commandments, turned their backs, and passed on: some of the people blasphemed, and followed the procession; but a large number stopped, admired, and, after some discussion, gave an attentive ear to an exposition of the word of life.

Another cause for thankfulness and encouragement, is the certain fact, that among the reflecting part of the people, both Heathen and Syrian, there is an opinion that the Gospel which we preach is true, and that it will finally prevail. The other day, a most respectable and very rich man asked one of my people to whom he now belonged. On being answered that the man had united with me, "You are quite right," was the rejoinder: "never leave him; for his religion is true, and will at last assuredly conquer."

My work is chiefly among the higher classes; and I require that every outward vestige of Heathenism be put away, when they enter into the Christian Church. Before baptism, the kudumby, or tuft of hair, must be removed; and on the day when that sacred rite is administered, the convert must eat with my people. These are hard requisitions for high-born Natives; and not the least among the outward proofs of sincerity, as such acts necessarily exclude from home and caste. On these terms, I have, at present, one family of property and name in the catechumenical class.

But if there be such hopeful signs in Mavelicare, in the surrounding districts there are still greater. Besides the church at Mullappalli, in one or two places the people are in the habit of meeting together every Lord's Day to hear the Scripture read and expounded by my people, assisted by some of the better informed among themselves. One family living four or five miles east of this, who have joined my church, and whose children I have baptized, come to church nearly every Lord's Day, walking all the way, through a soft sandy soil and disagreeable country. A respectable man residing about seven miles south of this, attends my church occasionally; and assures me, to the truth of which unexceptionable witnesses bear testimony, that he neither labours himself, nor allows his servants, who are many, to work on the Lord's Day.

Confirmations.

The Committee have also learned, that the Bishop visited several of the Mission Churches in the neighbourhood of Cottayam, and held Confirmations in them. He also held a Confirmation in the Chapel attached to the Syrian College, when he confirmed eighteen Syrian Youths.

COCHIN.

The Rev. H. Harley has been diligently pursuing his labours at this Station. He thus reports, June 30, 1840:—

With regard to the Congregation at Cochin, I believe it to be in a healthy state. The number of souls continues the same as before; and as the greater part live within the compound, they are taught a Catechism every evening by the Catechist, who keeps a daily report of the persons who attend.

There is also a Seminary, containing sixteen Students, and nine schools: one of which is for the Black Jews of Cochin. Mr. Harley reports, in general, favourably of these schools.

Baptism of a Brahmin Family.

Mr. Harley also gives an account of the baptism of a family of Nambouri Brahmins:—

On Lord's Day last, June 28th, I baptized Shangaren, the Nambouri Brahmin, his wife, and four children. They have been under instruction exactly ten months, and have profitably improved the opportunity for deriving spiritual profit to their souls. The Brahmin I baptized by the name of Simeon; and his wife by the name of Anna. His age is 55, his wife's age 35, and that of his eldest son 15. I believe them to be quite sincere in their profession, and there is every reason to hope that they will be good and fruitful Christians. There was a solemnity and seriousness in their countenances, befitting the solemn occasion; and I trust that they have indeed become partakers of the Holy Ghost. The Lord be praised for His mercy, in having brought them from serving idols, to serve the true and only God, and to know Jesus Christ as their Saviour and Redeemer!

The Brahmin told me of a remarkable custom prevalent among them; and as he was himself one of the initiated, he can vouch for the truth of it. It would appear, that when any of their number is on the point of death, a Nambouri Brahmin whispers in his ears, that he must believe in the fourth religion, by which they mean the Christian Religion. This is a remarkable fact, and tends to show how little faith they can have in their own heathen system.

ALLEPIE.

In consequence of the lamented death of the Rev. T. Norton, and of other difficulties which have arisen in the Mission, the Rev. J. Hawksworth has been greatly over-burdened on his first entrance on his duties at Allepie. He has not been able to send a regular report, but the general account which he gives is satisfactory.

TELOOGOO MISSION.

The number of Hindoos who speak the Teloogoo Language amounts to ten millions: so that the entire population far exceeds the Tamul, or any other people in South India. A considerable part of the country inhabited by this people is one of the oldest of our territorial possessions, having been peaceably obtained by a grant from the Mogul in 1765; and it has remained in a state of almost uninterrupted peace to this day. The people themselves are acknowledged, by all who know them, to be naturally one of the most interesting and hopeful of the different classes in South India, possessing a greater manliness and independence of character, strong natural affections, and less of deceit and dishonesty than most of their fellow-countrymen. And yet it is remarkable, that no Clergyman of the Church of England has ever been known to preach to any of these ten millions in their own tongue. The English residents in the country have long made great efforts to commence a Mission among this interesting people, and thus to remove this grievous reproach from our own Church. And the Committee are now thankful to be able to state, that they have commenced this Mission under most favourable circumstances. Two Graduates, one of the University of Oxford, the other of the University of Cambridge, offered themselves for this particular service. They were gladly accepted, and have gone forth into this wide field. May the prayers of the Members of the Society, and the consequent blessing of Almighty God, continually attend their labours!*

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1820.

Mission Establishment:

6 European Missionaries.
2 European Teachers.
14 Native & Country-born Schoolmasters and Assistants.

This Mission consists of two Stations, Bombay and Nassuck: its present condition is encouraging and hopeful.

BOMBAY.

It was stated in the last Report, that the Committee had made preparations for the commencement of an Educational Establishment, to be called the "Money Institution." Those preparations are now completed, and commodious and suitable premises for it have been purchased by the Society. This Institution is under the charge of the Rev. G. M. Valentine and the Rev. J. S. S. Robertson. Mr. Robertson was removed to Nassuck for a considerable part of the last year; and the duties of the Mission at Bombay devolved on Mr.

Valentine during this period. Mr. Valentine has made efforts to act upon the plan suggested by the Committee, and to establish a friendly intercourse with some of the higher classes of the Natives.

First-fruits of the Mission.

Two persons—one woman and one man—have publicly joined the Church of our Lord at Bombay. Of the man, Mr. Valentine writes, September 30, 1840 :—

He continues to reside at Bombay; and walks, we hope, consistently with his profession. He attends our Mahratta Service on the Lord's-Day afternoons, and occasionally on other days. He has applied to be admitted to the Lord's Supper; and I hope that at the next celebration of it, at Trinity Chapel, he will be a partaker. I have arranged with the Rev. G. Candy, Missionary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, that, till the Lord shall be pleased to raise up a Native Church in connexion with the Church Mission in Bombay, such individuals as I may be enabled to bring into the fold shall be received into communion at his Chapel.

Schools.

Throughout India, the preparatory work of the Gospel has been the education of the Young. On this head Mr. Valentine reports favourably. The number of boys, indeed, attending the "Money Institution" is not so great as was reported last year; but the diminution has been owing to the excitement occasioned by the baptism of the Parsee Youths; and, although this for a time considerably reduced the numbers attending the school, the simple fact, that, notwithstanding the fierce opposition stirred up among the Natives by these baptisms, the attendance is again on the increase, shows how high a value many of the Natives attach to the education there furnished to their children. Mr. Valentine reports, September 1840 :—

During the last quarter we have had in our Schools, on an average, about 580 children. This includes the Money School, where the average daily attendance has been from thirty to forty since the time of the excitement about the Parsee Converts; but the number is beginning slowly to increase. These children may be classed as follows :—Roman Catholics, 14; Hindoos, 502; Mahomedans, 18; Parsees, 6; Beni Israel, or Black Jews, 40—Total 580.

Of these, about 67 are Girls, who are all Hindoos; with one solitary exception—an orphan of Native Christians at Cochin, whom we rescued from misery and ruin.

Mr. Valentine mentions, that the Bishop and Mrs. Carr attended one of the Examinations of the Girls' School in July last. He adds, that Mrs. Carr, who is herself studying Mahratta, appeared deeply interested in them.

Ordination of Mr. Robertson.

Mr. J. S. S. Robertson has, during the past year, been admitted to Deacons' Orders, by the Bishop of Bombay.

NASSUCK.

General View.

The labours at this Station continue the same as those enumerated in the last Report. The duties of the Ministry are carried on without intermission. The Natives have daily opportunities of attending the Services of our Church, and the Word of the Lord is frequently preached unto them. The Rev. J. Dixon is laboriously employed in Mahratta Translations. The schools have been carefully attended to, and the progress of the children is very satisfactory. Mrs. Stone, who had the charge of the Mahratta Girls' Schools, gives many pleasing accounts of the change which Scriptural Instruction is producing among them.

Mrs. Stone writes, in her Journal, that many of the Girls had formed the habit of reading to their parents:—

Feb. 5, 1840—I inquired of the girls in the First Class of the Mahratta School, whether they had read the books which I gave them to take home. They said, "Yes; and we have read them to our parents, friends, and neighbours; who said they wanted to know what our Madam's religion was. We read every evening to them; and they are all very much interested in hearing us; so much so, that many of them have solicited books from us, saying, that they had sons who could read, and they wanted Mahratta books for them." I said, "Your parents and friends know very little about Jesus Christ, the only Saviour of sinners, and about worshipping the one only unseen God, except what you tell them and read to them: as you have learned and read much about this in school, you should instruct your parents at home, who never have an opportunity of going to school." They replied, "We do tell them about the Christian Religion." Many of the girls said their parents thought it was very right and good to worship only one God: they themselves all said that they did not worship idols. Whether their profession be true or not, it shows that they know it to be wrong to worship idols. I asked them if they would like to have me visit them at their houses; when they all, with one voice, said, "Yes, it would give us great pleasure to have you come to our houses."

Mrs. Stone also describes a visit which she paid to a Brahmin, who was teaching his young wife, and some other Brahminees, to read. This fact is important; since it shows how the silent influence of the example of education creates the desire for the same instruction in the minds of others. These were the first Brahmin women who had learned to read, in Nassuck.

June 11, 1840—I called on a Brahmin, who is teaching his wife, and a few other Brahminees. These are the first Brahminees who have been induced to learn to read in Nassuck. I hope it is the commencement of better times to them. She has commenced reading easy lessons; though she was so abashed before me, as scarcely to tell her letters.

Mrs. Stone also mentions the death of a Mahratta Girl; and though it be impossible for us to determine as to her state, under the circumstances described, yet what Christian, who knows that there is no other Name given under heaven, whereby men may be saved, but the Name of Christ, will think it a trifling matter that this poor heathen girl had been taught to call upon that name in the hour of death.

March 22, 1840—Zonny, one of the native girls in the Boarding-school, died last evening, of the small-pox, after an illness of nine days; and was buried this morning at eight o'clock. Owing to the nature of the disease, she was able to converse but very little during her illness, so that I was unable to ascertain, so fully as I desired, what her religious views were in the prospect of death. But, from the little she could say, in connexion with her previous conduct, I have reason to hope that she has gone to be with Jesus, whom she said she loved, and in whom alone she trusted for salvation.

Circumstances have occurred, which have rendered it necessary for the Corresponding Committee to dissolve their connexion with Mr. Stone. But, at the same time, the Committee recorded their grateful sense of the value of the services of Mrs. Stone.

Candidates for Baptism.

God has been pleased, ordinarily, to allow Missions in modern times to be carried on for many years without much fruit; in some cases, without any. He thus tries the faith of His servants. But ultimately He rewards the faithful Missionaries, who have planted and watered, by giving the increase. In this point of view, the following communication is interesting, and is well calculated to encourage hope, and call forth prayer. J. Vaupell, Esq. writes, December 2, 1840:—

We are thankful to say, that two Brahmin Youths in connexion with the Nassuck School have applied for baptism. They are at present under probationary trial, by direction of the Lord Bishop; and, as their conduct has been consistent with their profession, though most severely tried by persecution, every hope exists of their proving worthy members of our Holy Apostolic Church, and useful and devoted Servants in their Master's cause. Attempts were made to poison them at Nassuck, by administering some deleterious substance in their food; the fatal consequences of which, by timely medical aid, were providentially averted. The Rev. J. S. S. Robertson, and all the Christian Society, recommended their removal to Bombay; where they are now domiciliated with the Rev. G. M. Valentine. May they have the benefit of your prayers at a Throne of Grace!

India Idolatry Question.

The Committee have watched with deep interest the progress of measures for dissolving the connexion of the British Government with the Idolatrous and Mahomedan systems of India. Before the opening of the present Session of Parliament, the Committee had taken measures to petition both Houses for the immediate fulfilment of the solemn pledges previously given by Her Majesty's Ministers to terminate this unhallowed connexion. Shortly after the meeting of Parliament, renewed assurances were given by the Government that this hindrance to the labours of Christian Missionaries should be removed. A very satisfactory Despatch has since been transmitted to India, strongly censuring the Governor of Madras for the delays permitted in that Presidency in the execution of the orders on the subject sent out from home, and urging the adoption of measures for discontinuing the interference of the Company's servants in the management of the Temples and Ceremonies of the Natives. The instructions are, however, imperfect; and much yet remains to be attained. The Committee will not cease to labour in this righteous cause, in concurrence with other Christian Societies and friends, for the purpose of completing the abolition of a state of things at once so gratuitous and reprehensible.*

---

* While this Report is passing through the Press, another very satisfactory Despatch has been laid before Parliament by Sir J. C. Hobhouse, on the subject of Salutes, and the attendance of the Military on Religious Ceremonies.

CEYLON MISSION.

COMMENCED 1818.

Mission Establishment:

9 European Missionaries.	143 Native Catechists and Teachers of all Classes.
2 Native Missionaries.
1 Lay Agent.

More probably has been effected in this island, in the way of preparation for the general diffusion of the Gospel, than in any part of India. It is true, that, up to the present time, the amount of actual conversion is not large; but the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. And God is already beginning to vouchsafe an increase. The Rev. Joseph Bailey states, August 27, 1840:—

> During the past two years, there has been an increase of 39 Labourers; 29 Stated Congregations; 1542 additional Hearers; 36 Schools; and 906 Children.

COTTA.

State of the Institution.

This valuable Institution is now under the superintendence of the Rev. J. F. Haslam. It has been in operation more than twelve years. It now contains 25 Students: and all who have had an opportunity of making themselves acquainted with the improvement made by the Students, have spoken in the highest terms of its efficiency and value. It was stated in the last Report, that the Bishop of Madras examined the Students at the close of the year 1839, and expressed in strong terms his satisfaction. The Rev. J. T. Johnston, who reached Ceylon in November last, thus writes:—

> The Christian Institution is an admirable one: and as I had the opportunity of examining the Youths, I can speak confidently of them, as well trained. The knowledge of Scripture which they possess, and their attainments in the various branches of education in which they have been instructed, is highly creditable.

Native Deacons.

God has been pleased to vouchsafe a peculiar honour to this Institution. It is the first of the Society's numerous educational establishments which has trained up Ministers for our Church. Two of the Youths who were educated in it, after a probation as Catechists, have been admitted to Deacons' Orders in our own Church, by the Bishop of Madras. Thus Cotta has sent forth the first-fruits of a Native Ministry; to be followed, it may be hoped, by a numerous company of the Preachers of the Gospel, from each of the Society's Missions throughout the world. The Committee are thankful to learn, that both these young Ministers are using the office of a Deacon well, and are purchasing to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Of one of them, the Rev. Cornelius Jayasinhe, who is stationed at Cotta, the Rev. J. Bailey reports, that his services, as an Assistant Missionary, are very valuable to the Brethren there.

Of the other, the Rev. A. Goonesekera, who is stationed at Baddagame, the Rev. H. Powell thus writes, Oct. 13, 1840:—

I must not omit to mention the Rev. Abraham Goonesekera, my Native Clerical Assistant. He is a valuable fellow-helper. His heart is evidently engaged with us. His preaching, too, is very animated and energetic, and his sentiments and expressions sometimes very awakening; which is just what we want here. I sometimes wish you could see him in the pulpit, with a large congregation before him: it would do your heart good. He moreover enforces his preaching by his example; and his influence is being sensibly felt among us.

KANDY.

The Rev. W. Oakley is zealously and laboriously engaged at this Station; and the Congregations and Schools are improving under his care. The Rev. C. Greenwood is on his way to join him in his labours.

BADDAGAME.

The present hopeful condition of this Station strikingly exemplifies the great advantages which may be looked for, when at each Missionary Station the European Minister is assisted by his Native Curate. In the existing state of national character in the East, this is probably the most beneficial manner in which a Native Ministry can be employed.

Congregations.

There has been a marked improvement at Baddagame. The Rev. H. Powell writes, in August 1840:—

Our Lord's-Day Morning Congregation has lately been very pleasing. The church has been quite full; and the increase has been chiefly of adults. All kneel during the Prayers: all repeat the responses with a loud and reverential voice: and, in fact, the sight of the Congregation would, I am sure, make the hearts of some of our friends in England leap for joy, if they could witness it. The number present is frequently not less than 500. The communicants are slowly increasing.

The Rev. A. Goonesekera thus describes his first Lord's Day at Baddagame:—

April 5, 1840—This morning I had the happiness of preaching my first sermon in the church. My text was Mark xvi. 15, 16. The congregation was very attentive, and I believe they understood me very well. When the Service was over, we had to administer to some communicants the holy sacrament of the Lord's Supper. In this also I had the happiness of administering the cup. A Collection was made from the Communicants in behalf of the poor and distressed; and the sum amounted to Rds. 4. 4. 0, which is very satisfactory, considering the small number of Communicants, and the circumstances of many of them. This Collection is intended to be made once a month, every Sacramental Sunday; and the relief afforded to the poor from the funds thus realized, may tend to show the nature of the Christian Religion—that it makes men love one another, even the enemy and the poor; and brings them to show that love, not only by words, but also by deeds. In the evening, I had a conversation with one who attended the church, upon the subject of the sermon: he gave a pretty good account of it.

The following short extract is given from his sermon:—

What ought to be your duty concerning the glad tidings we preach? It ought to be this—as suggested by these words of our text, viz. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved—that you ought to receive our message, turn from your vanities, and believe in Jesus Christ. When God sends His Ministers, or Preachers of His Word, to any nation, the duty of that nation is this—that they ought to hear them, and believe and obey their doctrines, when given in unison with Sacred Writ. This is your duty, my friends, as relative to our message. What the Ministers teach is not their own doctrines, but what they learn from the Word of God. They deliver to you God's message: they preach to you what God puts into their hearts: therefore you ought to suppose that God speaks to you, through them, or by them. Receive the Sacred Word, which is able to make you wise unto salvation; and believe in Jesus Christ.

NELLORE.

This Station has been deprived of the very valuable labours of the Rev. J. Knight, who has been called to his Rest. The Rev. J. T. Johnston has, in consequence, joined the Rev. F. W. Taylor in the duties of this part of the Mission.

Tribute of Respect to the Memory of the Rev. J. Knight.

The Missionaries of North Ceylon, at a Special Meeting held January 8, 1841, adopted a Minute expressive of their affection and respect for the Rev. J. Knight, of which the following is an extract:—

The Members of this Meeting cannot by any lengthened eulogium express their high esteem of the eminently Missionary character of their deceased Brother. They deeply feel, and unfeignedly deplore, the loss of his judicious counsels, valued friendship, and important labours.

The Committee are thankful to be able to add, that the Annual Meeting of the Missionaries, in the autumn of last year, was characterized by the same spirit of harmony and brotherly love for which those Meetings in Ceylon have been remarkable: and they now confidently commend the Mission in this lovely island to the hopes and prayers of all the friends of the Society.

NEW-HOLLAND MISSION.

COMMENCED 1832.

Mission Establishment:

2 Missionaries. 1 Farmer.

The difficulties in relation to this Mission, which were referred to in the last Report, have increased during the past year; and the Committee deeply regret, that, in consequence of various hindrances, their prospects in Wellington Valley are not encouraging. This result is the more to be lamented, inasmuch as there is probably no race on the face of the earth which is so helpless and degraded as the Aborigines of New Holland; and there is certainly not one to which Great Britain owes a heavier debt of obligation, on account of the wanton injuries, and the cold-blooded cruelties, which they have experienced at the hands of the settlers and convicts.

NEW-ZEALAND MISSION.

COMMENCED 1814.

Mission Establishment:

8 Missionaries.	4 Artisans, and other Assistants.
1 Farmer.	2 Female Teachers.
1 Printer.	149 Native Teachers.
16 Catechists.

General View.

THERE is not, at present, any one Mission of the Society where the two opposing principles of good and evil are more directly arrayed against each other, than in New Zealand: and though the Mission has, within the last two years, been exposed to the most violent attacks, it has pleased Almighty God, during the same period, to extend its usefulness beyond all former precedent, and beyond the most sanguine expectations.

Land Question.

There is reason to expect that the question of the purchase of land by the Missionaries will shortly be brought to a termination. The Lord Bishop of Australia has exerted himself, with the greatest kindness, on behalf of the Society. He has pleaded the cause of the Missionaries' Children in the Legislative Council of New South-Wales; has borne the strongest testimony to their character; and has expressed his decided approbation of the measures which have been adopted by the Parent Committee.

Appointment of a Bishop for New Zealand.

A plan has been proposed by the Lord Bishop of London for the endowment of Colonial Bishoprics. Of the Sees which it is designed to erect, New Zealand comes among the foremost. And the Committee, on principle, and from a deep conviction of the necessity of the measure for their Missionaries in that island, have undertaken to aid largely in providing the endowment from the lands held by the Society in the island; and until those lands can be made available for the purpose, the Committee have engaged to contribute, toward the salary of the Bishop, an amount not exceeding 600*l.* per annum.

Colonization Proceedings.

It was stated in the last Report, that Captain Hobson had been despatched by Her Majesty's Government, to acquire the sovereignty of New Zealand. In the course of discharging this duty, Captain Hobson was assisted by the Missionaries:

and in a severe illness which subsequently attacked him, he was an inmate in the house of Mr. Davis, of Waimate.

Assumption of the Sovereignty of New Zealand.

After the Governor had assumed the sovereignty of both Islands, he wrote the following kind Letter to Mr. Davis:—

Testimony of Captain Hobson to the Services rendered to him by the Missionaries.

Government House, Russell, Bay of Islands, May 29, 1840.

Sir—The period having arrived for proclaiming the sovereign authority of Her Majesty over these Islands, it accords no less with my public duty, than it gratifies my personal feelings, to acknowledge, in the most ample manner, the efficient and valuable support which I have received from the resident Members of the Church Missionary Society, in carrying into effect with the Native Chiefs the views and objects of Her Majesty's Government.

As the official organ of that Body, I beg you will accept, and convey to every Member of the Mission in New Zealand, my cordial and hearty thanks for the very zealous and effective assistance which they have rendered me, in the execution of this duty.

The station which I have the honour to fill, may justify my recording, in this public manner, my thankful sense of the personal attention which I have received from the Gentlemen of the Mission: but especially may I indulge my feelings in expressing my gratitude to you, Sir, who so generously united, with your Lady and every member of your family, in administering to my comfort during my recent illness; — this, under God's mercy, mainly contributing to the restoration of my health.

Wishing you, and all your Fellow-labourers in the land, a long continuance of health and strength to pursue your holy avocations, I remain, &c.

(Signed) W. Hobson, Lieut.-Gov.

Appointment of Mr. G. Clarke to the Office of Protector of the Aborigines.

Captain Hobson has given a further proof of his confidence in the Missionaries, by appointing to the new and important office of "Protector of the Aborigines," Mr. George Clarke, who for sixteen years has efficiently discharged the duties of a Catechist in the New-Zealand Mission. The Committee, though they regretted the loss of Mr. Clarke's services in direct connexion with the Mission, yet, considering the important bearing which the new office, if administered on Christian principles, may exercise on the best interests of the Natives, have approved of Mr. Clarke's acceptance of the appointment.

Determination of H. M. Government to constitute New Zealand an Independent Colony.

Another very important measure has lately been determined on by Her Majesty's Government. They have made New Zealand an Independent Colony; and have appointed Captain Hobson Governor of the Islands of New Zealand.

The Committee now proceed to lay before the Society a brief view of the several Stations in New Zealand.

Northern District.

This consists of Six Stations — Tepuna; Kerikeri; Wangaroa; Paihía: Waimate; and Kaitaia.

TEPUNA.

Mr. J. King reports, December 31, 1839 :—

The Natives now more generally make a profession, and attend to the means of grace; many come forward to declare themselves on the Lord's side. Waikato* and his family have made a profession of Christianity: he attends Divine Service on Lord's Days, and encourages his neighbours to do the same. Our Place of Worship is generally filled at Lord's-Day Morning Service. The Candidates come twice a-week, to read and hear the Word of God, and to receive instruction in the truths and principles of the Gospel. An evident alteration has taken place for the better.

KERIKERI.

Mr. Kemp reports, Dec. 31, 1839 :—

On Lord's Days, I have attended to the Religious Instruction of the Natives at Kerikeri Station, Toheranui, and the Ti: the average attendance at each place is from fifty to sixty Natives. There seems to be an increasing desire among the Natives in connexion with this Station, for spiritual instruction.

WANGAROA.

Mr. J. Shepherd reports, December 31, 1839 :—

I have, when not prevented by rain, paid monthly visits to the Natives on the coast, as far as Matauri; and have received repeated visits from them, to obtain instruction, books, and slates. The Natives and Europeans in the District of Wangaroa I have also visited; and have received visits of a pleasing nature from the Natives. Our Congregations on the Lord's Day, including some from the Pupuke, from Kaio, and other places in the River, average from 150 to 200. We have had school with the Natives in and about the Settlement: and though we have not had regular schools at the different villages connected with the Station, for want of Teachers, yet I am happy to say that many are learning to read and write. I trust it is not too much to say that the great work is advancing, though the emissaries of Satan are increasing.

---

PAIHÍA.

Mr. Baker reports, Dec. 31, 1839:—

The attendance of the Natives on the means of grace has been regular, and more general, of late. There has also been a great desire manifested for Christian Instruction, and many books have been widely distributed.

WAIMATE.

The Rev. W. Williams reports, June 1839:—

The past year has been signalized by a gradual progress of the great work; and it is manifest that the hand of our God is with us. In most of the villages connected with the Waimate Station, there is a steady attendance on Public Worship: from which follows, as the necessary consequence, an increased seriousness among those who conform outwardly, and a growth in grace in those who have already made profession of the faith.

The Farm, under the charge of Mr. Davis, continues to yield a good return. Forty acres of wheat were reaped in January; and twelve acres have been laid down to grass; making a hundred acres of grass-land, of which eighty are fenced into paddocks. Twenty-five acres of wheat have been sown for the next season. The flock of sheep has increased to 183.

The Mill has been attended to principally by Mr. Davis, and has yielded a supply of 48,000 lb. of flour. A considerable quantity of wheat has also been ground for the Natives, the produce of their little farms.

The erection of the Church has proceeded steadily; and the building will soon be roofed in.

In concluding our Report for the year, we would express our joy and gratitude for the sure work which is in progress among the Natives.

KAITAIA.

Mr. J. Matthews reports, Dec. 31, 1839:—

I have visited the Natives in the district of Wangape, Oruru, Parapara, Parakerake, and Mount Carmel; and have found much to encourage me in my labours among the people of these places. The work of grace is still going on, and things around us wear a cheering aspect. We have been much encouraged, during the last half-year, by the admission of the principal Chiefs of Waro to the visible Church of Christ.

Report of the Press, by Mr. W. Colenso, for the Half-Year ending December 31, 1839.

During the last six months, I have been engaged as follows:—Printing Office: Compositing Small Prayer-Books, second edition, 36 pp. demy 12mo, and printing off 20,000 copies: printing off 6000 copies of sig. A to E of Large Prayer-Book: compositing Prospectus, Circular, and Placard for Victoria Institution, and printing 300 copies: compositing Primer (Pukapuka Wakaako), 24 pp. demy 20mo, and printing 10,000 copies: compositing Bishop's Address (Pukapuka Kauwau o te Pihopa), 4 pp. demy 12mo, and printing 4000 copies: compositing Scripture Questions (Kupu ui), 8 pp. demy 12mo, and printing 3000 copies. I have also been engaged in folding 500 copies of the New Testament for binding in Parts; in counting out and packing Testaments for the Colony; &c.

Southern District.

The war which has so long disturbed a portion of this district is not yet finally terminated: yet the latest reports from the Stations are encouraging.

HAURAKI.

Mr. W. T. Fairburn, who resides at Maraetai, thus reported of the Thames District, March 31, 1840:—

In taking a retrospect of the last twelve months, we find that we have much cause for gratitude, humility, and thankfulness. The Word of God is now read, more or less, in every Tribe in the Thames; and the only cause of regret is, that we have so few books to distribute among them. Schools have been established, conducted by Native Teachers, on both sides of the Thames; through which means the spread of the Gospel has been considerably advanced. The Female and Children's Schools at the native villages are conducted by Female Native Teachers. Forty-six have been baptized during the last year; viz. 27 men, 14 women, and 5 children. Many more are coming forward as Candidates, and the fallow-ground is breaking up around us.

MANUKAU AND WAIKATO.

The Rev. R. Maunsell thus reports of these promising Stations, March 31, 1840:—

Surely goodness and mercy have followed us! would the Missionaries of Manukau and Waikato thankfully exclaim, while taking a survey of the past year. On the commencement of it, we were engaged in establishing ourselves—Mr. Hamlin at Manukau Heads, and Messrs. Maunsell and Ashwell at the mouth of the Waikato. These two sites of our present labours have, we are thankful to report, answered our expectations: at each place, the Congregations are considerably larger, and our connexions with the adjoining district better maintained, than they were at the old Station. At Manukau, a place distant about twenty-five miles from Waikato, and where Mr. Hamlin continues to labour alone, the same encouraging features are presented as we have hitherto had to report. Knowledge increases; the Meetings are well attended; the baptized, with few exceptions, maintain a consistent walk; and a very great desire prevails for the Word of Life—a desire, we are sorry to add, that our present supplies are very inadequate to gratify.

At Waikato Heads, also, which is comparatively a new Station, there is much for which we desire to be thankful. That place, and the adjoining district, was attended to by us from Moetoa, as far as our circumstances would admit. It was not till June, however, that we were able to form a Station there, and to pay it the attention which it justly required.

Mr. Maunsell also, under date of July 22, 1840, gives the numbers of persons whom he had himself baptized:—

How many Natives have been baptized in the Mission during the thirty years of its formation, I cannot say; neither can I tell how many are on the books of my other Brethren, who have been many more years in the service than myself. Looking, however, over my own book, I find that during the last two years I have baptized 342 adults and 84 children, making a total of 426; and I am truly thankful to add, that those who have lapsed—none have apostatized—do not amount to more than ten altogether. To the Lord be the glory! May He only prosper the works of our hands upon us!

School Examination and Feast.

Mr. Maunsell also furnishes us, in a Letter dated March 30, 1840, with an account of the Examination of his Schools, and the Feast which followed it:—

Our Annual Examination of Schools has just taken place; and was concluded by the baptism of 100, and by 101 Communicants, from all parts of the district, partaking with us of the Lord's Supper.

The answering of the classes gave us all satisfaction. The first class, consisting of 38, was examined by Mr. Hamlin—who had kindly come to assist us—in Reading; and some very good answers were made to his questions. They then were examined in Writing, Ciphering, Scripture, and History: and, after all, a Recitation Class stood up, and repeated, fluently and accurately, two chapters from the Epistles. Four classes, amounting, with the first, to 300, were then examined on the same subjects; while Mr. Hamlin, in the mean time, examined in the open air a class of 450 in the Catechisms.

Then came the Feast, usual on such occasions;—not, indeed, so neat or so varied as you may see in England, but attended with no less ceremony, and highly interesting to the Europeans whom we had invited to be present. Twelve whole pigs, cooked in one hangi, and borne on sticks, were laid in the middle of the company: on either side were piled 100 baskets of potatoes, corn, and kumeras. A blessing was asked; and the attendants, with the Master of the Ceremonies, hastened, with hatchets and knives, to cut up the pigs into halves and quarters: and having shared out the baskets of kumera, &c. into parcels proportioned to the respective Tribes, crowned them with a quarter, or a half, or a whole pig, as either the number or rank of the parties required. All being ready, the distributor came forward, with his blanket wound tightly around his waist; and another, bearing a slate, read over the names of the chief men of the several families; while the distributor, with a huge stick, struck the respective heaps, and in a few minutes the whole vanished, as if by magic.

About 1500 had assembled. All was animation and cheerfulness; and even those who had come from four and five days' distance seemed to forget their fatigue in the general excitement.

TAURANGA.

The Rev. A. N. Brown reports of this Station, March 31, 1840:—

The Southern war has proved at times a barrier to the free progress of the Gospel; but fewer have fallen victims than during any preceding year: and we still cling to the hope, that, ere long, a cessation of hostilities will be forced upon the contending Tribes, from the inability of their leaders to raise so large a force as they were in the habit of raising before the spirit of inquiry which is now abroad had so widely spread throughout all classes of the Natives. Our Returns show an increase, under the heads of "Congregations" and "Schools," of more than double the number who attended last year; and the same observation will apply to those Natives in our Schools who are capable of reading the New Testament. The number of Baptisms during the year has been 65; viz. 40 adults, and 25 children. Sixteen of the Christian Natives are employed at our different outposts, as regular Teachers; and fifteen others have been engaged for three months in a Missionary Tour to Taupo and Cook's Straits. The avidity with which the New Testament is purchased by the Natives, and their attendance on the classes formed for reading and explaining the Scriptures, may also be ranked among our encouragements.

ROTORUA.

Of this Station, Mr. T. Chapman reports, March 31, 1840:—

The war is still prosecuted in this district, between Tauranga and Rotorua; and brings with it its accustomed hindrances. We find a desire, on the part of the young men in particular, for instruction; and there are but few places in this wide district at which there are not little Chapels and Sunday Schools: but these are not, in every instance, conducted with regularity, and there is but little increase in Scriptural Knowledge, or in the elementary part of learning. The demand for books and slates is very great. The Natives of Taupo are in an interesting state, so far as forming themselves willingly into School parties, meeting in their little Chapels on Lord's-days and week-days, holding Service, and keeping school.

Eastern District.

But the most wonderful work of all is that which has commenced in this new district; of which the Rev. W. Williams thus writes, September 23, 1840:—

The size of my parish is two degrees and a half. My present condition is solitary. Here I am therefore, holding on, not on the wreck, but on the spoil: and, by God's assistance, I will hold on, until you send the required help. Almost all the people are inquiring after the Truth, and asking for instruction: there are more than 8000 assembling regularly for Worship. I have with me three Chiefs from Ahuriri, in Hawks' Bay, waiting for books, and seeking for knowledge;—two of them, especially, sent by their fathers, for this purpose, the distance of 100 miles overland;—the third, a Candidate for Baptism, living here that he may be more fully instructed. At this place the people are erecting a large Church, 90 feet by 44, at their own expense; the posts of one side of which have been put up to-day. Upon this work several of the principal Chiefs have been employed for the last three months,—a substantial proof of their way of thinking.

The want of books is beginning to be seriously felt. I have just received NINE Testaments. Now, if they could be divided, like the five loaves among 5000, so that all should be filled, it would be well: but I am obliged to conceal them, till I have more; for there are so many now waiting to whom promises have been made, that I could not give any without causing great dissatisfaction.

Mr. Williams gives a highly interesting account of the first Lord's Day which he spent at Tauranga:—

Jan. 26, 1840: Lord's Day—Many strangers came last night, to spend the Lord's Day here; and this morning we had a congregation of at least 1000. Our Chapel was the open air; but the weather was favourable, and the extreme attention of this large body was a grateful commencement of our Missionary labours among this people. On the conclusion of Native Service, we had one in English, in our dwelling; at which ten Europeans, who are settlers in the neighbourhood, attended. At noon, the Natives were again assembled for School; when I counted two classes of men, with 70 in each, one of 50, one of 110, one of 150, and one of 50 boys. The women were in two classes; one of 150, and one of 12. The last, with one of the men's classes of 70, read in the Scriptures; the next merely repeated the Catechism—the whole class repeating the answer together. There is no order in these classes; but the object has in part been attained—that of teaching the Natives to repeat the Catechism, from which knowledge must be derived. The evening congregation was nearly as numerous as that in the morning.

Surely here we may apply Dr. Johnson's beautiful expression—

"And Paradise was open'd in the wild!"

Contrast between the Present and Past State of New Zealand.

The Rev. R. Maunsell, in a Letter of July 22, shows the beneficial results which have arisen from the labours of the Missionaries, by contrasting New Zealand as it is, with New Zealand as it was formerly:—

The fact is, that no one who has not resided among them in their primitive state can fairly estimate their present condition. Formerly, high fences were necessary, and locked doors: now, our doors are unlocked day and night. Formerly, murders were committed before our face, vessels plundered, ourselves threatened, and travellers ever in danger: now, Europeans settle down, perfectly free from all apprehension. Lascivious dances and other practices were all we witnessed when we visited them formerly: now, you may see Chapels in every village, Christian Communities growing up, and Services and Schools regularly attended. Meeting a European who has been residing for many years in the interior, I asked him if he noticed any change lately in the conduct of the people. "Yes," he replied, "my people have behaved much better since they began to pray." Now, the demand for European clothes, soap, and other useful articles, is increasing. Large wheat-fields may be seen at the Waimate, belonging to Natives; and they are particularly desirous of cows and horses. One man, David Taiwanga, has 20 head, and a good farm; and makes butter, which he sells in the Bay at 2*s.* 6*d.* per pound.

An intelligent and candid Colonist, of the name of Hanson, bears the following sensible and just testimony to the results of the Missionaries' labours, even at Port Nicholson, which is at the extreme south of the island. When we see so much of good sense and candour, we cannot forbear expressing the hope, that any misapprehension which may have arisen, in the minds either of the Colonists or the Missionaries, will soon be removed, and that all really well-disposed persons in the island will cordially co-operate for the good of the Natives.

Testimony of a Colonist to the Labours of the Missionaries at Port Nicholson.

The whole of the native population of this place profess the Christian Religion; and though there are no Missionaries among them, they are strict in the performance of their religious exercise. As is to be expected, however, they are imperfectly acquainted with the doctrines of Christianity, and are superstitious in many of their observances. Compared with what they were before the introduction of these doctrines among them—and this is obviously the true standard of comparison—the improvement effected by their conversion to Christianity is most striking; and if, as we trust, our settlement here will elevate and improve them, it will be as much to the labour of the Missionaries, as to the humane and just provisions of the Company on behalf of the Natives, that this result will be owing.

Popery.

But, at the same time, Popery is not idle. The Roman-Catholic Bishop and his Priests visit most of the Stations occupied by our Missionaries. Mr. Fairburn, in a Letter of April 1840, gives an account of their endeavours to proselytize the Natives, by means of bribes.

The Rev. H. Williams writes, July 25, 1840:—

The Popish Priests are invading us on all sides. We hear of thirty being at hand; ten of whom are to be French, and the remainder English and Irish.

Grant by the British and Foreign Bible Society.

The want of books is most seriously felt. So ardent is the desire to possess the Word of God, that one man travelled more than 200 miles, and back, to obtain a copy of the New Testament. The Bible Society has most liberally provided for this want, by a munificent grant of 10,000 New-Zealand Testaments; which are on their way to gladden the hearts alike of Missionaries and people, and to present the only sure antidote against the snares and delusions of Popery.

Present State and Wants of New Zealand.

The present state of New Zealand may best be judged of by Extracts from the latest Despatches. The Rev. W. Willams writes, May 5, 1840:—

Perhaps there is not any one Mission, belonging to any Society, on which a larger measure of God's Blessing has been poured out, than upon the New-Zealand Mission. The population, as a body, profess Christianity: the attendance at the House of God is large: the number of sincere inquirers is daily increasing; which is partly evidenced by a desire to be in possession of Testaments and Prayer-Books, far beyond our means of supply. The numbers in our congregrations, under charge of European and Native Teachers, are as follows: Kaitaia, 2000; Bay of Islands, 4000; Thames, 2000; Waikato, 2000; Tauranga, 1800; Rotorua and Taupo, 2000; East Cape, 2600; Poverty Bay, 2400; Table Cape and Wairoa, 3000; Kapiti, 2500; Wanganui, 2000; Taranake, 1000. As these numbers are under the mark, the total amount cannot be less than 27,000.

The Rev. H. Williams confirms his brother's calculations, and shows that he had underrated the number of inquirers. He writes, July 25, 1840:—

The Natives attending our instruction are not fewer than 30,000; and the Baptized far more numerous than you have ever reported—I think at this time not fewer than 2000: the present number of candidates is also very considerable.

Some idea of the rapid rate of increase in the number of inquirers may be formed by a comparison of the returns of the last three years. In 1839, the number of attendants on Public Worship was reported to be 2203; in 1840, 8760; in 1841, not less than 27,000. Some allowance must doubtless be made for the inaccuracy of former returns: yet, putting this at the utmost, the increase is almost marvellous; and perhaps some, when they consider how strikingly providential it is that this increase should be co-incident with the most perilous crisis in the New-Zealander's history, may doubt whether these things can be so. Yet our Lord has said—So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground, and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up he knoweth not how. And if the present rapid growth of religious inquiry in New Zealand be an exemplification of this parable, we must not refuse to believe it; but if the earth hath, as it were, brought fruit of herself—first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear—it is our duty, if the full fruit of inquiry hath been graciously given us of God, immediately to put in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

Appeal for Clergymen.

The foregoing statements distinctly show how urgently the Preacher of the Word is needed: and the Committee are very desirous to engage the services of any duly-qualified Clergymen who may be willing to go forth to New Zealand. And surely, when Rome is sending forth her Bishops and Priests, some Ministers of our Church will be found who will gladly go forth to the help of the Natives, and seek to establish them in the simple and saving truth of the Gospel, as it is taught by our own Reformed Church.

WEST-INDIES' MISSIONS.

BRITISH GUIANA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1827.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries. 2 European Catechists.

BRITISH GUIANA.

THE Society at present occupies two Stations in this Colony. One is Bartica Grove; where the Rev. J. H. Bernau, and Mr. Edmund Christian, are zealously labouring for the spiritual welfare of the Indians. The other is Warraporta; where the Rev. T. Youd, being compelled by the Brazilian Government to relinquish the Station which he had occupied at Urwa Rapids in the interior, has now begun to form a Station on land granted by the Governor. This Station, though in the interior, is considerably nearer the capital than the Urwa Rapids. Mr. Youd has already collected in this spot a number of the Macusie Indians.

BARTICA GROVE.

The Rev. J. H. Bernau has forwarded, in a Letter dated May 13, 1840, a very encouraging general

Summary of the Results of the Labours of the Missionaries at this Station.

Amidst many trials, we are not left without witness that the Lord is working in and by us; and that there are some who love the Saviour, and have begun to trust their souls to Him. Our settlers are increasing in number; and they begin to see and feel that the Lord has visited them with His salvation. The School at the Grove numbers, on the average, fifty children; and I am happpy to say that, on the whole, their behaviour and progress are cheering.

Mr. Edmund Christian, May 30, 1840, gives an equally encouraging

Account of the Children and Schools.

The Boys who form the Normal School, eleven in number, are very diligent, both at their studies and manual labour.

On the Wednesdays and Fridays, I have all the School for nearly one hour, teaching them singing: they have sweet voices; and it oftentimes gladdens my heart to hear them sing the praises of their God and Saviour. May He work mightily in their hearts, and bring them to know and feel that He is their Saviour, so that soon God may be glorified! Amen.

The following account is written by Mr. Bernhard Ries, who visited Bartica Grove last year:—

Account of Bartica Grove, by Mr. B. Ries.

From Saxavally we advanced to Bartica Point. When the Missionaries first arrived here, they found the place in a rude state; completely overgrown with bush, which it cost them a considerable time, and many privations, to clear away. The Grove now contains three substantial and commodious houses, such as would be no disgrace to the metropolis of the province; besides about twenty large cottages, and extensive provision-grounds, amply sufficient to supply the wants of all the inhabitants. So much can be effected in a short time, under the blessing of Heaven, by the untiring industry of man!

Mr. Bernau, after a kind reception, conducted us through the whole of his little community of about 110 inhabitants. Health and contentment, depicted on all faces, were to me the most striking proofs that the body as well as the mind was fed with proper food. We were now ushered into the School; where we saw above thirty male children, Black, Coloured, and Indian, all in good spirits, and nicely dressed.

I have had experience in examining Scholastic Establishments in England, France, and Germany, and am not easily deceived by a little show got up for the occasion. Mr. Bernau has the merit of having converted the children of Indians—who, when they came to him, were but one step removed from the brute creation—into Educated Christians. Some of them have, in the short space of four months, learnt to read and write sufficiently well to understand the Scriptures, and for the common purposes of business. The same is the case in another part of the establishment, designated the Girls' School, which in every way reflects honour upon the conductors.

Death of Mrs. Youd, and severe Illness of the Rev. T. Youd.

Mrs. Youd was seized with a violent attack of fever on the 31st of December 1839, which speedily terminated her life. She was buried in the intended churchyard at Urwa Rapids; when about eighty Indians attended, many of whom wept greatly. Mr. Youd himself had previously been very unwell; and is now so far out of health, as to propose a visit to this country, during the months which are most unhealthy in Demerara.

TRINIDAD MISSION.

COMMENCED 1836.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries. 5 Country-born Teachers.
8 European Catechists and Teachers.

TRINIDAD.

The Society continues to occupy two Stations in this beautiful and improving island. Savannah Grande is under the care of the Rev. A. E. Eckel, assisted by Mr. E. J. E. Hawkins. The reports last received, are of an encouraging nature. San Fernando is under the care of the Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser, assisted by Mr. T. Gilbert.

Mr. Mühlhauser, in a Letter dated January 6, 1841, presents an encouraging statement of the result of the labours of the Society at San Fernando. He thus contrasts the past and present state of the Mission:—

Perhaps you will be glad to learn how far you have been instrumental in doing good in this island, which has been for so many years the strong-hold of Popery and Superstition. I shall therefore shortly state what has been done, as it regards Churches, Chapels, and School-houses.

In the year 1836 there was neither Church nor Chapel, School nor School-house, in this town. There was no Lord's Day, in a certain sense: there was, indeed, a spiritual wilderness. In 1841 we count one Church here, now almost finished, and which cost us about 11,000 dollars; we have one large School-room, with two Schools; we have a Chapel School in Belmont; one on Jordan Hill; one in Ne Plus Ultra; a School-house on Mount Steward; another one in Point-à-Pierre; and one Chapel School and School-house now building. These facts can be told in a very few lines; but the influence that these places exercise over the population is certainly not so soon told. In 1836 there was no School and no Scholar: in 1841, I count seven Schools and 350 Scholars. In 1836 I counted from two to ten or fifteen at church at San Fernando: in 1841, I consider the number to be not less than from 600 to 650. In 1836 we had no Negro Communicants: now I suppose they amount to at least fifty or sixty. In 1836, I married the first couple of apprenticed labourers, to my knowledge, save a few by the Wesleyans. According to my Marriage Register, I married in 1837, 3 couples; in 1838, 7; in 1839, 15; and in 1840, 29. In this statement, the Whites are not included.

Another striking feature is, that the Lord's Day is kept more holy than it ever was. In former times, this was the marketing-day, the labouring-day, the hunting-day, the visiting-day, the day of rioting, of dancing, of drunkenness, and of laziness: but now—though I could not say that this is generally done away with—I can say, that wherever we have established ourselves, wherever we can exercise influence, these things exist no longer.

Mr. Mühlhauser briefly sums up the advantages resulting from the Society's labours in Trinidad:—

You have undoubtedly been the instrument of laying the foundation-stone of the Spiritual Temple of the Lord in this part of the island. I am almost sure, that unless you had sent us out five years back, this town and our two districts would still be in that state in which we then found them. It is true, our zealous Bishop has always been anxious to send Ministers, but where to get them has been the question. Even now he is troubled to fill up a vacancy occasioned by the resignation of a Minister. Again, he must first have some place in which to put his Clergy; but you sent us out with power to build and to erect School-houses, Parsonages, Chapels, and Schoolmasters' Residences, with the Mission money, independently of Subscriptions and the Local Government. Your Mission in Trinidad has been an expensive one, and it will continue so for some time; but I also believe that time will shortly show that it is an important one.

JAMAICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment:

7 European Catechists and Teachers. 6 European Missionaries.
12 Colonial Catechists and Teachers.

The Committee acknowledge, with deep thankfulness to the great Head of the Church, that the labours of the Society in the Island of Jamaica have been abundantly blessed. The Bishop of Jamaica, on every occasion when he has had the opportunity, has borne testimony to the excellence of the character of the Missionaries and Catechists, as a body; and to the great amount of good which their labours had, through the mercy of God, effected in his Diocese. The Committee, too, have learned, with the liveliest satisfaction, that the state of Religion generally throughout the island has greatly improved during the last six years: and especially, the conviction that Religious Instruction is absolutely essential to make the Emancipated Negro a useful and industrious labourer, is now almost universal. In effecting this most valuable change, your Committee have good reason to believe that the past labours of this Society have, through the goodness of God, been, in a considerable degree, instrumental.

It is, indeed, impossible to estimate precisely how far the labours of the Society have contributed to produce this most important change in the Religious state of Jamaica. But in the immediate and direct results of the labours of your Missionaries, there is abundant cause for thankfulness to God.

Normal School.

The object of this School is, to train Coloured Youths to become Teachers in the Mission. A due supply of competent Agents of this class is essential to the Religious Instruction of the mass of the Enfranchised Population: to the success of this Institution the Committee therefore attach the utmost importance. Various causes have hitherto impeded its progress. The principal one is, the difficulty which at present exists, of finding Youths of suitable qualifications, as to piety and previous instruction, to fit them for the School. Yet, notwithstanding all its difficulties, several young men have already been sent forth as Teachers; and the Missionaries, under whom they have laboured, have reported favourably of their behaviour and character: the past success of this Institution has therefore been as satisfactory as could have been reasonably expected. The Committee have consequently resolved to place it in a state of as great efficiency as they are able; and have determined to send out from this country a well-qualified layman, as Head-master, whose whole attention and time will be given to the Youths under his charge. The Institution, it is hoped, will be carried on under the general superintendence of the Rev. R. Panton: and as Mr. Panton has received from the Bishop the appointment to the first of the newly-established Island Curacies which his Lordship has filled up—and been put in charge of Hope Chapel, which is close to the Grove, and at which the Boys of the Normal School attend Public Worship—it seems, in every point of view, a desirable arrangement.

Mr. Panton will also undertake the Theological Instruction of the Pupils.

Progress of Ministerial Labours.

At the date of the last Reports which have reached this country, the accounts from almost all the Stations were of an encouraging nature. The Schools were well attended; the numbers of attendants on Public Worship considerable, and at some Stations very large; and true Religion was manifestly on the increase among the people. A few instances are selected, from among many.

At Rural Hill, a Chapel has been erected, which is one of the most beautiful Places of Worship in the island. It was built under the superintendence of the Rev. W. J. Woodcock; and the people contributed largely to the expense of its construction.

Mr. Woodcock was obliged to leave this Station, on account of ill health, in the spring of last year; and was succeeded by the Rev. W. N. Ashby, who thus writes in March last:—

On the Lord's Day, I met the congregation, and was introduced to the members in communion with us.

The Chapel struck me as being the first of its class I had seen; and for combining the required space, neatness, and cheapness, it has not, I am sure, been surpassed in the island. It is crowded every Lord's Day with people who, until it was built, had not a Place of Worship within six miles, and no one to call them from the darkness in which they lay.

The coast in this district rises abruptly from the sea, in large bluffs of massive rock; on one of which our Chapel stands—emblematical, I trust, of its foundation. These conceal from the traveller the neighbouring estates and populous villages; and on the Lord's Day, the spectator is surprised by the simultaneous outpouring of some hundreds, who line the numerous roads which wind around the cliffs. Groups of aged persons, bending up the steep ascent—parties of the young, hastening on with more active step—and happy children, our most interesting charge—all obedient to the summons of the bell from above, softened in its monotony by the chorus of waters below—present a blessed prospect to the eye, and combine to arouse the mind to thankfulness and praise, and to awaken heart-stirring considerations in one who is called to minister to the spiritual wants of every soul composing this scattered flock.

After full Service, and a sermon in simple and forcible language, classes are formed for instruction in reading; in which all ages earnestly join, to the number of 220, many assisted by spectacles. I then proceed to colloquial instruction on the subject of the sermon, or lesson of the day—endeavouring to keep to one subject—or a section of Trew's Catechism; and end, at about four o'clock, with a Hymn and Prayer. My humble charge—having come together, I hope, for the better—then seek their homes; and soon disappear, among the rocks and dells which once never smiled when the Lord's Day appeared.

Mr. F. Byrne, who is in charge of Somerset Hall, mentions a striking fact, which shows the improvement that has taken place in the general conduct of the people there. He writes, March 1840:—

I feel happy in being able to remark, that not one person connected with the Society has been, to my knowledge, brought before a Justice for any misconduct whatever, or disrespect toward his employers. I have on some occasions been instrumental, with God's blessing, in settling matters among the congregation, as they have come before me. The people are remarkable for having on many occasions returned good for evil.

Desire for Religious Instruction.

When Mr. J. Pollitt left Moore Town on account of ill health, the Maroons drew up and forwarded a Petition to the Committee, dated June 20, 1840, in which, while they manifest much gratitude for their past privileges, they express the most earnest desire that Spiritual Instruction might be continued to them. The following is an extract:—

We, the Undersigned Maroons of Moore Town, do hereby beg and pray your Honours to grant us a Clergyman; as we are now every day increasing in the line of Religion and Moral Principle. What was the Maroons in ten or twelve years back? our only bed-prayers we could not even say—nor know the circumstances of it: but we are now able to say, that throughout the whole Island of Jamaica there is no school that will be able to surpass the Moore-Town School. We have got several of the young men here who are very good scholars and also of understanding, and several of the young boys. The Maroons were counted in Jamaica, by the eyes of the people, as dumb animals: they were the lowest of all classes. Should you at the time put a question to us, we could give no answer, or explain ourselves in a word that could be understood by the White People. What was all these required, but instruction? See how well the young people that gets instruction are now increasing in the world. Who must we bless and thank, but God and the Church Missionary Society? Before Mr. James Pollitt came here, there were only about seventeen persons in the town joining the Church Missionary Society; but now we are able to say there is 110 members, also 100 children in the School. We therefore trust and hope the Church Missionary Society will finish the good cause they have begun.

The Rev. W. Forbes, who is in charge of the Station at Mount Hermon, describes, in March 1840, a young African, whom he had baptized:—

In the early part of the quarter, I had the satisfaction of receiving into the Church, by Baptism, a young man of about twenty-four years of age, who had been for some time under instruction. As his case was peculiar, and I think interesting, I venture to state it, believing that I can vouch for the young man's sincerity.

From the age of two years, he had been affected with one of those fearful African disorders, the shocking ravages of which, on the human frame, are so frequently witnessed in this country. In the present case, every limb was more or less distorted, the features horribly mutilated, and the atmosphere around the poor fellow so polluted, as to be scarcely bearable. I have, however, seldom, if ever, conversed with a more intelligent and earnest Black. He had applied himself, in the intervals of my calling upon him—for he lives seven miles from me—in learning his letters, &c. from the first three or four pages of the First-Class Book; and though his instructors were only one or other of the children who attend the School at Naïn, and his articulation, from the cause I have already assigned, very difficult and indistinct, I was nevertheless pleased and satisfied with the progress which he had made: his diligence at least gave evidence of anxious concern.

When I spoke to him of his wretchedness as a sinner, the wrath of God against sin, and His love in sending His Son to die, he seemed not to lose a word I said: and on my asking him his reason for desiring baptism so earnestly—(he had repeatedly pressed me to give it to him)—he said, Because he felt that he was a poor sinner; that he believed Jesus only could save him; and he wished to know Him and follow Him. I found too, on inquiring from the Communicant who presented him, that this anxiety was not merely exhibited to me, but that he was constantly speaking of his eternal concerns, and inquiring the way of life from those who could afford him any measure of instruction.

The Rev. H. S. Yates wrote very encouragingly, at the same period, of the state of true Religion at Pedro Plains:—

It is with real pleasure I inform the Committee of there being an earnest desire excited in many, of late, for those spiritual blessings which are treasured up in Christ. There is a simplicity of purpose which I cannot question, and an ardour by which I cannot but be encouraged.

Mr. J. Gillies at the same time gives an affecting account of an aged Negro who was a candidate for admission to the Lord's Supper, at Old England:—

At Old England, the number of Candidates for the Communion amounts to 17. As yet, they have all behaved in a most satisfactory manner. Nine of them were confirmed three weeks ago. Two have been recommended for admission to the Lord's Table. One of these, an old Negro named Richard Green, the father of twelve children, shortly after my coming here applied for private instruction. I was always much pleased with his behaviour, especially his happy and contented spirit. His children, too, were always clean, and regular at school. In June last, he commenced to learn the alphabet, and is now almost fit for the Testament Class. About six weeks ago, being told that he was sick, I went to see him. He appeared ill, but was sitting up, and apparently happy: he complained of nothing, but of having been unable to attend Prayers on the preceding Lord's Day.

I asked him if he often prayed, and what he mostly prayed for. His reply, with much simplicity, was, "Me beg much, me beg hard, for God make me love all brudders [brothers] and sisters; for me no love brudders and sisters, me no love God." He also told me that he begged hard for his children to be made to love every body: and they really seem to possess the same spirit. He talked of his soul being hungry and weak, when he could not attend Prayers on the Lord's Day; but he said that hearing the Gospel and Prayers made his soul quite strong.

Proceedings of Jamaica Proprietors in this Country in aid of the Society's Funds.

It has afforded the Committee much satisfaction, to know that the labours of the Society's Missionaries and Catechists have been highly appreciated by many of the Planters in this island. Representations to this effect were addressed from the island to Jamaica Proprietors in this country; and pecuniary aid to the Society, on this ground, strongly recommended. To this appeal some members of the Jamaica Body responded. A meeting of "Planters, Merchants, and others interested in Jamaica," in furtherance of this object, was convened, by public advertisement, and held at Willis's Rooms, St. James's Street, on the 6th of June last. On this occasion, the Right Honourable the Earl of Harewood in the Chair, several Resolutions were carried, and the names of subscribers given to the amount of 600*l.* It was hoped, that in this movement the whole body of the Jamaica Proprietors would have cordially co-operated; and that a sufficient subscription might be annually raised, to enable the Society to carry on its labours in that island without any undue demand upon its general funds. These expectations have not been realised: but enough has been done to show the light in which the past labours of the Society have been regarded by a considerable number of the most influential members of the body of Jamaica Proprietors. The whole amount raised did not much exceed 1000*l.*

Disposition of the Negroes to aid in providing the Means of Religious Instruction.

The disposition manifested by many of the Negroes, to assist in providing Religious Instruction for themselves, and in imparting it to others, is very pleasing. Mr. Yates writes, June 1839:—

Since last I addressed the Committee, the walls of the School-house have been completed for the reception of the roof. After considerable delay, occasioned by the long continuance of dry weather, the Congregation undertook the arduous task of bringing water in gourds, for making mortar. Over rough and steep roads, and for a distance of one or two miles, did these willing people carry loads of water, for the purpose of finishing those walls which had cost them many a sigh. The amount of interest taken by the Congregation in the completion of their Place of Worship may be ascertained by calmly calculating the difficulties of furnishing sufficient water for a gang of masons, in a hot and windy district, where the process of evaporation is most rapid.

The following fact is related by the Rev. H. L. Dixon :—

May 23, 1839—I have been much pleased with the kindness of my host, who is a person of colour, and who makes no pretensions, except to honest industry. After every expression of attention to my comfort, upon hearing that my horse was lame, he lent me his own, his best, upon which to ride home; and, on bidding me good morning, put three sovereigns into my hand, as his subscription toward the Missionary Premises.

Mr. Dixon thus reports the liberality of his people :—

Aug. 25, 1839: Lord's Day—My feelings were sadly depressed this morning, on account of the very heavy rains of yesterday, together with the bad state of the weather for several days before. As late as eight o'clock this morning, when we commenced instruction in the Sunday Schools, the benches were wet, and the ground-floor was in a shocking state. Notwithstanding these discouragements, we had nearly 400 people. I mentioned to them, after the Morning Service, the promises of the Gentlemen who had called in the week, that the place should be greatly and speedily improved, if they would come forward again with their subscriptions. Ninety-seven people instantly gave in their names, with promises of upward of 44*l.* One of them, my own servant, who has only 12*l.* per annum to support and clothe himself, gave in his name for 1*l.* I believe that most of the people came forward with their subscriptions from the purest motives.

Sept. 1, 1839: Lord's Day—However highly my feelings were excited on the past Lord's Day, on account of the zeal with which my people responded to the call I made on their liberality, they have exceeded to-day what they then did. The sum of 44*l.* has been made up to 100*l.*, in the most cheerful way.

The Rev. C. W. Winckler thus writes of his Collections at Hanover :—

On the 1st of August, 1839, I had an overflowing Congregation. I took my text from Jeremiah viii. 20: the Collection was 11*l.* 5*s.* I am happy in having been able to collect, by subscription, and payment for tuition, above 64*l.* for the Society, during the last quarter. All my Communicants and Candidates are Monthly Subscribers. I have the names of 120 on the list; who will contribute, I calculate, 50*l.* every quarter, on the average.

On the 13th instant, the Rev. J. Stainsby paid us a visit, and baptized our child at the Chapel. I had a Missionary Meeting at the same time; when Mr. Stainsby addressed the people, and a Collection of 3*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* was made. The people are now much interested in our Society's proceedings, and sympathize very much with us in the loss sustained.

Mr. J. Pollitt found the people of Moore Town very ready to contribute. He writes, September 1839—

I feel, from the willing manner in which our people come forward, that their hearts generally are in the work: for since the visit from the Deputation, we have received 145 subscribers of 1*l.* per annum each; out of which I have received, for the first month, 9*l.* 5*s.*, besides a donation of 5*l.* from the Attorney of the Seaman's-Valley Estate; making a total, with the 1*l.* collected on the 1st of August, of 15*l.* 5*s.*

Future Prospects of the Jamaica Mission.

In July 1839, the Committee resolved gradually to relinquish this Mission, by allowing the several Stations, as they attained a regular parochial form, to fall naturally, as it were, into the general Ecclesiastical establishment of the island. Since that time, they regret to say that serious difficulties have arisen in the management of the Mission. But the Committee have passed a series of Resolutions calculated, as they trust, to provide for its future welfare; and notwithstanding the difficulties which have arisen, they still entertain the hope that the Mission will be successfully carried on, until the Stations shall assume the form of regular Parishes.

The Committee wish, indeed, to deliver up each Station a well-cultivated plot in the Missionary field, thickly set with fair and fruitful trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord. And they trust that this will even yet be done, to a considerable extent, in Jamaica; and that at many of the Stations which God has permitted them to form, the Gospel may be preached from generation to generation, until time shall be no more.

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1823.

Mission Establishment:

3 European Missionaries. 3 European Teachers. 4 Country-born Teachers.

General View of the Mission.

It would be difficult to point out a single spot in the whole Missionary Field on which the Divine Blessing has more manifestly rested, than on Prince Rupert's Land, in the territories of the Hudson's-Bay Company, And never was this Mission, so far as the prospect of permanent good to the people is concerned, more flourishing than at the present time. The Rev. W. Cockran, although exhausted by fatigue and bodily infirmity, has carried on his labours there, during the past year, in the same spirit of patient, self-denying, persevering zeal which has characterized him from the beginning; and the Rev. J. Smithurst has entered on his arduous duties with a kindred spirit. Mr. Cockran has had the care of the Upper, Middle, and Lower Churches. Mr. Smithurst is in charge of the Indian Settlement at Netley Creek, and assists Mr. Cockran by taking one Service on the Lord's Day at the Church at the Grand Rapids.

Ministerial Duties and Schools.

Mr. Cockran, writing in August 1840, gives a brief summary of the results of the discharge of his ministerial duties during the year:—

During the past year, I have admitted to the sacrament of the Lord's Supper ten persons, who all seem to be influenced by Religious motives, and, as far as I can judge from their regular attendance on Public Worship, and their sober, righteous, and pious deportment through the week, are working out their salvation with that righteous humility and anxiety which become fallen creatures, who are to be saved by the sovereign grace of Jesus Christ.

I have baptized 102 persons, buried 23, and married 19 couples. Our Week-day and Sunday Schools are as regularly attended as usual.

The Rev. J. Smithurst reports of Netley Creek, July 9, 1840:—

The average attendance at church on Lord's-day afternoon is about 300; in the evening, about 200; and on Wednesday evening, about 150. The greatest attention is always paid at the whole of the Services, and an evident anxiety is manifested for instruction. I trust that we do not labour in vain.

I may safely venture to say, that few English Congregations join in our beautiful Liturgy with more apparent fervour and devotion than my Indian Congregation. The singing is delightful. I have twenty of the best singers out of the School, who regularly practise the tunes with me: they sit upon two benches in front of the reading-desk, and lead the congregation with admirable precision. Whenever Heathen Indians are present, nothing seems to attract their attention so much as the singing.

During my ten months' residence here, I have baptized five adult Heathen Indians and one adult Half-breed; and thirteen infants, the children of Christian Indians. I have admitted twelve new Communicants: the number now is as follows:—Muscaigo Indians, 53; Saulteaux Indians, 4; Half-breeds, 3; total, 60. Of the whole of these, I hope I may say that they are endeavouring to walk as becomes the Gospel.

The Day and Sunday Schools are well attended.

The Saulteaux School has a little farm attached to it, in which all the scholars appear to work cheerfully. They raised upon it, last year, more than 300 bushels of potatoes; 50 bushels of which they gave me on my arrival; and the rest they used during the winter, with their fish, except what was kept for seed. These children are both fed and clothed at the expense of the Church Missionary Society.

A Parent's Exhortation to Prayer.

Mr. Cockran records a very affecting instance of earnest exhortation to constant prayer:—

July 26, 1840—I returned home, in company with a Native whose son had gone on a long journey, near to the Rocky Mountains. I was delighted to find that he had sent his son off with the most pressing injunction that he would pray to God at least twice every day, and read the Bible as often as he might have an opportunity. He said, "My son, as long as you have been in my house you have seen me pray: let this put you in mind that there is a Being, whom we cannot see, who gives us all things. You go to church: there you hear that this Great Being, whom wicked men hate and are afraid of, is Love. When you go through the plains, you will not see me praying; you will not hear that God is Love. There you will meet with men whose hearts are cruel; who will stand up against you; who have no pity: they would drive an arrow through your heart; they would take your scalp from your head, and drink your blood. My son, when night comes on, before you close your eyes, ask Him who draws the darkness round you to look and pity you, and spread His hand over you; for you are alone, far from home, and have no other friend but Him. When morning comes, and your eyes first see the light, thank the Best of all Beings for His protection; and ask Him to go with you on your journey, to turn men who have bad hearts on one side, that they may not meet you. Should you be in danger, never forget that the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin. Trust in it: God has accepted of it as the sacrifice for your soul; and through this, you and I may meet in heaven." The father said to me: "My heart was light and happy when I saw my son take his Bible and some Tracts; and when he squeezed my hand, with the tears in his eyes, and said, 'I will remember Him who is over us all, till I meet you again.'"

Indian Settlement at Netley Creek.

Mr. Smithurst, in a Letter dated Aug. 3, 1840, furnishes us with the following account of the formation and progress of the Indian Settlement at Netley Creek, under Mr. Cockran:—

In the year 1832, the Rev. W. Cockran obtained the permission of Governor Simpson to commence the formation of an Indian Settlement near Netley Creek. After five years' patient and persevering industry on the part of Mr. Cockran, cottage after cottage rose in rapid succession, and were soon surrounded by cultivated fields, where waved the golden grain; the hitherto solitary banks of the river were covered with cattle, belonging to the infant community; and, in due course, a mill was erected, to which, on a windy day, the Indian might be seen hurrying with his bushel of grain, to get it converted into flour.

A neat church, with its white spire overtopping the stately oaks by which it is surrounded, was opened for the Worship of Almighty God on Jan. 4, 1837.

The good work thus happily commenced, is not standing still. The improvement of the Indian Settlers has been most encouraging during the eight years which have elapsed since the formation of the Settlement; and their present condition is, in every point of view, most hopeful. Mr. Smithurst thus describes its state, July 1840:—

The Settlement bears every mark of rapid improvement, in a temporal point of view; for last spring, most of the farms were, in extent, double their former size, and the crops now look healthy and promising. The cattle are increasing very fast; amounting now to above 200, exclusive of horses and pigs. I believe there are about twenty horses: it would be difficult to say how many pigs, as few have less than two or three, and many have more than twenty. A number of ploughs have been brought into the Settlement: and, during the summer, seven new houses have been built, of a description far superior to any before erected; each having two rooms on the ground-floor; with a cellar underneath to keep potatoes, and a chamber above for grain, &c. The Christian Indians have now become as industrious as many of the labouring classes in England. In conclusion, may we not say, What hath God wrought! for assuredly it is His work.

A retired fur-trader, on looking over the Settlement a short time since, said, that if he had been told ten years ago that Indians would have been brought to do what they have now done, he could not have believed it.

Failure of the Health of the Rev. W. Cockran.

The Committee regret to state that the health of the Rev. W. Cockran has so entirely failed, that he was constrained to call upon them to allow him to leave his post. He however, at the same time, expressed his intention of remaining until his successor arrived. The following affecting appeal is from a Letter dated Aug. 4, 1840:—

Having laboured for years under growing indisposition, which has exhausted both my physical and mental energies, I find myself no longer capable of making the arduous efforts necessary to civilize and evangelize the Indians, to whom I had the honour of being sent by the Church Missionary Society. Inability to dó my duty according to the dictates of my judgment, has laid me under the censure of my conscience, and subjected me to the most painful self-contempt.

When alone, I pray almost incessantly to God to give me strength to perform my old duties, and turn my heart to love them. But insufferable languor follows me as my shadow. I pray; read; work in the garden, or in the field; walk about; converse with the most cheerful persons with whom I may meet; form new plans for ameliorating the Indian. Every device fails to procure relief. The uneasy sensation and nausea in my stomach, and pain in my head, and dimness in my eyes, remain. As I no longer possess the energies necessary to enable me to perform my Missionary duties with ease and comfort, and as holding the office and neglecting the duties would injure a good cause, I think it advisable to take some step to relieve me from my present duties; and also to dissolve my connexion with the Church Missionary Society, as I have no prospect of being able to undertake Missionary duties at any future period of my life.

Should God spare my life, and furnish me with strength to labour, it is my intention to continue in Red River, till the Society shall send a Missionary to supply my place: but I sincerely hope that you are too good to take any advantage of my sincerity, or to feel indifferent whether I am relieved or not.

I leave my cause with God. If pity touch not your bosom, to relieve one who is reluctantly driven from the field of Missionary labour by infirmity, God will transfer it, and enable me to get on with an easy mind.

The Committee, feeling the necessity of relieving Mr. Cockran with as little delay as possible, resolved, as the only means in their power, to send out Mr. A. Cowley, one of the Students in the Institution, by way of Canada, in the hope that he might be able to reach the Red River by the Hudson's-Bay Company's spring canoes; or else might accompany the Bishop of Montreal, who had most kindly proposed to pay a visit to the Society's North-West-America Mission during the course of the spring, if practicable. Mr. and Mrs. Cowley accordingly sailed in the Columbia, for Halifax, in the beginning of the year, and arrived safely at Montreal. They were received there with great kindness; and the Bishop of Montreal manifested his readiness to forward the object of the Committee, by ordaining Mr. Cowley. The Bishop has subsequently been obliged to abandon his intention of visiting the Red River: and as it was found impracticable for Mr. and Mrs. Cowley to reach Prince Rupert's Land by the Company's spring canoes, they returned again to this country; and have embarked on board one of the ships of the Hudson's-Bay Company, for the Red River.

Popery.

A gentleman who has been many years resident in the territories of the Hudson's-Bay Company points out, in a Letter dated March 17, 1840, the strenuous exertions of the Church of Rome; and contrasts them affectingly with the apparent apathy of our own Church:—

I have now been ten years in this quarter; during which time, one solitary Protestant Clergyman, and one only, has come to the Colony—I might say, to the country at large. But of Popish Priests, no fewer than eight have been brought in, during the same period.

How does it happen, that there is such a reluctance on the part of the Protestant Missionary to come abroad? or is it a reluctance or backwardness in the Protestant Society or Societies at home to send him out? Are the Roman Catholics more enterprising or zealous in the cause of Religion than we are? They are everywhere; and should we condemn their practices, we must commend their industry: their assiduity is praiseworthy, and their success exceeds their assiduity. They are closing fast around us on every side; and if more active measures be not taken in the proper quarter, the whole country will be under their dominion. Where, then, will be our Protestant Church here? Where, then, our British possessions in this quarter — our boasted English Colony of Red River?

Were a stranger to arise among us, and touch upon this subject, would he not ask, What have we to boast of in this quarter, after two centuries' possession? We might say, that we were the first in discoveries, the first in trade, first in every thing but Religion;—in Religion, the last. Have not, he would say, the Americans and the Pope their Missionaries at Lake Superior and Lake Traverse, on the south of us—on the Pacific, on the west—and the Russians on the north; but the English—what have they done? They lay claim to a continent in extent; from the Atlantic on the east to the Pacific on the west; and from Lake Superior on the south to the North Pole; containing in that extent of country—that rich and wide field of commercial enterprise—great numbers of human beings, anxiously inquiring for the sacred word of Truth;—and yet, how many Protestant Clergymen have they got in the country? He would naturally ask, Have they got one hundred? The answer would be, No. Have they got fifty? Have they got five? No. Have they got two? Yes, and two only! Forlorn, indeed, must be their hope!—the one holding, as it were, the thread of his spiritual existence with both hands; while the other is calling out, "Come, help us!" for the harvest is great, but the Labourers are few.

STATE OF THE FINANCES.

The Receipts and Disbursements of the past year, on account of the General Fund, were as follows:—

Receipts	£90,604	6	2
Disbursements	98,630	19	9

exhibiting, consequently, an excess of Disbursements over Receipts of 8026*l.* 13*s.* 7*d.*

The large amount of the Expenditure is to be traced to the progressive enlargement of most of the Missions, through the blessing from above, which has been vouchsafed to their operations. At no antecedent period have the Missions, speaking of them as a whole, presented so favourable a view of the spiritual influence which they have been instrumental in diffusing.

The decrease of Receipts through Associations in the last year is considerable; yet, adverting to the extraordinary efforts made by the Associations in the year 1839-40, to cover the deficiency of income in the year 1838-39, the amount actually received in the year just closed shows a steady increase in the income of the Associations generally. Indeed, the Reports received from the Associations generally evince the growth of the Society in the last year, both in friends and resources, notwithstanding counteracting causes which, it might have been feared, would have materially affected its income.

The Receipts of the Year on account of the Fund for Disabled Missionaries and their families amounted to 867*l.* 10*s.* 11*d.*

The Total Receipts of the Year therefore, from all sources, were 91,471*l.* 17*s.* 1*d.*

CONCLUSION.

Your Committee, in bringing their Report to a close, cannot refrain from calling upon the Members and friends of the Society, throughout the world, to join in offering unto the Lord one common sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for what He hath already wrought by their means, for the glory of His own great name among the Heathen.

We ought not to hear of Sierra Leone, and its growing importance to the cause of the Gospel in Africa; of East Africa, and its possible connexion with the Abolition of the Slave Trade; of the Mediterranean, and its opening prospects; of India, with its Orphan Schools, its Christian Villages, its thousands of inquirers, and its millions of Idolaters, to whom, as recently in the case of the Teloogoos, a way for the preaching of the Gospel is being more widely opened from year to year; of Ceylon, and its quiet and steady progress in all the preparatives for the general reception of the Gospel; of the West Indies, and the real spiritual emancipation which is going on there; of North-West America and British Guiana, with their happy villages of Christian Indians; and, lastly, of New Zealand, with nearly half its population asking of you, not the perishable goods of this life, but the Word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever;—we ought not to hear of all these things, without deep and devout thankfulness to Almighty God.

Yet, at the same time, it must be remarked, that, in the present state of Missionary operations, praise and thanksgiving do not imply that the work is accomplished; but rather, that God has so far, and in such a manner, blessed the past labours of His Servants, that he makes upon them a plain and fresh demand for renewed and increased exertion for the future. And this, on looking back on the operations of the past year, your Committee believe to be exactly the position in which the Society is placed.

That God demands increased effort, the numerous applications which your Committee have been compelled during the past year to refuse, furnish painful proof. They have been earnestly entreated to send Missionaries to the Druses of Mount Lebanon; to the inhabitants of the Himalayah Mountains; to Candahar; and to the populous country of the Ashantees; not to mention many other applications. From want of means, they have been obliged to decline them all; although, in each case, it seemed as if a wide and effectual door had been opened before them.

The state also of the existing Missions establishes the same truth. Your increasing Educational Establishments require a large expenditure; while they need also, for their successful superintendence, the most exalted piety. In West Africa, there is the Fourah-Bay Institution; in Jamaica, the Normal School; in Malta, the New Institution; in Syra, the High School; in Caïro, the Seminary; in Calcutta, the Head Seminary; in Benares, Jay Narrain's School; in Madras, the Institution, Bishop Corrie's Grammar School, and the proposed School for Natives of the higher classes; in Bombay, the Money Institution; in Ceylon, the Cotta Institution. These constitute the very hope of the future usefulness of the Missions: yet, while their existence and prosperity encourage, their increased wants demand increased support.

The Missions, too, for the most part, need an accession of strength. The West-Africa Mission is increasing within its own limits; has extended itself to the Timmanee Country; and the Niger Expedition opens a field which, it may be hoped, will, through God's blessing, prove almost illimitable. Egypt implores new Labourers; who are needed by Copts and Mahomedans alike. In North India, hardly a single Station is occupied in sufficient strength. In Southern India, Tinnevelly alone would find employment for many more Missionaries. The 10,000,000 of Teloogoos present, as it were, a new empire for the Lord. Ceylon is but imperfectly supplied. Trinidad, North-West America, and British Guiana, ask urgently for more Labourers; while the thousands of New Zealand cry out with one voice, Come over, and give us increased help, proportioned to our increased numbers!

Thus, the state of the Missions, while it encourages, also makes fresh and urgent demands.

And, lastly, it may be observed, with thankfulness, that the state of the finances speaks the same language. It encourages, because it shows a real increase in what may fairly be computed as the permanent Contributions of Associations—the great source of income on which the Society must depend. The tide of Missionary liberality has long ago begun to flow. It may, indeed, now and then seem to recede; but this need not discourage. In the vast ocean, when the tide is flowing, there may be a receding wave; but still the majestic tide flows on. And thus, in the Contributions of this year there may be a decline; yet your Committee trust that it is but the receding wave after a temporary effort, while the tide of permanent liberality is steadily flowing on. Still, the Expenditure has greatly exceeded the Income. And when it is remembered, that this Expenditure does not arise from any extravagance, but from the bare and inadequate supply of the wants of the existing Missions, it will be plainly seen that the Society's financial state demands increased exertions, that its income may be raised to a level with that expenditure which the blessing of God on its operations alone has rendered necessary: and your Committee believe, that when the friends of the Society take an enlarged view of the present state of our Native Country and of our own Church, these increased exertions will not be withheld.

The true Christian must be a Patriot: in his heart, the love of country is associated with the love of God; who hath divided to the nations their inheritance, and who, by His good providence, hath given to us Great Britain as our native land. To this land, for nearly three centuries, the same gracious God has vouchsafed the purest form of faith upon earth; and in our day—might we not say, almost in the past year?—He has raised our country to an eminence perhaps unparalleled in ancient or in modern times. The Mahomedans respect; the Natives of India obey; the millions of China have been taught to fear:—and when the Christian Patriot beholds his native land thus exalted in power, and thus blessed in faith, he cannot remain inactive and indifferent; but he will feel that it is especially his duty, at this fearful crisis of her unprecedented elevation, to show to her a Christian Patriot's love. He will strive to sanctify her wealth, her commerce, her powers, her influence, her arts, her science, by endeavouring to enlist them all in the cause of God, that his native land may become the Evangelizer of the world; and he delights to discern her safety and her real greatness—not in the subjugation of Syria, nor in the humiliation of China, but in such efforts as the Niger Expedition, concentering, as it does, in itself, all that courage, and skill, and science could effect, for the successful prosecution of its benevolent design. One thing only—the presence of the Missionary—would he perceive to be wanting, in order that the blessing of God should fully rest upon that expedition, and make it, at all events, a blessing to the land which sent it forth. And when he finds, that to such an expedition, at such an eventful period in the history of our country, this Society was the honoured means of supplying the Missionaries who should sanctify the whole expedition, by directly connecting it with the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom, surely he who loves his Country and our Church will resolve, with renewed attachment, to make increased exertions in the behalf of a Society thus favoured and owned by God.

But if the present be a crisis with our native land, it is no less so with our beloved Church; and your Committee call upon you, as consistent Churchmen, to be more than ever zealous in this good cause. The safety of the Church entirely depends on the presence of the Saviour with her; and His presence is, by His own express declaration, promised in connexion with Missionary exertion:—Go ye, and teach all nations; and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Now, the object of this Society, from its very commencement, has been to endeavour to teach the Gospel to all the Heathen Nations of the world, in obedience to the Saviour's command. This too, from the first, the Society has striven to do, in accordance with the doctrines and discipline of our own Church, as they were established at the Reformation. To preach Christ, and Him crucified, has been the great end proposed to and by your Missionaries, in accordance with, and submission to, the Ecclesiastical order and polity of the Church. This object and these principles your Committee trust will be handed down, undefiled and unimpaired, from year to year. As regards Ecclesiastical questions, the Committee have always considered that it was no part of their province to settle them. In all such matters, they were desirous to conform to the laws of the Church; but as, in applying those laws to Missionary exertions, new and doubtful questions must arise, the Committee would hail with satisfaction the adoption of measures by which such questions might be satisfactorily adjusted. And if, in connexion with such measures, the fuller sanction of the Heads of the Church to the operations of the Society may be obtained, your Committee would rejoice themselves, and would feel that the Members of the Society would have fresh cause for thankfulness. At the same time, the Committee trust that it will always be maintained by the friends and supporters of the Church Missionary Society, that the Saviour alone is the great Fountain of life; and that Ecclesiastical discipline, however valuable, and however dear to them, is but the channel through which the waters of life should flow to the perishing nations of mankind. And they trust, that neither faith, nor watchfulness, nor prayer, will be wanting; that the principles of the Society may never be compromised; and that it may continue to be the honoured instrument of sending forth the pure Gospel of Christ, as it was preached by Cranmer, and Latimer, and Ridley, and the Martyrs and Reformers of our Church. Then the Saviour's presence will be vouchsafed to the Society unto the end; and it will remain—as there is good reason to believe that it has been hitherto—a means of spiritual blessing to the Church itself, by discharging a duty which the Church cannot neglect without herself experiencing the bitter consequences of her sin.

Thus, on all hands, and in every way, the voice of God Himself is heard, demanding fresh exertions: and your Committee do but echo that voice, when they bid you abound more and more in this work of faith and labour of love. And, oh that God's voice may now be heard and obeyed, as it was on one occasion, while Israel journeyed in the Wilderness! When God required, at the hand of His servants, contributions for the Tabernacle, then they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the Lord's offering to the work of the Tabernacle: so that the officers at last spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the Lord commanded.

Now, the Lord hath commanded the work in which this Society is engaged. Oh that He may give a like willing heart to its members! Then will they bring their bracelets, their earrings, their offerings of silver, and their offerings of gold, and their offerings of the works of their skill; nay, with willing hearts they will offer themselves, and their sons and their daughters; and the Temple of the Lord shall be built in every land, to be a praise unto the Lord for ever and ever. Amen.

EXTRACTS FROM THE REPORT OF THE EGYPT MISSION,

FOR THE YEAR 1840,

BY THE REV. J. R. T. LIEDER.

In taking a retrospect of the past year, with all its difficulties and dangers, as regards our individual safety, and that of our Missionary labour, we feel ourselves enabled gratefully to acknowledge the faithfulness and the mighty support of our Lord, whose we are: and yet each of us must confess, with Jacob of old, I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and all the truth, which Thou hast showed unto thy servant!

In order satisfactorily to exhibit the condition of Egypt during the year 1840, we shall first glance at the general state of the country; and then at our own position, as to our Schools, and other Missionary proceedings.

Mahomed Ali has had to exert himself, during the past year, in an extraordinary manner; not only in his military and political enterprises, but also in his Educational Institutions. We do not wish unduly to laud the Pasha, but we would be just; and we ask, Under similar circumstances, and with similar means and power, where is the Oriental Sovereign now living, who would have wrought more beneficial reformations for the good of his country, than this extraordinary man has wrought for future Egypt?

During the past year we have had various trials, both of patience and faith. There have been several fires: many of them happened in the night, and at a period when water was scarce. They were fearfully destructive; and always began in the quarter either of the Christians or the Jews; from which circumstance it seems evident that they were not accidental, but wilful.

We have also to observe, that a spirit of fanaticism has recently been displayed, in a much higher degree than we have for years seen it raised. It has appeared especially among the children and people of the lower classes. All the Europeans in Caïro have had to feel the consequences of this ignorant zeal, being often annoyed in the streets by the children of the lowest order; and not merely by insulting epithets, as "Dog," "Infidel," "Pig," &c., but by stronger and more tangible indications of their latent good-will. Mrs. Lieder had on one occasion a stone thrown at her, from which she suffered several days; while I myself have lately been several times spit upon by children.

Our Schools have also not enjoyed, as usual, the silent but favourable countenance of the Government, especially during the latter months; indeed, ever since the Consuls of the Four Powers had to leave Egypt. We have therefore been obliged to proceed with all possible quietness and circumspection in the different branches of our work. We have also put ourselves and Schools under the protection of the Consulate of the United States. Our esteemed friend, Mr. Gliddon, who now resides in Caïro, readily granted us every American aid: had not this been the case, there is every probability that we should have received orders to close the establishment. Nevertheless, with all these precautions, we have had to suffer several annoyances. Our Testimonials, which have hitherto been respected, and which were given as a protection to the Boys of the Schools, have been openly despised; but only one Boy taken. We have likewise found it necessary, for the sake of avoiding greater evils, to dismiss, for a short time, the Mahomedan children; as many injurious stories were being spread in regard to them, evidently for the purpose of gaining some apparently just pretence to attack the Schools.

Notwithstanding all the various vexations arising from political, civil, and religious causes, we are able to say, that not only have the benefits of civilization, and especially that of an educational character, progressed beyond expectation, but that we have also observed a pleasing religious movement among the Christians of several Denominations within this city.

We have seen, since our last Report, four new and splendid Churches raised by the Orthodox Greek and Armenian, as well as the Roman Greek and Armenian Christians. New schools have also been opened by the Latin Roman-Catholics and the Orthodox Armenians. But what is most pleasing to those who love our Lord's peculiar people, is, that a School for Jewish Children of both sexes, on a grand scale, has been opened in their quarter. A large house has been taken; the lower story being arranged for the male, and the upper for the female pupils. Instruction is given in the Arabic, French, and Italian languages, in connexion with other scholastic branches. At the head of the Boys' department is a Jew; and the Superintendant of the Girls' is a French Roman-Catholic lady, for want of a properly-qualified Jewess. This greatly-needed Establishment was opened by the noble liberality of Dr. Gremieux, during his stay in Caïro, in connexion, we believe, with that of Sir Moses Montefiore. Its future support is to be derived from the Jews of England and France.

To all these schools, ours have served as the model. Their Schoolmasters often visit our Establishment, to watch the system, or to receive some help in books. Yea, indeed, with heartfelt gratitude to God we can say, that most, if not all of them, have been called into existence from jealousy on our account. The thought is pleasing and encouraging; for it seems an answer to prayer: they appear as so many little gardens of future promise—the ripening and visible fruit of our past temporal labours. We have also to remark, that an especial provision has been made for the instruction of the children of the Poor in the school of the Latin Roman-Catholics, evidently in order to prevent the parents sending them to us.

His Highness Mahomed Ali has not remained behind in this respect; as, during the course of last year, he has added two noble Institutions to his former Establishments.

The first is a grand School in the heart of Caïro—Sette Zenab—with 450 Boys. It was opened by Adham Bey, the Minister of Public Instruction, and is divided into four classes. The first three are instructed according to the common Arab manner; but the fourth is—as a trial—organized according to the system of the British and Foreign School Society; with the especial intention, that if the Directors should succeed in showing the Arabs the superiority of this system over that of their own miserable misrule, this order is to be adopted, and progressively introduced into all the schools of the country. If so, the Boys of this fourth class will be the first-prepared Teachers and Monitors for the nation. The principal Master of this class often visits us and our Schools, to see our management and gain our experience; when we give him all the aid in our power.

Adham Bey also made an attempt to open an Infant School; but failed, evidently, from the sole reason, that he mixed the sexes, which we had especially cautioned him not to do. His reasons for this innovation, however, were liberal and patriotic, as he wished to break down or weaken the exclusive and rigid laws of the harem system. His non-success is not to be wondered at; as even in Greece, where so much more freedom of thinking prevails, they have not as yet ventured upon so daring an experiment. We mentioned this to him: upon which he answered, that he had seen it succeed in Constantinople, and he could not see why it should not succeed in Caïro.

The second new great Establishment of the Pasha has been opened at Bulack, a suburb of Caïro, and is of a peculiarly pleasing character. The prime object is, to train up intelligent Young Men in the different European handicrafts. None are received into it but such Youths as have previously been taught the necessary elementary branches of knowledge in his other schools. The Pupils reside in the Institution, where they are supplied with all they require. These young Artisans are afterward intended, when fully competent, to be settled in different parts of the metropolis, that their skill in the European arts may be more widely and efficiently spread among the people. The Pasha has also commanded, that these lads are at the same time to receive all that is needful for a good education, so that they may become examples worthy of imitation to those around them. We have been assured, from good authority, that the Pasha said, when opening this Institution, that he wished by well-educated craftsmen to make their ignorant superiors — whom he could not force into the schools—ashamed, as the only way to excite them to seek for a better education. Sentiments and feelings of this kind are an honour, not only to Mahomed Ali, but to every monarch who may rule over even a much higher community. Such ideas, however indirectly, cannot be otherwise than ultimately beneficial to the spread of the Gospel.

There are also encouraging changes gradually going forward in the immediate field of our own labours; namely, in the Coptic quarter. There have been, since the commencement of 1840, no fewer than seven schools opened among the Copts in Caïro; two in the quarter formerly the residence of Mr. Müller, and five in our own; the schoolmasters of which have all applied to us for help and books. This we have ever considered as a sacred duty; and have ever been ready to supply them richly with the necessary elementary works from the Society's Press in Malta, as also with the Word of God, according to the number of their pupils. Many of their old schools, both within and without the city, have likewise been liberally supplied. In former years, our books were received in the schools rather with indifference, especially by the teachers; but the times are changed, for the same men are those who seek most eagerly to obtain them, thus acknowledging their value. The priests and monks are equally anxious for our useful publications, and often frequent our houses for the Word of the Living God. We remember that the period has not long passed, when we and our books were regarded by these very individuals with a suspicious eye, and looked upon almost with scorn. They now see their error. The first who came, wished to provide himself with books, particularly the Psalms and the Four Gospels in the Coptic and Arabic languages. Others followed, wanting supplies for their respective churches; some for their individual use in their convents, &c. We have also received applications of this kind, during the year, by Letter, from the convents in both the Eastern and Western Deserts; namely, in the former, from Mar Anthonius and Mar Boulus; and in the latter, from those of the Natron Lakes, or Mar Macarius's Desert.

These auspicious results we cannot but consider as having been, under God, greatly accelerated by the upright, bold, and Christian propositions made by the Rev. T. S. Grimshawe to the Coptic Patriarch. He, in the presence of bishops, priests, and a concourse of their most respectable followers,* said, that the present state of education for their Priesthood was inefficient, and did not at all correspond with or meet the wants of the Church, in these important times; but that if His Holiness the Patriarch wished for the better instruction of a superior Priesthood, he was sure that the Church Missionary Society would be ready, in all Christian love, to open for them so important an Institution.

In respect to this very desirable object, we have further to observe, that our long silence, in regard to it, has been induced by the political state of the country, in connexion with the natural fear of the Coptic Christians to enter, at the present time, into any thing like an open and intimate combination with England. The experience and persecutions of many ages have rendered them very cautious. But we have reason to consider, that the future erection of such an establishment is far from being hopeless; for, according to appearances, it seems, that as soon as peace is perfectly restored, the principles of this plan will be publicly announced, and then in general be carried into open execution.

The religious meetings of the Copts are to us of lively interest; because in them the Word of God is read in the common language of the country, and then discussed. These meetings, we are happy to state, continue with little interruption—a proof, we think, that they are the work of that Spirit through whom all have access to the Father: for faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God; and blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear, saith the Lord. A revival is evidently commencing in this ancient portion of the Christian Church. The seed which has been sown among them with so many prayers and anxieties is about, we trust, to spring up, in all the beauty of humility and faith. Oh that the power and the grace of Almighty God may bring these promising seedlings to ripe and mellow fruit; that in due season they may bear thirty, sixty, and a hundred-fold—fruits worthy of the garner of Him who is the Lord of the Harvest, as a recompence for the travail of His soul!

While their proceedings in general are satisfactory, there are many occurrences, in their assemblies, which painfully remind us of the spiritualizing and supercilious age of Origen—a spirit, in his time, at once to be admired and pitied. As an example, we will only mention, that, in one of their chief meetings, they disputed for seven days about the proposition, "If the angels have wings in reality, or not;" and although some of them proved, from the Scriptures, that the angels were there described as winged—a point which was beyond dispute—yet the majority of the disputants carried the question, by taking it for granted, that as spirits could not be in want of wings, those passages must be taken in a figurative sense. Disputes of this kind especially take place when priests and monks attend their meetings. They meet daily; Saturdays excepted, when they prepare for church.

There are now four of these meetings, which we have visited several times. Yet perceiving, that though we were received in a friendly manner, there was also much shyness and fear—arising from the political confusion in which the country was entangled—we deemed it wisest to lessen the number of our visits, until a more favourable season should bring greater security to these followers of the Gospel.

Our relations with His Holiness the Coptic Patriarch are, in every respect, friendly and pleasing; much approaching toward a spirit of real Christian brotherly love. For instance, when Mr. Schlienz commissioned Mr. Lieder to find out one or two persons in Caïro competent to undertake the correction of the proof-sheets for the new Translation of the Arabic Scriptures, Mr. Lieder first made the proposition to the Patriarch; who intimated, that he would gladly undertake the correction, and observe the hints given of what was really wanted. An offer of such a nature, coming from the Head of so important a branch of the Church of Christ, cannot be otherwise than hailed with hope and joy.

In reference to the Preaching of the Word, we can state, that we have been able to proceed in our duties as usual, without any interruption, both in the English and Arabic means of grace; though, during the latter months, we have had, from political circumstances, comparatively few hearers, especially at the English Service. It is a great satisfaction, nevertheless, to us, to have been able to preach the Word in season and out of season, notwithstanding the many obstacles in our way.

We have great pleasure in observing that there are other favourable signs in Egypt. During the past year, the demand for the Holy Scriptures, Educational and Religious Books and Tracts from the Home Society, as well as those from the Malta Press, has been greater than in any former year of our Mission. Of the Sacred Volume we have sold 197 copies; and have gratuitously given 443, especially in providing schools. In our own Schools, 225 have been distributed; making, in all, 865 copies. Books and Tracts sold, 340; given away, 2059; with 1478 used and distributed in our own Schools; making a total of 3877 copies. Although we are not able to say what kind of reception each of these silent messengers has met with, especially the Holy Scriptures, since they have been in the different hands and houses to which they were sent—none but the Sower is able to give any account of the seed he has sown—yet we have full reason to hope that many of these volumes are frequently used, and here and there esteemed as treasures; and we trust they will bear immortal fruits for a blessed eternity.

The Works published by the Malta Press have also been useful to the Schools of the Egyptian Government: for instance, we presented to the Minister of Public Instruction two copies of each of our Scholastic Works in the Turkish Language, as also of Mr. Faris's most ingenious Arabic Spelling and Reading-book: the latter was received with great approbation; and ordered to be reprinted at the Government Press, for the Pasha's Schools.

In concluding this part of our report, I have only to add, that I have been forced, on account of my other accumulated labours, to restrict my medical practice, in a great measure, to the extremely poor. To those who can afford it, I recommend to seek help of other and superior European Physicians. Often, however, I have received this emphatic answer: "But we are also in want of mercy; and Almighty God will bless the means, wherever He finds it exercised in charity and love."

We must now enter upon our Schools; which consist of a Seminary and two Day Schools; the one for Boys, the other for Girls. The Seminary is under the care of Mr. Krusé, the Schools under my care.

The Seminary, through the past year, has had 25 pupils—11 boarders, and 14 day scholars. The average attendance has been 22: they receive instruction from one European and two Native Teachers. Seven of these pupils belong to the Coptic, three to the Protestant, three to the Roman-Catholic, three to the Orthodox Greek, two to the Armenian, and two to the Maronite Church; while five are Mahomedans. Fourteen have left the establishment during the course of the year, and 15 fresh pupils have been admitted.

The Seminary consists of two classes, each receiving weekly 46 lessons.

The First Class contains 15 pupils, who are instructed in the following branches: In Arabic: Grammar and Composition, Reading in the Old Testament, Geography, Arithmetic, Caligraphy, Church History, and the Christian Catechism. One of the lads is now able to accompany the singing at Evening and Morning Prayers, by playing on a small organ called the Harmonica. In the English language, this class is instructed in Grammar, Caligraphy, and Orthographical Exercises: they are likewise taught Drawing. To this class also belongs the Church Singing during Divine Worship, on the Lord's Day. They likewise are able to join in the Responses and Psalms of the English Liturgy. One of them has begun translating, from English into Arabic, Luther's Commentary on St. Paul's Epistle to the Galatians; and a second translates into Arabic, Watts's larger Scripture Catechism. Some of the lads have made good progress in Arithmetic and Geography; and there has been added to their other studies, since the commencement of this year, 1841, the Elements of Geometry and Astronomy.

The Second Class contains 10 pupils, who are instructed in Arabic—Reading in the New Testament, Elements of Grammar, Arithmetic, Writing, Catechism of the Scriptures, and, theoretically, Singing. In English, this class is instructed in Writing, and in Reading and Translating the Spelling Lessons of the British and Foreign School Society, up to the number 40.

The conduct of these 25 pupils is, on the whole, satisfactory: some of them exhibit talent, with zeal. The Boarders, especially, make the most progress, as they are superintended out of their school-hours, and kept close to their studies; while the Day Scholars, judging from appearance, seem to be neglected at home.

The Boys' Day School.—The number of pupils on the books is 84; but the average attendance only 55, owing chiefly to the fluctuating circumstances of their parents. Fifty-three have left the School during the course of the year; and fifty-two new pupils have been admitted. One Syrian and two Coptic Teachers give instruction in this school. Sixty of the boys belong to the Coptic Church, five to the Roman Catholic, two to the Maronite, four to the Roman-Catholic Greek, one to the Latin Roman Catholic, and twelve are Mahomedans.

The Arabic and Coptic languages are taught in this school. The school-hours are from 8 to 12 A.M., and from 1 to 4 P.M. The system is that of the British and Foreign School Society. The children have weekly thirty-nine lessons; and twelve hours are employed in Religious Instruction, besides the daily reading of the Scriptures and Prayers. Eight of them read in the Old Testament, and the book of Select Passages of the Holy Scriptures; sixteen in the New Testament, and the Christian Catechism; twenty-six read the Scripture Stories, and Watts's Doctrinal and Historical Catechism, and twenty-four know the latter work by heart. Nineteen are learning the Elements of Coptic, on the reading-boards; and seven read in the Coptic Psalms. Eighteen lads have lessons in Writing and Arithmetic on paper, and the rest on wooden-tables. The school has evidently borne a higher character since Mr. Ayoub has taught the writing and arithmetic.

The Boys are going on steadily, but slowly. Thirty-five of the poorest receive a meal at noon.

We have now to give a sketch of the Girls' Day School. The number of pupils on the books has been 137; the average of attendance, 83. This is by far more than during any former year, and shows the improved and confirmed state of this part of our labour. As many as twenty-seven girls have left the school this year, owing to their being betrothed, but especially on account of their unnaturally early marriages; and fifty girls have been admitted. The different branches of instruction are taught in the school by four Teachers: Mrs. Um Suliman gives mental instruction in the common Day School; and Mr. Ayoub also gives superior lessons to a separate class in this department, with an especial view to train them up for able and active Schoolmistresses. The other Teachers are two Coptic ladies, for the native sewing and embroidery. Ninety-two of the pupils belong to the Coptic Church, four to the Greek, twenty to the Roman Greek, five to the Armenian, and six to the Roman-Catholic; while ten are Mahomedans.

In the Girls' School, the Arabic is the common means of instruction; but a few are taught the English language. The system and the hours of attendance are the same as in the Boys' Day School, Saturday excepted, when, that they may attend to domestic duties, the girls have a holiday. They have weekly thirty-five hours lessons; twenty of which are in the morning, for imparting mental instruction, and fifteen in the afternoon, for teaching Native and English sewing and embroidery. Ten girls read in the Old Testament, and twenty-five in the New. Forty-five are in the Scripture Stories, and Watts's Doctrinal and Historical Catechism; and thirty-five of them know this latter work by heart. Thirty-five have Writing-lessons on wooden boards, and Arithmetic on the common lesson boards. During five hours of the week, the whole of the pupils have Religious Instruction under Mr. Lieder's care and direction, besides the daily Reading of the Word of God, and Prayers.

Twenty girls, of promising talents, receive daily, with their parents' permission, two hours private instruction in Writing and Arithmetic, in Mr. Lieder's house, from Mr. Ayoub. The progress they are making is beyond expectation. The same girls, as a sort of encouragement, are allowed to work many useful things in Mrs. Lieder's private room, every afternoon; where Mrs. Lieder also instructs in English, sewing, &c.; which, I rejoice to say, the Arabs are beginning rightly to appreciate. The girls are, generally speaking, quicker in comprehension than the boys, and their progress is gratifying.—Twenty poor girls receive a meal at dinner-time.

The higher class of the Girls' School was especially formed, because the Society's funds did not allow the opening of a Seminary for Female Education. Yet the want of Female Teachers in the mental department was and is so pressing, that it may be safely said, that if Mrs. Um Suliman should leave her situation, it would be difficult to find her substitute among the whole female population of Egypt. During the year, Mr. Lieder succeeded in persuading the parents—on account of the deficiency of Mrs. Um Suliman in writing and arithmetic—to entrust their daughters to his own and Mrs. Lieder's immediate care, to be instructed by a male teacher. Having, by God's grace, gained this point, the girls now receive their mental instruction entirely from Mr. Ayoub. There were many difficulties, however, to be overcome, before this higher class could be established. Mr. Ayoub being married, his age, and acknowledged moral character, greatly facilitated our object, and levelled the ancient prejudices of Eastern custom to something within comparatively reasonable bounds. Yet the fact is unprecedented, that a man should be allowed to see the unveiled faces of those who are unmarried. A few years back, it would have been incomprehensible.

The children of both sexes in the Day Schools, with few exceptions, show in their conduct a grateful heart, and in their morals a hopeful disposition.

In reviewing the state of our Schools at the end of 1840, a year fraught with so many disheartening trials, and obstacles to our proceedings, we feel that we have to be deeply grateful that we have been able, not only to keep our position and to labour in our work, but that we have been permitted to do so much in our Master's Vineyard. Yea, the Lord hath been with us, and hath crowned us with mercy and loving-kindness. Blessed be the Name of the Lord!

Concluding Remarks.

In regard to the future prospects of our Mission, much of its welfare, under God, will depend upon the state of the country; and, judging at present from the signs of the times, we have every reason to hope that the day is dawning in brightness, and that happier days are before this hitherto oppressed nation; yea, that the times are at hand, in which the turmoil of dissension and of combat will have an end, when the soldiers literally shall beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning-hooks—a time, in which agriculture and commercial freedom shall flourish, and serene prosperity again bless with her riches a country once the garden of the world; but which, of late years, has been nothing but a scene of wretchedness, poverty, and want; where the poor peasant has scarcely a mendicant's subsistence from his native soil. Oh that the Chatt-Sherif, promulgated at Gulhane, may, in its faithful administration, prove, in its spirit of benevolence to the Eastern Empire, what Magna Charta has been to Britain from the Plain of Runnymede!

At the same time, we also hope and pray, that while the interference of the United Powers has succeeded in restoring the blessings of peace to these countries of the Orient—countries so long involved in the miseries of war and unbelief—they may likewise remember, but especially Great Britain, in settling the relations of the East, that there is yet something required; yea, the greatest blessing is still wanted in the Turkish Empire; namely, Liberty of Conscience, or Religious Freedom;—and surely the claims of England on the gratitude of the Sultan may justly demand this boon for her Protestant Church and Ministers. Oh, may our beloved country use every means, while it is in her power, to disentangle the Christian Faith from the fetters of Islamism, and thus discharge her high duties to Almighty God! Or, why is she raised to so mighty, prosperous, and everywhere to so victorious a power?—for we cannot believe that the extent of territory now in the possession of Great Britain, and which she has so rapidly acquired, was ever granted to her for mere political ascendency, nor that the uttermost parts of the world have been given to her sceptre for simply her national glory. Oh no! we feel that a far greater and more glorious design is the cause—that in her the first ages and actions of the pure primitive faith should be magnificently extended—that the bread of life should be set before all nations, kindreds, and tongues—that commerce, in connexion with civilization, arts, science, and the laws, should open the golden portals, and prepare the way for the footsteps of the Gospel. It is for these mighty reasons, we believe, that England, by the providence of our God, has been preserved through the midst of desolating wars and civil trials, and raised to the summit of that earthly glory which she now enjoys. No crisis in the history of Protestant Missions was ever more promising than the present signs of the good things to come—the prelude of that Apocalyptic promise, in which HE is to go forth conquering and to conquer. But the roads must be prepared, the mountains laid low, and the valleys exalted. That the means toward this mighty end are conspicuously connected with Christian Britain—the leader and champion of Protestantism—the first among the nations—the hope of the whole world—appears, we think, obvious; and that, as long as she loves and preserves the Truth, she will be the instrument of its universal diffusion.

We cannot conclude this lengthened Report, without praying that our dear young Queen may abundantly enjoy every blessing; and, while remembering the overflowing mercies that are around her, may she, in the spirit of her Thanksgiving to the King of Kings, liberally and largely supply the greatly-needed "Good Shepherds" for all her distant and numerous flocks, being governed in her choice by the Most High; and particularly, may she be overruled in her selection of that one, whose fervency, purity, and simplicity of faith, shall render him a Bishop indeed, worthy to raise the fallen Churches of the East to their original love in Christ Jesus!

And now, that the God of all Mercies may preside over your every council, and bless your labours as connected with His work, in time—and that the fruits thereof may be eternal glory to Emanuel—is the heartfelt wish of

Yours most faithfully,

RUDOLPH THEOPHILUS LIEDER.

PAID DIRECT TO THE PARENT SOCIETY.

☞ It being necessary, from the great number of Association Lists, to make up this List to the 31st of December in each year, Benefactions, Collections, and New Subscriptions, which are paid after that date, cannot appear in the Report presented to the Annual Meeting in the following May.

Benefactions of 10l. and upward, through Associations, are, after the first year, transferred to the General List of Contributions paid direct to the Parent Society, and continued in that List during the life of the Benefactor.

Anonymous Benefactions, and all Benefactions under 10l., are discontinued after having been once inserted.

The Names of Collectors are omitted in all cases where a payment has not been made within the last three years.

Subscribers and Benefactors who pay through the different Associations in London will find their names in the respective Lists of Associations.

Great difficulty being found in making the following List of Contributions correct, the Committee will feel obliged by having any errors, or alterations consequent on death, change of residence, or other causes, pointed out to them.

 Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus, necessarily, vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and 31st March in each year, and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgment to the local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which has the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Guineas and upward, whose Names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.

LEGACIES.

By the Third Law of the Society, Executors paying Bequests to the amount of Fifty Pounds become Members of the Society for Life. If there be more Executors than one, and the Legacy be not of sufficient amount to constitute each Executor a Member for Life, the Executor first named in the Will is considered to be the Member.

Legacies under 100l., which have been acknowledged in former Years, are omitted in the present List.
